Funds Granted For Hospitals

SEATTLE, March 1 (AP) — General Omar Bradley, veterans administration head in Washington, D. C., announced today congress has appropriated $5,537,095 for construction of three V. A. hospitals by the army engineers at Seattle, Miles City, Mont., and Roseburg, Ore.

Seattle will get a 300-bed general medical hospital costing $3,351,216.

Miles City will have a 100-bed general hospital costing $1,050,312.

At a cost of $1,125,567, a 164-bed addition to the neuropsychiatric hospital will be constructed at Roseburg.

These three projects are in the $188,278,208 hospital building program over the entire nation which was turned over to the army engineers today. The present program calls for the expenditure of $448,000,000 for VA hospitals during the next few years.
