The greatest amount recorded for any 24-hour period occurred on the 6th when .31 inch was measured. There were five clear days, 10 partly cloudy and 13 cloudy days during the month.

Dog License Deadline Up

Beginning today, all dogs without licenses picked up in town are headed for the city dog pound, the poundmaster has declared, and a $1 recovery fee will be charged owners.

March 1 was the deadline for dog licenses, and now a $1 penalty is being charged for late buyers at the county clerk's office.

Licenses cost $1.50 for males and $2.50 for females. Over $800 worth of permits were sold the last day before the penalty went on.

Community Chest Group Will Meet

The Klamath Community Chest association will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock in the chamber of commerce building for reorganization which will start on a local level.

Four local agencies, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Salvation Army will be the first organizations taken in, and any other agencies wanting to participate in community chest work may make formal application later.

Anyone in Klamath Falls interested in the work may attend the meeting Monday night.
