Your Dog as Many as Many Famous Breeders Do

W. S. Sorenson, owner of Klamath Kennel, Long Lake, Minn., says: "My Black and Tan pointer breeding stock is in excellent condition. They get GRO-POP every day. I start my puppies on GRO-POP, too, and they're strong, healthy and full of vigor."

Best breeders and veterinarians use and recommend a foundation of good dry dog food fed scrap meal, including fat. So feed Kellon's co-pup because it has all the vitamins and minerals known to need for dogs and vigor.

Co-pup is thrifty. And his hearty, meaty flavor.

This scientifically formulated food is available at all grocery stores, pet stores, and dog shops. Made in the U.S.A.
