

Langell Valley

Mrs. Merle Brewster of Klamath Falls spent Wednesday at Bonanza with Mrs. Bill Stewart, Merle and Al Bates of Medford visited in Langell Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier. Later they all enjoyed a show in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family spent Sunday at Midland with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pinell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Ayers went to Susanville last Sunday to attend the funeral of their sister-in-law Mrs. Otis Ayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dearborn and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Dearborn and family.

L. A. Constans spent last weekend in Klamath Falls where he met his daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harkeson of Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Campbell and daughter of Klamath Falls spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Boley were Sunday dinner guests at the Davis home.

The county men were stuck in the mud Tuesday morning and had to unload their dragline to get out. Cars were stuck in the same bog hole all night Saturday and all day last Sunday. The road is in very bad shape on the north side of Langell valley.

Mrs. L. W. Monroe of Cave Junction and her son Louis Monroe, spent several days with her daughter and family, the R. E. Thomases. Louis is home on leave after three years in the navy. He saw duty in the Atlantic as well as the Pacific. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Margaret Thomas returned with Monroes and will spend several days at Cave Junction.

Little Tommy Embrey is very ill at Hillside hospital. His mother is with him.

Mary Ann Wilson and Audrey Cochran spent last weekend in Klamath Falls with Mrs. Walter Pool and enjoyed the basketball tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Oberhiede, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potucek enjoyed Sunday dinner at Sari's in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Sloan and Mrs. Mary Dearborn spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Emery Johnson and Mrs. Mary Leidy and enjoyed a chicken dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown and Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Horsley and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Stoeschler returned last weekend from Fort Lewis. Buck received his discharge after many months in the Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and Ted and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Wells were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pepple and Bob of Klamath Falls. The Wells remained in Klamath Falls to spend a few days with the Pepples.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marchant and family spent Saturday evening with the Bill Burnett family.

The guild of St. Barnabas church will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer Roberts on March 7. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

GET UP IN THE MORNING FEELING LIKE $1,000,000

Thousands of men and women have found that time-tested Stuart Tablets bring quick, happy relief to sleep-robbing symptoms of acid indigestion, gasiness, and upset stomach. Taste delicious, easy to take—no mixing, no bottle. Try them—have a good night's sleep and wake up in the morning feeling like a $1,000,000. Get genuine Stuart Tablets at your druggist—only 25¢, 50¢, or $1.20 under mailer's positive money-back guarantee.

New Pine Creek

There will be a meeting of the Girl Scouts at the Grange hall Saturday at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Marsap is the new leader and she is anxious to meet all the girls over 10 years of age.

Earl Jones, from Mineral, Calif., has moved to New Pine Creek, locating in the old Baker property over on the creek. He was a former resident of Willow Ranch where he was employed five years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Hammersley are moving to Lakeview this week. Mr. and Mrs. Gooch and family will move into the house that they are vacating.

Every granger who has not had the first and second degree work is urged to attend the regular meeting of the East Side Grange this Saturday evening, March 2. It was announced by Lute Miller, grange master. Members from other granges who have not had this work are also cordially invited to attend.

A special invitation has been extended to the West Side and Thomas Creek granges to attend the meeting this Saturday to take the degree work and to join in a good lively social hour. There will be a regular program and dancing following the meeting.

The Happy Hour club met February 19 with Mrs. Clara Cloud as hostess. There were 14 members present, six children and one guest, Mrs. Myra Robnett. Mrs. Amy Cloud and Mrs. Thelma Gooch opened more gifts which they received in a continuation of the pink and blue shower. Mrs. Hazel Sanford received an anniversary gift and Mrs. Alice Allen a birthday gift.

In the riddle and cake quiz, Mrs. Eunice Cogburn won high prize and Mrs. Hazel Sanford, low prize. Refreshments were chicken sandwiches, olives, pickles, potato chips, coffee and punch. Next hostess is Mrs. Eunice Cogburn on March 5.

Charlie Larken was taken to the Althus hospital last week to receive treatment for a displaced vertebrae. He was not in any particular pain as long as he was quiet but when he moved about sharp pains of almost unbearable nature shot through the lower regions of his spinal column. His condition had not changed much according to the latest report.

Mrs. Frank Alexander underwent a major operation for appendicitis last week and is convalescing about as well as could be expected, according to her husband. However, she has had some very bad days along with the general improvement. Her friends all wish her a speedy recovery.

Slim Voltz, a former employe at Willow Ranch, has returned to exchange greetings with old friends. He is now discharged after spending about three years in the South Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lawson left last Monday for near Fort Bragg, Calif., where Everett will resume his pre-war job logging in the giant redwoods. He enjoyed a stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Lawson for over a month. Everett said he might return this fall and get into some sort of work here locally, as he didn't care to work in the woods during the winter months.

Roy Partin has been ordered to bed for a period of two weeks to allow a heart correction to take place. It was understood that the trouble was caused by straining the heart muscles at one time and thereby weakened the vital organ.

Evangelist H. A. Jenks of the Seventh Day Adventist faith started with a series of evangelistic meetings here last Sunday evening and will hold a meeting each evening except Friday and Saturday evenings for a two weeks' period.

Thirty-five or more persons received the first and second degrees in the subordinate East Side Grange last Saturday evening, at the largest meeting of grangers ever to assemble in the local hall. Ninety-four local members and 36 visiting grangers were in attendance at the meeting and the social hour was swelled to approximately 165 persons by the juncture of the juvenile grangers following their separate meeting in the Modern Woodman hall. Five new members also received the obligation. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Parlin and Layton Gentry. Mrs. Mildred Gentry was re-instated. The grange voted to install four new fluorescent light fixtures in the hall to replace the inadequate fixtures now installed.

Gene Deter of Lakeview brought four 4-H girls down with him and put on a short program of two songs and a tap dance number. Owing to the fact that everyone brought a generous dish, there was plenty of food for everyone at the midnight lunch. Dancing followed the supper and lasted until about 3 o'clock, and everyone seemed to have a good time.

The Home Ec club met last Thursday at the grange hall with 12 ladies and six children present. Mrs. Fannie Fisher was hostess. Mrs. Mary Snider won the guessing contest. Refreshing sandwiches, pickles, potato chips and coffee were served. Mrs. Eula Benefiel will be the next hostess in two weeks.

THE CLUB BLY, ORE.

Bar—Dancing—Bowling
"Come in as you are."
LEWIS WITTER, Prop.

Husbands! Wives! Want new Pep and Vim?

Thousands of couples are weak, worn-out, exhausted today because they lack pep. For new vim, vitality, try Oxytocin Tablets. Sipping from you, too, may mean pep, prophylactic dose vitamin B1. Get 35¢ introductory size now only 25¢.

PIN-WORMS NOW CAN BE BEATEN

The misery of Pin-Worms has been known for centuries, and millions of victims have sought a way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body. Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug a highly effective treatment has been made possible. This drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm Tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So don't suffer with the embarrassing, rectal itch caused by this ugly pest. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Keno

Mrs. C. H. McKeen and young son Freddie visited in Keno a few days week before last. Mrs. McKeen and children now live in Talent.

Mrs. O. L. Williams, who lived with the Foster family for about two and a half months over a month. Everett said he might return this fall and get into some sort of work here locally, as he didn't care to work in the woods during the winter months.

Roy Partin has been ordered to bed for a period of two weeks to allow a heart correction to take place. It was understood that the trouble was caused by straining the heart muscles at one time and thereby weakened the vital organ.

Evangelist H. A. Jenks of the Seventh Day Adventist faith started with a series of evangelistic meetings here last Sunday evening and will hold a meeting each evening except Friday and Saturday evenings for a two weeks' period.

Thirty-five or more persons received the first and second degrees in the subordinate East Side Grange last Saturday evening, at the largest meeting of grangers ever to assemble in the local hall. Ninety-four local members and 36 visiting grangers were in attendance at the meeting and the social hour was swelled to approximately 165 persons by the juncture of the juvenile grangers following their separate meeting in the Modern Woodman hall. Five new members also received the obligation. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Parlin and Layton Gentry. Mrs. Mildred Gentry was re-instated. The grange voted to install four new fluorescent light fixtures in the hall to replace the inadequate fixtures now installed.

Gene Deter of Lakeview brought four 4-H girls down with him and put on a short program of two songs and a tap dance number. Owing to the fact that everyone brought a generous dish, there was plenty of food for everyone at the midnight lunch. Dancing followed the supper and lasted until about 3 o'clock, and everyone seemed to have a good time.

The Home Ec club met last Thursday at the grange hall with 12 ladies and six children present. Mrs. Fannie Fisher was hostess. Mrs. Mary Snider won the guessing contest. Refreshing sandwiches, pickles, potato chips and coffee were served. Mrs. Eula Benefiel will be the next hostess in two weeks.

Mrs. C. H. McKeen and young son Freddie visited in Keno a few days week before last. Mrs. McKeen and children now live in Talent.

Mrs. O. L. Williams, who lived with the Foster family for about two and a half months over a month. Everett said he might return this fall and get into some sort of work here locally, as he didn't care to work in the woods during the winter months.

Roy Partin has been ordered to bed for a period of two weeks to allow a heart correction to take place. It was understood that the trouble was caused by straining the heart muscles at one time and thereby weakened the vital organ.

Evangelist H. A. Jenks of the Seventh Day Adventist faith started with a series of evangelistic meetings here last Sunday evening and will hold a meeting each evening except Friday and Saturday evenings for a two weeks' period.

Thirty-five or more persons received the first and second degrees in the subordinate East Side Grange last Saturday evening, at the largest meeting of grangers ever to assemble in the local hall. Ninety-four local members and 36 visiting grangers were in attendance at the meeting and the social hour was swelled to approximately 165 persons by the juncture of the juvenile grangers following their separate meeting in the Modern Woodman hall. Five new members also received the obligation. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Parlin and Layton Gentry. Mrs. Mildred Gentry was re-instated. The grange voted to install four new fluorescent light fixtures in the hall to replace the inadequate fixtures now installed.

Gene Deter of Lakeview brought four 4-H girls down with him and put on a short program of two songs and a tap dance number. Owing to the fact that everyone brought a generous dish, there was plenty of food for everyone at the midnight lunch. Dancing followed the supper and lasted until about 3 o'clock, and everyone seemed to have a good time.

The Home Ec club met last Thursday at the grange hall with 12 ladies and six children present. Mrs. Fannie Fisher was hostess. Mrs. Mary Snider won the guessing contest. Refreshing sandwiches, pickles, potato chips and coffee were served. Mrs. Eula Benefiel will be the next hostess in two weeks.

Mrs. C. H. McKeen and young son Freddie visited in Keno a few days week before last. Mrs. McKeen and children now live in Talent.

DANCE Saturday March 9 MALIN

Dancing 10 till 2

Music by

STUART'S ORCHESTRA

Midland

The Midland Victory club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Gray. Red Cross sewing was done by the club. Those present were Mrs. Edna Travers, Merle Gray, Mrs. Mable Thomas, Mrs. H. B. Phipps, Mrs. LeRoy Hauch, Mrs. John Mistler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Flowers on March 20.

Mrs. Estella Coppersmith of Oakland, is visiting with her daughter and family, Mrs. John Mistler.

Mrs. E. W. Burke who spent a week in Klamath Valley hospital is convalescing at her home in Midland.

John Mistler has returned home from Hillside hospital where he was a patient last week.

Capt. John Mistler and family arrived Friday from Leavenworth, Kas. He hopes to settle near his parents here.

E. W. Burke, S3/c, will leave March 3 for Farragut, Ida., where he will be released from the navy. Burke served as storekeeper on the President Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Kuhlman left Sunday for Indiana to visit relatives. Kuhlman was employed by Fred Milani.

Midland has a new service for the children. Rev. Ross of the Church of Assembly of God has arranged bus service for all children or adults who are interested in Sunday school. The

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FANTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identifies breath). Get FANTETH today at any drug store.

Symptoms of distress arising from stomach ulcers due to excess acid. Relieved QUICKLY. SUPER CUT-WAX DRUG EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE DRUG STAR DRUG

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Kenneth R. Ramsey, Bkr. 2/c, is at home on a few days' leave. Ramsey's wife and two children live in Klamath Falls. The baby daughter was born about 10 days ago. Kenneth was visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ramsey of Keno this past week. He will return to his base at San Diego at the end of his leave. He is hoping to receive his discharge in two or three months.

A number of Keno people attended the basketball tournament held at the Altamont Junior high school week before last.

Among those seen at Friday night's games were Mr. and Mrs. R. Glasspool, Harvey Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Warren Foster, Pat and Goham Wilkins, Odie Elder, Bob Glasspool, Jimmy Layton. Quite a number of students of junior high made up Friday's work earlier in the week in order that they might be able to attend Friday's games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Foster and little son Wally and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Randolph and children, all of Klamath Falls, were guests of the Joe Fosters at a delayed "Christmas" turkey dinner on the evening of February 12. Warren Foster, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, was also present at the dinner. The Foster brothers arrived home from overseas army service in January and February. Mrs. Randolph is a sister of Mrs. Walter Foster.

Campaign Begun To Save Myrtle Woods

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Kenneth R. Ramsey, Bkr. 2/c, is at home on a few days' leave. Ramsey's wife and two children live in Klamath Falls. The baby daughter was born about 10 days ago. Kenneth was visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ramsey of Keno this past week. He will return to his base at San Diego at the end of his leave. He is hoping to receive his discharge in two or three months.

A number of Keno people attended the basketball tournament held at the Altamont Junior high school week before last.

Among those seen at Friday night's games were Mr. and Mrs. R. Glasspool, Harvey Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Warren Foster, Pat and Goham Wilkins, Odie Elder, Bob Glasspool, Jimmy Layton. Quite a number of students of junior high made up Friday's work earlier in the week in order that they might be able to attend Friday's games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Foster and little son Wally and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Randolph and children, all of Klamath Falls, were guests of the Joe Fosters at a delayed "Christmas" turkey dinner on the evening of February 12. Warren Foster, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, was also present at the dinner. The Foster brothers arrived home from overseas army service in January and February. Mrs. Randolph is a sister of Mrs. Walter Foster.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FANTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identifies breath). Get FANTETH today at any drug store.

Symptoms of distress arising from stomach ulcers due to excess acid. Relieved QUICKLY. SUPER CUT-WAX DRUG EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE DRUG STAR DRUG

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Midland

The Midland Victory club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Gray. Red Cross sewing was done by the club. Those present were Mrs. Edna Travers, Merle Gray, Mrs. Mable Thomas, Mrs. H. B. Phipps, Mrs. LeRoy Hauch, Mrs. John Mistler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Flowers on March 20.

Mrs. Estella Coppersmith of Oakland, is visiting with her daughter and family, Mrs. John Mistler.

Mrs. E. W. Burke who spent a week in Klamath Valley hospital is convalescing at her home in Midland.

John Mistler has returned home from Hillside hospital where he was a patient last week.

Capt. John Mistler and family arrived Friday from Leavenworth, Kas. He hopes to settle near his parents here.

E. W. Burke, S3/c, will leave March 3 for Farragut, Ida., where he will be released from the navy. Burke served as storekeeper on the President Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Kuhlman left Sunday for Indiana to visit relatives. Kuhlman was employed by Fred Milani.

Midland has a new service for the children. Rev. Ross of the Church of Assembly of God has arranged bus service for all children or adults who are interested in Sunday school. The

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FANTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identifies breath). Get FANTETH today at any drug store.

Symptoms of distress arising from stomach ulcers due to excess acid. Relieved QUICKLY. SUPER CUT-WAX DRUG EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE DRUG STAR DRUG

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Kenneth R. Ramsey, Bkr. 2/c, is at home on a few days' leave. Ramsey's wife and two children live in Klamath Falls. The baby daughter was born about 10 days ago. Kenneth was visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ramsey of Keno this past week. He will return to his base at San Diego at the end of his leave. He is hoping to receive his discharge in two or three months.

A number of Keno people attended the basketball tournament held at the Altamont Junior high school week before last.

Among those seen at Friday night's games were Mr. and Mrs. R. Glasspool, Harvey Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Warren Foster, Pat and Goham Wilkins, Odie Elder, Bob Glasspool, Jimmy Layton. Quite a number of students of junior high made up Friday's work earlier in the week in order that they might be able to attend Friday's games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Foster and little son Wally and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Randolph and children, all of Klamath Falls, were guests of the Joe Fosters at a delayed "Christmas" turkey dinner on the evening of February 12. Warren Foster, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, was also present at the dinner. The Foster brothers arrived home from overseas army service in January and February. Mrs. Randolph is a sister of Mrs. Walter Foster.

Campaign Begun To Save Myrtle Woods

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Kenneth R. Ramsey, Bkr. 2/c, is at home on a few days' leave. Ramsey's wife and two children live in Klamath Falls. The baby daughter was born about 10 days ago. Kenneth was visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ramsey of Keno this past week. He will return to his base at San Diego at the end of his leave. He is hoping to receive his discharge in two or three months.

A number of Keno people attended the basketball tournament held at the Altamont Junior high school week before last.

Among those seen at Friday night's games were Mr. and Mrs. R. Glasspool, Harvey Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Warren Foster, Pat and Goham Wilkins, Odie Elder, Bob Glasspool, Jimmy Layton. Quite a number of students of junior high made up Friday's work earlier in the week in order that they might be able to attend Friday's games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Foster and little son Wally and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Randolph and children, all of Klamath Falls, were guests of the Joe Fosters at a delayed "Christmas" turkey dinner on the evening of February 12. Warren Foster, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, was also present at the dinner. The Foster brothers arrived home from overseas army service in January and February. Mrs. Randolph is a sister of Mrs. Walter Foster.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FANTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identifies breath). Get FANTETH today at any drug store.

Symptoms of distress arising from stomach ulcers due to excess acid. Relieved QUICKLY. SUPER CUT-WAX DRUG EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE DRUG STAR DRUG

PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—A campaign to "save the myrtle woods" was launched here today by an incorporated group of Oregon citizens seeking to preserve the few remaining groves of myrtle trees in Oregon.

Arthur R. Kirkham, president, said the group would seek to stem the uncontrolled depletion of the trees which has accelerated in recent years.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited at Phoenix, Ore., several days recently with Mrs. Cora Morgan, her husband's mother.

R. L. Athison and Guy L. Moore made a trip to Los Angeles the latter part of February. They were gone about five days.

Midland

The Midland Victory club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Gray. Red Cross sewing was done by the club. Those present were Mrs. Edna Travers, Merle Gray, Mrs. Mable Thomas, Mrs. H. B. Phipps, Mrs. LeRoy Hauch, Mrs. John Mistler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Flowers on March 20.

Mrs. Estella Coppersmith of Oakland, is visiting with her daughter and family, Mrs. John Mistler.

Mrs. E. W. Burke who spent a week in Klamath Valley hospital is convalescing at her home in Midland.

John Mistler has returned home from Hillside hospital where he was a patient last week.

Capt. John Mistler and family arrived Friday from Leavenworth, Kas. He hopes to settle near his parents here.

E. W. Burke, S3/c, will leave March 3 for Farragut, Ida., where he will be released from the navy. Burke served as storekeeper on the President Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Kuhlman left Sunday for Indiana to visit relatives. Kuhlman was employed by Fred Milani.

Midland has a new service for the children. Rev. Ross of the Church of Assembly of God has arranged bus service for all children or adults who are interested in Sunday school. The

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FANTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identifies breath). Get FANTETH today at any drug store.

Symptoms of distress arising from stomach ulcers due to excess acid. Relieved QUICKLY. SUPER CUT-WAX DRUG EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE DRUG STAR DRUG