Soroptimist

Three new members were in- troduced into the Soroptimist club at their regular business meet- ing on Thursday. Immediate past president, Catherine Brum- baugh, assisted by Pauline Gil- more, conducted the service and formally welcomed Ofa Smith, Eloise McIntyre and Lorraine Johnson into Soroptimism.

The remainder of the lunch- eon hour was taken up with matters of business and the dis- cussion and planning of service activities.

A letter of appreciation from the juvenile officer, Kaye Lucas, was read to the club, in which she expressed her thanks for the books and games sent her by the Venture club and Sor- optimist club for the use of the girls under her charge.

There is also a contest in progress between two teams for collecting books to be sent to Russia to help restock the li- braries which have been de- stroyed in the war.

Another continuous project is the sending of parcels of food and clothing to Holland for distribution by Soroptimists there to the needy. Any member who has articles to send may take them to Kennell-Elis Studio by Tuesday next and a committee of Soroptimists will pack and wrap them for mail- ing.

Several social events are be- ing planned in the near fu- ture, and President Kathleen Thompson appointed commit- tees to work on the prepara- tion for these affairs.

Junior and senior alternate delegates elected to attend the spring conference in Spokane were Izola Parker and Doris Peyton respectively.

Wed Recently

The marriage of Henrietta Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Roberts, Muskogee, Okla., to Douglas B. Vaden of Klamath Falls was solemnized March 2 at Liberal, Kan., ac- cording to word received here.

Vaden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Vaden, 2024 Fargo street. The Rev. George E. Hutto, Baptist minister, of- ficiated.

The bride is a graduate of Northwestern State Teachers college, Alva, Okla., and a member of Rho Theta Sigma sorority. During the past year, she has been a teacher in the Rolla, Kansas public schools.

The couple is scheduled to arrive in Klamath Falls March 12 where they will make their home. Vaden is a veteran and served in the ETO theatre.

Former Klamath Girl Weds In North

Mount Tabor Presbyterian church was the scene of the wed- ding Sunday afternoon, March 3, of Helen Lois Winningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milus P. Winningham of Portland and formerly of Klamath Falls, and Halac Gordon Wilson, son of Mrs. John Guy Wilson and the late Mr. Wilson.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. John W. Beard. Mrs. Amy Welch played the wedding music and Mrs. William Mitchell sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown embroidered with seed pearls and a full veil falling from a crown of lace and pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Douglas Sharp Jr., of San Francisco (Enid Winningham), was matron of honor for her sis- ter. She wore a frock of ice blue brocade with matching hat. Her bouquet of cerise carnations and sweet peas matched the cer- ise streamers of her hat.

The bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert Childs, Mrs. Jack Wells, and Harriet Ruth Christy of Seattle. They wore identical blue faille frocks with hats matching their gowns. Their cascade bouquets were of cerise carnations and sweet peas.

Little Patricia Sharp was flow- er girl for her aunt. Her frock was of white taffeta, and she wore a blue picture hat. She carried a nosegay of spring flowers.

Best man was Lt. Jerome Foley, and ushers were Mitchell Johnston, Alfred Friewald, Robert Hazen and Allen Crosby.

Mrs. Winningham, mother of the bride, wore a dress of melon crepe, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wilson, wore a powder-blue dress. Their flow- ers were orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Winningham re- ceived following the ceremony at the bride's home. Spring flowers and white candles were used about the rooms, and came- lias in varying shades of pink were arranged around the wed- ding cake.

Pouring were Mrs. J. V. John- ston, Mrs. Harry Spieth Sr., Mrs. Edwin Drake, formerly of Klam- ath Falls, Mrs. J. C. King and Mrs. A. L. Holmes. Mrs. Annie Easton, Mrs. Emmitt Stoddard and Mrs. Glen Brown served the wedding cake.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home in Salem where he is com- pleting his law course.

Mr. Wilson is on terminal leave after four years of service with the army air corps. He had lengthy duty overseas as pilot with the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

Reames Dance

Tonight, Saturday, members of Reames Golf and Country club and their guests will gather in the clubhouse for the first party since New Year's eve when they celebrate with a St. Patrick's dance.

Dancing will start at 9:30 o'clock and long dresses will be worn by the women guests.

Irish stew will be served fol- lowing dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Darrol Miller are chairmen for the affair.

Spring Luncheon

Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck was hostess this week to a group of friends at a bridge luncheon in her home at 428 Jefferson.

Spring flowers decorated the table where places were marked by individual jonquil nosegays.

High score went to Mrs. How- ard Dixon and low to Mrs. Haaby Bechen. Other guests present were Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Greer Drew, Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore, Mrs. Fred Burgoyne, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Charles Mack, Mrs. Bryant Wil- liams, Mrs. Boyd Sprague, Mrs. Don Anderson, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mrs. Phil Lee, Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mrs. Melvin Miller, and Mrs. John Schu- bert.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kuyken- dall and sons were hosts at din- ner Saturday evening for Mrs. David T. Bullis and sons, Lester and Roger.

Visitors

Lt. Comm. and Mrs. Floyd Stanley were visitors in Klam- ath Falls last weekend. Mrs. Stanley is the former Jean Con- don Strahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Condon of Seat- tle. The couple was married in a ceremony read in Seattle Tues- day, February 19.

Stanley returned in early Feb- ruary from Okinawa. Before go- ing on active duty with the navy, he was manager of Pacific Fruit Express here.

February Meeting

The February meeting of Del- ta Kappa Gamma was held Sat- urday afternoon in the parlors of the Presbyterian church.

Olive Wilson, president, pre- sided over the business session, after which she turned the meet- ing over to the program chair- man, Eva Burkhalter.

"Enrichment of the Personal Life of the Teacher" was the topic discussed by the members of the program committee. Ger- aldine Owsley told of security through legislation and how the teacher can secure emotional poise.

Dorothy Baillie continued by speaking on physical fitness, ap- pearance and hobbies. Eva Burk- halter commented on the enthu- siastic teacher, her participation in community life, and prepar- ing to meet the problems she must face.

Group discussion followed the program, and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Ger- aldine Owsley, Edna Bloom and Irene Foster.

The Neighbors Is AAUW Play

Each year the drama group of Klamath chapter, American Association of University Women, presents a rare treat in the form of an excellently prepared and acted play. This year the study group of AAUW has chosen Zona Gale's comedy-drama, "The Neighbors," under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

The one-act play, which runs about one hour, was given for high school students this past week and on Monday, March 11, the play will be given for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club in the Little Theatre off Mon Claire. This is the regular March program for the club.

The play will again be pre- sented for the pleasure of AAUW on March 16, and for the general public on March 17. There is a small admission fee at the Mon- day meeting for non-members of Library club. Others will be ad- mitted on presentation of mem- bership card.

The play is full of humor and pathos and those who have seen the production say it is by far the best that has been given by the study group. There are four professional players in the cast.

Next Monday doors of the Little Theatre will open at 1:45 p. m., and the play will be given at 2 p. m. sharp.

Members of the cast include, "Grandma," who resents being old and useless, Mrs. Don Zum- walt; "Mis' Abel," a capable manager, Mrs. Chester Oppen; "Ezzy Williams," whose bark is worse than his bite, David Wil- liams; "Peter," a bashful swain in love with Inez, John Ogile; "Inez," winsome daughter of Mis' Abel, Marilyn O'Neill; "Mis' Moran," who has a misery, Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill; "Mis' Trot," a spotless housekeeper, Phyllis Foster; Carry Ellsworth, a lone widow, Mrs. Aaron Hoffman.

The public is urged to accept the invitation of the drama group to attend the March 17 program at 3 p. m. at the Little Theatre.

Elks Dance

The Irish will take over at the Elks St. Patrick's dance to be held in the ballroom of the Elks temple Saturday night, March 16, for members and their ladies.

Arranging for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Ma- honey, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Francy and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Maxwell.

Mulligan stew will be served in the dining room according to early plans of the committee and the hall will be appropriately decorated in the St. Patrick's theme. The affair is informal.

"THE NEIGHBORS" by Zona Gale will be presented for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club Monday at 2 p. m. in the Little Theatre off Mon Claire. Members of the AAUW drama group cast are, left to right and seated, Phyllis Foster, Marilyn O'Neill and John Ogile. Standing, Mrs. Chester Oppen, Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, Dave Williams, and in the chair, Mrs. Don Zumwalt, and at the organ, Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill. —Evergreen.
