THAT DID IT

KANSAS, CITY March 12 (AP) Floyd Harvey deputy collector of internal revenue tried to explain to a taxpayer that money paid to a veterinarian for care of the man's dog was not deductable from his federal income tax.

The taxpayer insisted the dog belonged to his family was dependent on the family that its medical expenses should be deducted.

"Well, I'll put it this way," Harvey sighed. "Just how is the dog related to you? Is it by blood, marriage, or adoption?"

That ended the discussion.
