

Scout-Camp Fire Program Heard

The annual Girl Scout-Camp Fire Girls' program was presented at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held Monday evening, March 4, at the Willard hotel, under the direction of Norma Miller as program chairman, assisted by the executives of both organizations, Florence McConahey and Ethyl Bremer.

During the program hour, Bluebirds of the Camp Fire put on their skit, song and wish, and Camp Fire Girls presented a skit and their creed, musical numbers by a quartet and other songs.

The Girl Scouts' part of the program consisted of a musical game and recitation of the Scout creed.

Centerpieces for the dinner tables were arranged by the Camp Fire groups of Mrs. Jack Elliott and Mrs. Floyd Stewart. Clever placecards of green painted corks with a torch on top were made by the Camp Fire Girls for this occasion, while the Scouts' contribution was paper flower cups filled with nuts.

A splendid exhibit of Girl Scout and Camp Fire handicraft was arranged for the pleasure of the BPW members, including the dolls made for the Doernbecher hospital.

Also on the program was a reading by May Moss, and Red Cross moving pictures, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, and presented by Stuart Balsiger.

Jessie Jones of Arlington, Va., was the only guest of the evening.

A meeting of the executive board of BPW was held Monday evening, March 11, at the home of Coral Sabo on Pine street.

VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. Walter Thompson presided over the meeting of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held in the library clubroom Thursday evening with 30 present. One candidate, Ann McComb, was initiated at this time. The council and department meeting is to be held in Portland March 13 and 14 and Mrs. Henry La Barge, district president of Pelican auxiliary 13, and Mrs. Walter Thompson, president of the local auxiliary, will attend. They will leave Tuesday. Mrs. A. A. Myers, department standard bearer, and Mrs. C. W. Henry, secretary to the district president, will be unable to attend. The luncheon and banquet will be held at the Congress hotel in Portland.

Plans were made for the district meeting to be held here March 24 in the library clubroom, and the district meeting for Pelican post 1383 which will be held at the same time in Danceland. Mrs. J. H. Carnahan, Mrs. Frank Subject and Mrs. C. W. Henry are on the committee for the auxiliary meeting and Robert Canoy, Frank Subject and A. O. Miller are to be in charge of arrangements for Pelican post. These will not be joint meetings, however.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. O. Lohrey, assisted by Mrs. Marie Gray Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Martin Jenkins. The next meeting will be on March 21, and there will be election of officers and a supper served by members of Pelican post after the meeting.

Beta Sigma Phi

Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held its regular meeting Thursday evening, March 7, at the home of Mrs. Warren Poole, 1129 Lincoln.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Poole, program chairman, introduced the topic of the evening, "The Story of Speech." Talks were given by Mrs. John B. Harding and Mrs. Pat Fairchild, outlining the origin of speech and the growth of language. Refreshments were served after the program by the hostesses.

The group will have a St. Patrick's Day party Friday, March 15, at the home of Frances Ballin, 1342 Sargent.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stephen Sabo Jr., 73 Pine, Thursday evening, March 21, at 8 o'clock, and it will be in the form of a model meeting.

The case of the Scratch that Wasn't There!

or how OLD-ENGLISH SCRATCH REMOVING POLISH does all its name implies!

There it was, a big, ugly, jagged gash on the precious heirloom desk. But Old-English Scratch Removing Polish sank into the crevice, hiding the scratch and blending perfectly with the fine mellow finish. What's more, it left a gleaming satiny lustre.
