C of C Studies City Zoning Plan

LAKEVIEW, March 13—The civic committee of the Lake County chamber of commerce laid plans Friday to study the possibilities of zoning the city, and Mayor Lyle North was requested to obtain all possible information on this matter from the League of Oregon Cities of which organization Lakeview is a member municipality.

Ernest A. Fetsch, committee chairman, also stated that participation is being arranged in forthcoming fire prevention campaigns. The matter of conducting a Community Chest was referred to the civic coordinating council for recommendation and possible decision.

The civic group also considered the three-year postwar improvement program of the Lakeview water commission, which was found to be very satisfactory.

More Consideration For Vets Urged

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP) Rep. Angell (R-Ore.) today urged the war assets corporation to give more consideration to veterans desiring to purchase surplus government property for their own use.

Angell said he had received many complaints from veterans who say they are unable to get surplus government property when placed on sale. He said lack of a disposal station in Portland kept many veterans from making purchases and he urged the corporation to establish such a depot in that city and to eliminate red tape.
