

Klamath USO Holds Last Party

By EDNA KILLMEYER
The last function of the Klamath Falls USO before closing its doors here was a special closing ceremony held last night. It was attended by about 350 volunteers and servicemen. Guest speaker was Maj. Henry H. Koerner, regional head of the Salvation Army USO, who came here for the ceremony from San Francisco. He stressed the importance of the need for the public to remember that just because some service clubs are closing there are still large numbers open, which will continue to serve until late 1947. He added that the many men still serving in the armed forces deserve all the attention the public can give, and that their needs must not be forgotten.

Special awards were presented to volunteers who have served 500 hours at the USO. Receiving the awards were Mrs. W. E. Beck, Mrs. Neva Hays, Mrs. S. R. Redkey and Mrs. John Schubert. Recognition for serving over 150 hours went to 44 volunteers, and 62 were given recognition for over 50 hours service. All workers were given national certificates. The presentations were for recent service since there have been three other programs to give recognition to workers who helped at various times during the USO's existence in Klamath Falls.

Maj. W. Roswall gave the invocation, and the benediction was given by the Rev. Father John Phelan. Clarence Humble was master of ceremonies. Margaret Mealy, regional director of the National Catholic Community service, women's division, presented awards. Following the program refreshments were served. Equipment is being marked today for shipment to other USO clubs by Maj. Koerner, and Donald Forbes, associate director of building service.

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL

KUHS will have a revised scheduling of classes next year. With the beginning of school next fall the kids will be coming to school at 8:30. There will be no home room period, as there is now, the first thing in the morning. The students will instead go to first period class. First and second period periods will be 50 minutes in length instead of the present 55 minutes. Next will come a 40-minute home room period in which roll will be taken. This period is the basis for the whole schedule change.

Activity Period
An activity period has been needed to cut down on interruptions during class time by assemblies and club meetings. In the future almost all assemblies will be placed in this period and club meetings will have to be scheduled in advance so that there will not be conflicts. When there is no activity the time will be used as a study period. Following the activity period students will go to third period class.

Afternoon periods will remain the same except that the classes will be 50 minutes long and school will be out at 10 minutes to 4 o'clock. The library study hall will still remain in the period schedules. It is possible that sometimes the morning home room period and the third period may be reversed so as to be used at a better advantage for assemblies. This change was passed by a large majority of teachers. However, the arrangement of an activity period was in effect a few years back in the halls of KUHS on a slightly different basis.

The annual spring concert which was presented by the music department last night at school played to a capacity audience. The program consisted of numbers by the band, girls' glee club, orchestra, a cappella choir. The program was varied with numbers running from classical to the more modern tempo of boogie woogie. Oland Warcup, John Best and Andrew Loney were the directors for the numbers. Rodney Murray was student conductor in one number. Rod also played a clarinet solo accompanied by the band during the program. Incidental solos were sung by Gordon Robinson and Alyce Wells. Barbara Zimm, Joanne Robinette, Marie Wright and Patsy Hambrick were the accompanists for the evening on the piano.

The performance was good. It will be shown again tonight at 8:30 in the auditorium. John McClellan, Stanley McClellan, Don Boudon, Vern Eriks, Willard Brightman, Gordon Scott, Ronnie Gully, Bill Harper, Dale Keasey, Clarence Hames worked on the stage in some of the behind the scenes work needed to give the show. Honor society members were ushers for the affair and will usher again tonight. Little Wayne Angel, winner of the Adler music contest, was a guest last night. Wayne is in the fourth grade at Mills. He played Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 6.

Safety Council—There will be a meeting of the traffic safety council at 7:30 tonight in the city hall.

Tulelake Boy Suffers Burns

Alvin Baumgart, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baumgart of Tulelake, is in Hillside hospital where the child is being treated for first and second degree burns on the lower part of the body and legs.

The mother of the child was unable to explain how the child suffered such serious burns but he is thought to have been playing with matches in another part of the house. The father is employed as a carpenter by McCollum Lumber company at Malin. Mrs. Baumgart rushed the boy to Dr. F. E. Trotman of Merrill who brought the youngster to Hillside.

St. Patrick's Dance Slated

Elks club completed arrangements today for a St. Patrick's dance to be held at the lodge home on Saturday night. Justice J. A. L. McDaniels, Don Schooler, Walter Patch, James E. Hammond, Charles E. Cummings, Geno Gheller, Lynn Keller, Ray Johnson, Bryant Williams, James Merrillees, W. C. Canton Jr., Voloby Conner, A. M. Lepley, R. P. Oliver, Clifton E. Hines, Walter H. Siastny, Horace W. Hazen, W. Lowden, John Robinson, George F. Conner, Victor A. Rose, A. M. Hatton, Lester V. Wells, Dale Hoover, Francis O'Connor was initiated for Baker lodge.

Irish To Take Over Merrill

MERRILL, March 15—The Irish are taking the town next to the more modern tempo of boogie woogie. Oland Warcup, John Best and Andrew Loney were the directors for the numbers. Rodney Murray was student conductor in one number. Rod also played a clarinet solo accompanied by the band during the program. Incidental solos were sung by Gordon Robinson and Alyce Wells. Barbara Zimm, Joanne Robinette, Marie Wright and Patsy Hambrick were the accompanists for the evening on the piano. The performance was good. It will be shown again tonight at 8:30 in the auditorium. John McClellan, Stanley McClellan, Don Boudon, Vern Eriks, Willard Brightman, Gordon Scott, Ronnie Gully, Bill Harper, Dale Keasey, Clarence Hames worked on the stage in some of the behind the scenes work needed to give the show. He played Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 6.

NO DOUBT IT'S GOOD GREENSBORO, N. C. March 15 (AP)—The U. S. collector of internal revenue here received an income tax return from a North Carolina woman showing, correctly, that she owed no tax. Accompanying it was a check made out for "no dollars and no cents," with a notation "No tax due" in the lower left corner.

us away from the up and down swings that are so disastrous to our economy.

Because of its manifest advantages, one wonders why the system of incentive payment has not gone into such bad odor in industry generally.

THE answer isn't hard to find. It is largely because of narrow-minded, short-sighted, tight-fisted EMPLOYERS who in the past have established incentive payment systems (piece work, commissions, etc.) and then, when they saw the earnings of their employees RISING as a result of more work for more pay, have CUT THE RATE OF PAY—thus destroying incentive, strangling initiative, and bringing on the distrust, the ill will and the RETALIATION that invariably follow cheating in business.

That, as much as anything else, has been responsible for wrecking the system of incentive payment—which won't work unless it is fairly and honestly handled. As so often happens, honest and progressive employers have been made to suffer for the sins of the dishonest and non-progressive ones.

4 Acquitted In Fraud Case

PORTLAND, March 15 (AP)—The four defendants in the Coos Bay oyster bed trial were acquitted on all nine counts by a federal jury early this morning. Edgar Robert Errion and Glenn R. Munkers of Salem, and James R. Barton and P. E. Blackmon, Portland, went on trial February 25 on charges of fraud in the promotion of Coos Bay oyster beds. The jury of five men and seven women, after 10 hours deliberation, returned a verdict of innocent on all counts: six of using the mails to defraud, two of violating the securities statute, and one of conspiracy.

Byrnes Backs Report On Reds

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP) Secretary Byrnes today backed up state department reports on Soviet troop movements in Iran with the assertion that they had come from reliable sources and, in some cases, from American representatives. He made the statement at a news conference at which he declined to confirm or deny that Ambassador Wallace Murray had told the Iranian government the United States is supporting Iran in opposing Russian activities.

SUBURBAN LEAGUE MEETS
Members of the Suburban league will meet Friday at 8 p. m., tonight, in the Shasta school. A social meeting with refreshments will follow. Anyone interested is invited.

The cornea of a cat's eye has a curved area two-thirds greater than a man's cornea, and for this reason can see farther to the side than a man can.

State Tax Rate Normal

SALEM, March 15 (AP)—The state income tax rate this year, while higher than for the past two years, is back at the normal rate, the state tax commission said today in answering complaints about the increase.

Because of big surplus receipts, the 1943 legislature passed the Walker plan where by the tax commission could reduce the rate 5 per cent for each $1,000,000,000 of surplus.

This made the 1944 rate only 25 per cent of the normal rate, and the tax payable in 1945 70 per cent of the normal rate.

The 1945 legislature gave additional amounts to schools, and the people last June voted a $10,000,000 building program for state institutions and colleges and university. All of this money ate up the surpluses on hand, so that the tax rate now is the same as it was before the Walker plan was passed.

GI's Leave Troop Ship

SEATTLE, March 15 (AP)—By special arrangements from the army, the 4728 military personnel, including 135 army nurses, debarked from the quarantined transport General Pope late yesterday, and were transferred to isolation barracks at Fort Lawton. The entire group will be held at least until Saturday when tests on a suspected typhus case are completed. A series of such tests by the U. S. public health service are still under way and if the case proves to be the dread disease, the quarantine period may be extended, officials said. The 549 civilian merchant seamen will remain aboard the vessel in Elliott bay. The ship arrived from Yokohama with most of the veterans aboard due for discharge. While the unhappy GI's and others sweated out their debarkation aboard the transport yesterday, the ship cruised around the harbor and out on Puget sound on a specially arranged "sightseeing" tour. From the ship's foremast flew the international code flag "Q" or "Yellowjack."

Girl Scout Troop In Need Of Leaders

MALIN, March 15—The Girl Scout troop committee meeting recently at the home of Mrs. T. A. DeMerritt discussed the need for leaders for the troop beginning in June when the terms of the present leaders, Mrs. Helen Rajnus and Mrs. Mary Victorine expire. Anyone interested in helping out with this work is asked to contact either of the leaders. All officers and members of the committee were present.

Plans were made for a Mothers' Day tea. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to Mrs. Ethel Roberts, committee chairman, Mrs. Glenn Morton, Mrs. Marie Ottoman, Mrs. Helen Rajnus, Mrs. Mary Victorine, Mrs. Ruth Griffith, Mrs. Agnes Schreiner.

KILLED INSTANTLY
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 15 (AP)—Leuterio Zamora, 38, caught a ride home in a truck loaded with lumber. The engine stalled. While the driver went for help Zamora sat in the cab. A car crashed into the truck and drove a piece of lumber through Zamora's head, killing him instantly.

CITY BRIEFS

Dance—A dance for members of the Eagles lodge and the auxiliary is scheduled for Saturday night in lower FOE hall. Those attending will wear overalls or aprons. There will be a small affair. This is a St. Patrick's affair.

Medford Forester Here On Business

W. E. Bates, timber management assistant in the U. S. forestry office at Medford, was in town Thursday and Friday on business with John W. Sarginson, district ranger of Rogue River national forest. Bates has recently been transferred from the Olympic national forest to Rogue River and is here to become acquainted with problems in the district. The men spent Thursday at Rocky Point looking over the Finney logging area.

PROGRAM CHANGE MADE
Due to the fact that Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., manager of the California Oregon Power company's Klamath district, has been called out of the city, a change has been made in the BPW club program for Monday evening, March 18, at the Willard hotel. The "Know Your Community" program, originally planned for the middle of April, has been moved up to Monday and will be in charge of the club's officers, according to Hazel Morrison, president.
