Today's Roundup

By MALCOLM EPLEY
THE low state of political interest in this area is indicated by a lack of voter registration activity in advance of the primary election.

Registration deadline for that election is April 16 — exactly a month from today — and in this year, especially, there should be by this time a mounting volume of voter registration at the clerk's office.

Newcomers Should Register

OTHERS to whom this reminder should be especially significant fall in these categories:
1. Newcomers who have not registered at all in this county...

One New Precinct

VOTING precincts in the county are unchanged, with one exception.
A new precinct (No. 33) has been set up in the South Sixth street area...

Camp Fire Girls To Attend Special Church Services

Tomorrow more than 360,000 Camp Fire Girls throughout the nation will attend special church services, initiating the celebration of the 34th anniversary of the organization's founding...

SIDE GLANCES

"I'm afraid John isn't much of a financier—we could sell this house at a big profit now, but he's so conservative he says he'd like to know where we'd live if we sold!"

thence northwesterly to the city limits, and thence to the point of beginning.
An effort has been made to re-register the voters in that area...

Important Election

THAT, in general, is the registration situation. Oregon law does not provide for swearing-in of non-registered voters. Those whose names are not on the registration lists by April 16 will not be able to vote in the primary.
