

State Club Meet Slated In North

Dr. Martha Eliot, Associate Chief of the Children's Bureau, Washington, D. C., will be the principal speaker for the banquet of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs convention to be held in Portland May 8. Her topic will be "The Health of Tomorrow's Child." The session is of vital interest to Klamath county clubwomen.

The convention will open on Monday morning, May 6, at the First Christian church, Portland. Morning and afternoon sessions will be devoted to reports on federation work, which will be made by state chairmen. Authorities in the field of health and welfare will present pertinent information at each of the daytime sessions.

The evening session on the opening day will feature junior club work with Buena Maris, dean of women, Oregon State college, as the featured speaker. The topic for discussion will be "Young Women, Where Are You Going?" A Pan-American theme will be followed the second evening with President Harry K. Newburn, University of Oregon, giving the principal address. It is anticipated leaders of education in Oregon will be present. The Pan-American scholarship federation is to establish this year will be announced. At the closing banquet session Governor Earl Snell and Mayor Earl Riley will appear on the program with Dr. Eliot serving as principal speaker.

A number of social occasions have been planned. On Tuesday morning a presidents' breakfast will be held at 8 a. m. at the Mallory hotel. This is for presidents of districts and local clubs.

The Arts Museum will be the scene of the largest social event of the convention. A tea will be held at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday and will honor past presidents of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Several new features have been planned for the convention which it is anticipated will add to the enjoyment and informality of the convention. Following the Monday and Tuesday evening sessions soirees have been planned which will allow club members to chat informally.

The fine arts department is planning an art exhibit of the creative efforts of club women. Each club is expected to participate in the exhibit.

The convention committee has been very active in making plans for the convention and is headed by Mrs. Emery Ingham, first vice president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs has arranged for speakers for the convention. Members of the committee are Mrs. E. E. Trahan, president, Portland Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. E. E. Hall, Mrs. William Chandler, Mrs. William Kletzer, Mrs. Henry Harris and Mrs. Charles Johns.

Church Rites

Carolyn Frances Davis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Davis of this city, became the bride of Douglas Wayne Clement, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Clement of the Henley district, in a double ring ceremony read in the chapel of the First Christian church by the Rev. Howard F. Hutchins, Wednesday evening, March 6, at 7 o'clock.

The bride was attired in a black dressmaker suit with powder-blue accessories and a single purple orchid at her shoulder.

Attending the couple were Ida Giovannini and Nello Pieruceni. Miss Giovannini wore a black dressmaker suit with pink accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

The groom recently returned from duty in the South Pacific. Both he and Mrs. Clement are graduates of Klamath Union high school.

Mrs. Clement is making her home with her parents for the present while her husband is stationed in Seattle.

Nevada Bride

Gloria Vaden, daughter of Mrs. Gena Collins of this city, became the bride of Chester Morris, formerly of Reno and of this city for the past two years, in a ceremony read March 8 in Carson City, Nevada, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Chapin of the First Christian church.

The bride wore an informal afternoon frock of light blue trimmed with black lace and wore a cluster of white gardenias. Professor Compton and Mrs. Chapin attended the couple.

They are now at home at 4831 Summers lane.

Initiation

The Eagles auxiliary has been holding regular meetings every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the lower FOE hall, 9th and Walnut. March 12 a class of 12 candidates was initiated. This class was dedicated to the auxiliary's ex-Wac, Ruby Tingley.

Entertainment and refreshments were featured after the business meeting. A year's dues was awarded to Peggy Long.

Officers and drill team practice every Wednesday evening in the upper hall and will compete in the district convention in Lakeview May 5. The auxiliary drum corps practices Sunday afternoons from 1:30 to 3 o'clock in the lower hall.

MRS. CHESTER MORRIS is the former Gloria Vaden of this city, her marriage an event of March 8 at Carson City, Nevada. —Evergreen.

Dance Planned

Throughout the United States celebrations are being held in honor of the American Legion founding anniversary, and in Klamath Falls the auxiliary of Post No. 8 is sponsoring a birthday party for all old and new Legion members, Tuesday night, March 19, in the War Memorial building, 4th and Klamath.

Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Petersteiner, president, the following committees are completing arrangements: Buffet and cake, Louise Cooper, Eura Bustin, Lina Motschenbacher, Lillian Otterbein, Myrtle Finley, Vera Petrick and Mildred Cooper; tickets, Shirley Otterbein, Neva Coles and Lillian Otterbein; check room, Mrs. Mary Curtis and Mrs. Christine Grubb.

Dancing to the music of Shepherd's orchestra will highlight the evening and cards will be played by those not wishing to dance.

A short business meeting of the post will be held prior to the party, and an Evinrude motor, obtained through the cooperation of Past Commander Carl Schubert, will be auctioned off.

All discharged veterans of any

Allan East Is League Speaker

At a luncheon meeting Wednesday, March 13, in the Pelican party room, a large group assembled in the interest of child welfare heard Allan East, field secretary and psychiatric school social worker for the University of Oregon Medical school guidance extension, discuss the "Role of Lay Committees in Child and Family Welfare Programs."

The meeting was arranged by the government and social welfare committees of the Klamath County League of Women Voters. Mrs. Donald F. McKay, president, conducted the meeting, and the speaker was introduced by Mrs. M. P. Leonard, social welfare chairman. Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr. was chairman in charge of arrangements and was assisted by Mrs. Carl Hagel, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mrs. R. L. Raglund and Mrs. Thomas Parker.

Twelve court, law enforcement, public welfare and service organizations were represented in addition to the League of Women Voters.

East's interest in children's activities started while he served as playground director in Multnomah county. After graduation from the University of Oregon he was appointed research fellow for the University of Oregon crime survey of Multnomah county in 1927. He was executive secretary for the Oregon Mental Hygiene society until his appointment with the Oregon Medical school.

In his address East stated that it was through organizations of interested citizens that all progress has been made in the present court handling of juveniles.

East's interest in children's activities started while he served as playground director in Multnomah county. After graduation from the University of Oregon he was appointed research fellow for the University of Oregon crime survey of Multnomah county in 1927. He was executive secretary for the Oregon Mental Hygiene society until his appointment with the Oregon Medical school.

In his address East stated that it was through organizations of interested citizens that all progress has been made in the present court handling of juveniles.

Contract Club

The Thursday Contract club met March 7 at the home of Fannie Thompson of 1334 Owens, with Willa Bark the hostess for the afternoon. Idoline Schupp received the award for high score, Alice Lawrence, second, and Lora Evans, a guest, received the traveling award. Another guest was Betty Duntton.

Stella Dryden of 610 North 11th will be hostess for the meeting March 21.

March Meeting

A St. Patrick's day party was the feature of a meeting of the Mt. Lakt Social club, Thursday evening, March 14, in the Henley Grange hall. Sixty people attended the affair. Directing the program of Irish games were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Yaden, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Breithaupt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gooding, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beymer were in charge of refreshments.

The next meeting will be held on the second Thursday in April with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Cheyne planning the program. In charge of the dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Yaden and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill.

Daughters Meet

Monday, March 11, Catholic Daughters of America held a business meeting in the parish hall. An out-of-town visitor was Catherine Ebert, district deputy from Eugene, who gave a very inspiring talk. The Rev. Fathers John Phelan and Raymond Beard were also present.

The general committee chairman, Lenore Gallagher, and refreshment committee chairman, Rose Igl, assisted by Emma A. Grey, Lena Gervais, Margaret Lavin, Winifred Hooker, and Mabel Brocktrup, served cake and coffee to the fifty members attending.

MARRIED FEBRUARY 17, were Anna Mae Swartz and L. Albertson at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Swartz, 4132 Altamont drive. —Kennell-Ed.

Saddle Club

The second birthday of the Klamath Saddle club was the occasion of a party held by Mrs. L. L. Truax at her home Wednesday evening, March 6.

The table was decorated with the club's trophies, two black and gold horses, and was centered with a cake topped in gold. Mrs. Charles Read and Mrs. Charles Perry assisted the hostess.

Present were Blanche Harmon, Mrs. Charles Perry, Mrs. C. C. Chase, Alice Dale Peterson, Mrs. Keith Moon, Mrs. A. F. McDonald, Mrs. J. E. Williams, Mrs. N. B. Drew, Mrs. Dan Liskey, Mrs. Dale Mattoon, Mrs. Charles Read, Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. Paul Hatchett, Mrs. E. McNeely, Mrs. Beverly Thomas and the hostess, Mrs. L. L. Truax.

Classified Ads Bring Results. Learn the SAMBA. Latest, most popular ballroom dance in big cities.

TAUGHT AT EVE BENSON'S STUDIO. Telephone 3672 or 6601.

WE PICK-UP AND DELIVER PHONE 5563 FASHION CLEANERS 129 So. 7th L. F. Deymonax

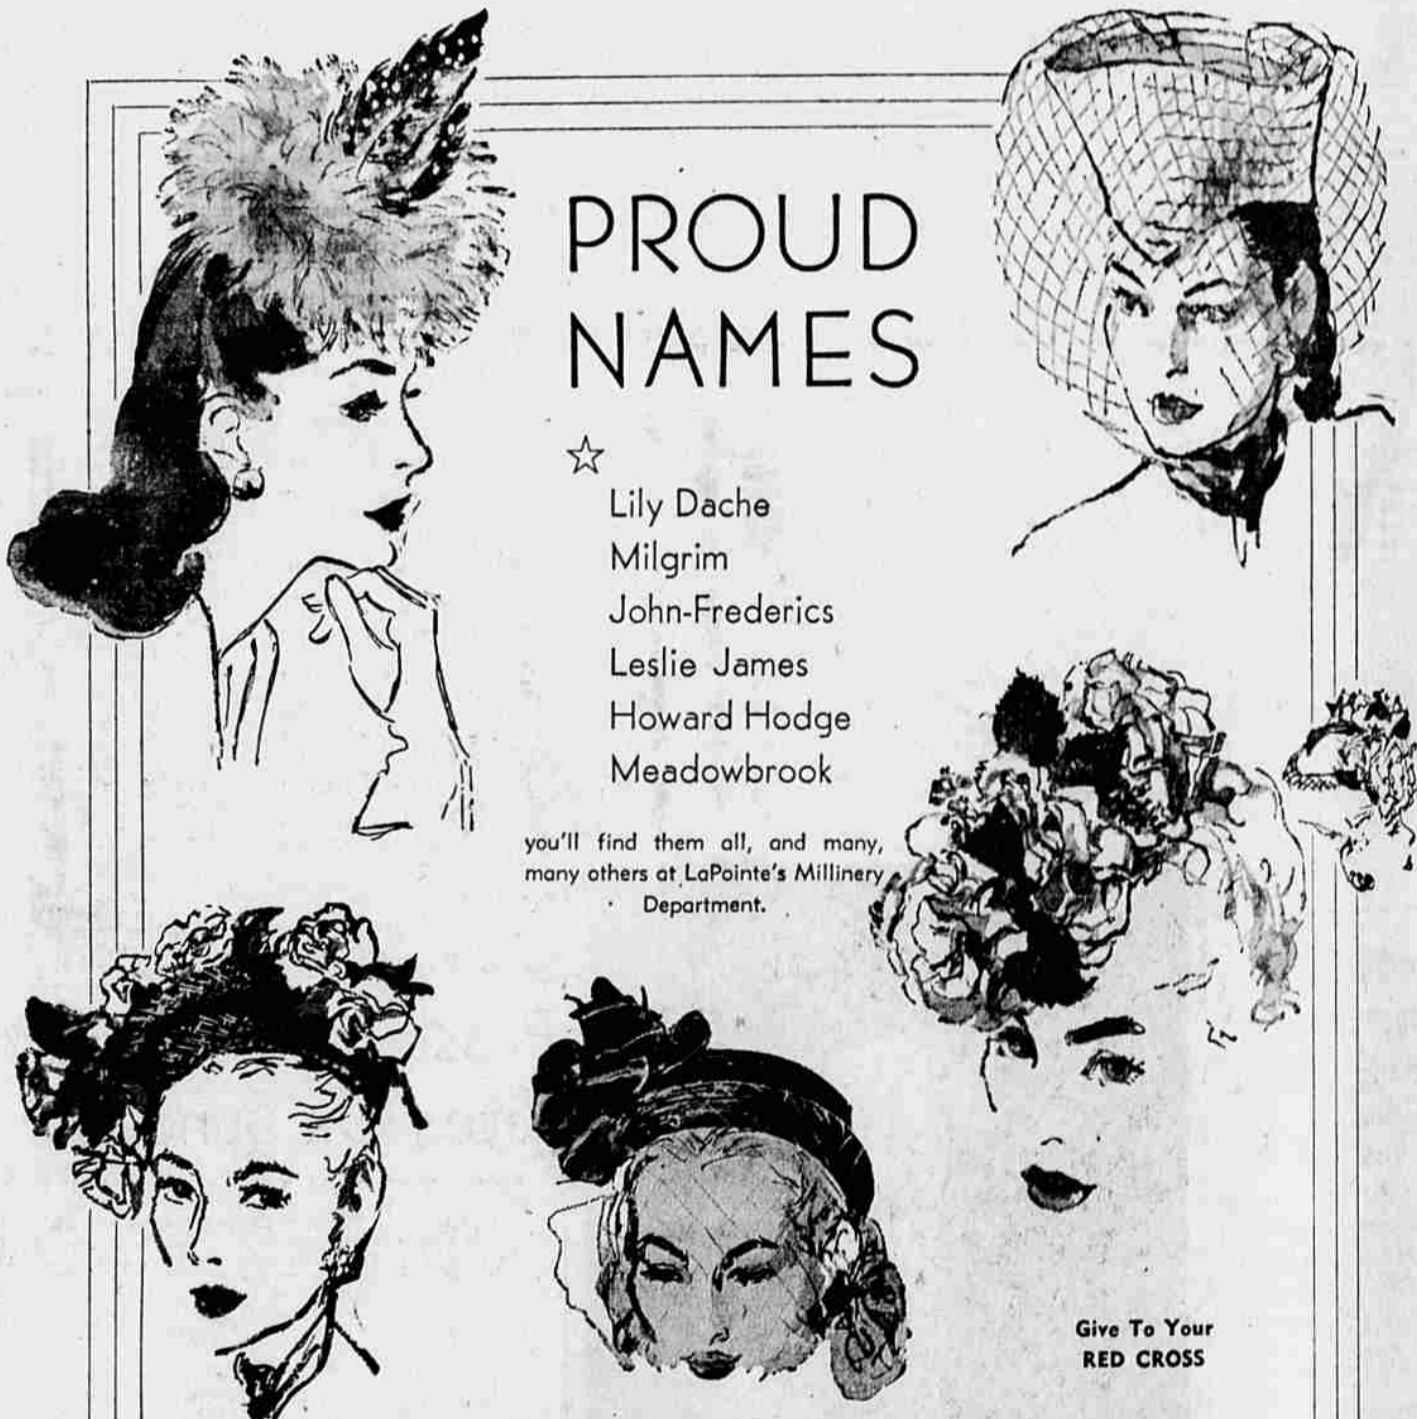

Helena Rubinstein ESTROGENIC HORMONE PREPARATIONS

Such a glorious feeling, this high-hearted disregard for time! This new-found assurance born when you discover the amazing Helena Rubinstein Estrogenic Hormone Cream and Oil. These ingenious preparations contain natural estrogenic hormones, the equivalent of a substance abundant in youth, but unfortunately decreasing with the years. The skin absorbs them to help retard the appearance of aging. Who can possibly measure the gratitude of women over thirty who have learned this beautiful, modern way to protect their skins against the ravages of time!

ESTROGENIC HORMONE CREAM, 30-day supply, 3.50
ESTROGENIC HORMONE OIL, 30-day supply, 5.00

CURRIN'S for DRUGS

9th and Main "The Friendly Drug Store" Telephone 4514

PROUD NAMES

- Lily Dache
- Milgrim
- John-Frederics
- Leslie James
- Howard Hodge
- Meadowbrook

you'll find them all, and many, many others at LaPointe's Millinery Department.

Give To Your RED CROSS

LaPointe's