

Church Rites

On Friday evening, March 1, in the First Baptist church of Grants Pass, Virginia M. Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Goddard of that city and formerly of Sprague River, became the bride of Arion Revis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Revis of Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Thomas L. Kilpatrick before an altar decorated with calla lilies, snapdragons, and daffodils.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional white satin wedding gown with a finger-tip veil caught in a crown of silver beads. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Bridesmaids were Jo Ann Walker, Gloria Shields, Genevieve Lund, and Mary Jane Cain, who wore pastel formal gowns, carried pink and white carnations.

Genevieve, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and others were Jack Smith, Wayne Russell, and Robert Pauley.

Flower girl, flower girl, scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. Ring bearer was John Goddard.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Baptist cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Revis are on a two-week wedding trip in Mexico. When they return they will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Among the guests for the wedding were Mrs. W. Henderson, Mrs. J. T. Revis, Mrs. Jewell Loy, Max Revis, and Genevieve Lund of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Anna G. Wolford and Mrs. Pauline Grane of Sprague River.

Hostesses

Mary Eckstein and Mrs. E. G. Matthews were hostesses to the senior circle of the Community Congregational church at Miss Eckstein's home, 2234 Garden, on the afternoon of Friday, March 15. Mrs. Godfrey Matthews conducted the devotional service and Mrs. W. C. Little, vice president, presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Revell. The meeting was then turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. H. S. Stone, who introduced the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, guest speaker. He gave an extremely interesting talk upon the meaning and observance of Lent in Protestant churches.

Feed Your Dog as Many Famous Breeders Do

"...like it and thrive on it." Mrs. R. E. Buty, owner of Charming Kennels, Tulsa, Oklahoma, writes: "I prefer Kellogg's GRO-PUP meat over every other form of dry dog food for our 17 Cocker Spaniels. I feed it with cooked or ground meat, and they like it and thrive on it."

MOST breeders and veterinarians use and recommend a foundation diet of good dry dog food fed with scraps of meat, including fat. So many feed Kellogg's gro-pup because it provides all the vitamins and minerals dogs are known to need for growth and vigor.

Kellogg's gro-pup is healthy. And dogs love its hearty, meaty flavor.
