

Venturists Honored Guests

Instead of their usual luncheon meeting this week, the Soroptimist club entertained the Venture club at a dinner given at the Willard hotel Tuesday evening.

The occasion was to honor five members in the Venture club who are soon to be married. The brides-to-be are, Blanche Ottoman, Vera Ottoman, Mary Jean Pederson, Dorothy Laurentson and Marion Deering. The tables were beautifully decorated with white flowers and candles, and a bride's cake was the main centerpiece at the guest table.

Another honor guest was Lola Whisenant, daughter of Rita Whisenant, who was celebrating her 18th birthday that evening. A birthday cake with 18 candles was presented to Lola.

Sylvia McClelland acted as toastmistress at the dinner and Eloise McIntyre directed the musical feature of the program which was particularly delightful. The following numbers were presented:

Vocal duet, Erlene Wheeler and Marie Wright, "In My Garden," Firestone. Contralto solo, Marie Wright, "O Lovely Night," Ronald, and "When Day is Done," Katcher. Piano solos, Shirley Robinson, "Au Matin," by Godard, "Valse in C Sharp Minor," Chopin. Soprano solos, Erlene Wheeler, "Life," Curran, and Siboney, "Lecuna. Vocal duet, Erlene Wheeler and Marie Wright, "Nocturne," Fibich.

The young artists responded to several encores most graciously. Mrs. McIntyre was the accompanist.

Following the musical program, Mrs. Geneva Duncan of the Klamath County Historical society gave a short talk on the aims and objectives of that group and told of its plan to put on a pageant later this year in celebration of the Centennial of the coming of pioneers to this part of Oregon.

Mrs. E. K. Loosley gave a most interesting account of the blazing of the trail through southern Oregon by Lindsay Applegate and his companions, touching briefly on some of the tragic experiences and hardships that were endured by the pioneers.

Ida Odell, an enthusiastic member of the Historical society and a Soroptimist, exhibited some rare and interesting museum pieces belonging to her family, and said that one of the objectives of the society was to preserve such things in a museum which Klamath county has one day to build.

Several amusing incidents of early days in Klamath Falls, as told her by some of the "old-timers," were related by Gertrude Moore.

In addition to the Venturists and local guests, the club was privileged to have a Portland Soroptimist present, Miss Maude Wilthers.

President Kathleen Thompson presided at the meeting and the committee in charge of festivities was Pearl Drew, Sylvia McClelland, Isabelle Brixner, Catherine Brumbaugh and Eloise McIntyre.

Entertain

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown entertained at the Brown home on St. Patrick's Day for a group of friends and neighbors.

Luncheon was served at noon, with pinocle being played afterward. High went to Bessie Frazier, Cora Leavitt, Paul Monroe and Owen Pepple. Traveling award went to Les Leavitt.

The St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in the decorations and sprays of daffodils and pussy willows were arranged around the room.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. William Becholdt, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Les Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Wed In South

TULELAKE—In an impressive 4 o'clock service in early March in Wynnton Methodist church in Mason, Georgia, Mary Rebecca Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Morgan of Shipley of Macon became the bride of Leon Rex Street, Tulelake. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Street of this city. Rev. Albert S. Trulock of Macon assisted by Rev. James R. Webb of the Wynnton Methodist church performed the ceremony.

Traditional wedding marches and musical numbers preceded the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon frock in soft blue, a small white flower hat and long white gloves. She carried an arrangement of white orchids and snapdragons edged with white maline. Her only ornament was an antique pearl pin, gift of an aunt, Mrs. C. P. Cannon, of Baltimore, Md.

Joy Trulock of Macon was the bride's only attendant. Her frock was of dusty rose and she carried an arm bouquet of mixed spring blossoms.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home on Wildwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Street left soon after the reception for a motor trip to the west coast by way of Mexico. They will arrive here in the near future for a visit at the home of the groom's parents.

The groom, recently discharged from the army air corps, was stationed in the India-Burma theater.

Birthday

MERRILL—Little Miss Esther Beasley, who was seven years old on March 16, was guest of honor at a birthday party arranged by her mother, Mrs. Roy Beasley. The big birthday cake was in green and yellow and favors and other table appointments further carried out the spring motif.

Asked in for the afternoon eight little girls, Mary Lou Qualls, Margaret Ann Qualls, Loretta and Arlene Lemler, Peggy Carson, Joan James, Effie Fay Crocker and Murna Kay Heaton.

As students under Tobias Mathay at the Royal Academy of Music, London, they met, fell in love, and were married. As rising young pianists, they found individual careers, no matter how successful, incompatible with mutual happiness. They solved their personal and professional problem brilliantly by joining forces in two-piano recitals.

Together, they give over a hundred concerts a year. They have toured South America, Mexico, Cuba and South Africa as well as all of Europe and they have made over a dozen tours of the United States and Canada. At the last London Music Festival before the war, they had the honor of appearing under the baton of Toscanini. In this country they have played many times with practically every major orchestra.

Present were Calvin Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dearborn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn and family, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dearborn and family, Joe Roads, Doris and Mary Leavitt and the host and hostess.

ENGAGED is Darle Helfrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Devere Helfrich, 110 Georgia. She will wed Harold Buff Rannels of Klamath Falls in May.

Duo-Piano Team Will Play Here

"Bartlett and Robertson play like a criterion. All other piano teams are measured by them," wrote the New York World Telegram recently of the couple who will play here on Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Pelican theatre under the auspices of the Klamath Community concert association.

Reengagements season after season is the tribute the American music world lovers has paid the internationally famous duopianists, Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson. The impeccable musicianship, always phisic accord and delightful personalities of the two artists have justly won for them the title of "leaders in their field."

Ethel Bartlett was born on the edge of Epping Forest, in the county of Sussex, but was brought to London when she was ten and educated there. She is considered one of England's most beautiful women and has been painted many times by distinguished artists.

Rae Robertson was born in a small Highland village near Inverness in the north of Scotland and is an M.A. of Edinburgh university.

As students under Tobias Mathay at the Royal Academy of Music, London, they met, fell in love, and were married. As rising young pianists, they found individual careers, no matter how successful, incompatible with mutual happiness. They solved their personal and professional problem brilliantly by joining forces in two-piano recitals.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dearborn and family, Mrs. Ella Dickinson, Mary and Calvin Leavitt and Wesley.

MALIN—Malin chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be visited officially Monday night, March 25, by Mrs. Lorena McNair of Ashland, worthy grand associate matron of Oregon. A potluck supper at 6:30 o'clock in the basement of the Presbyterian church will precede the school of instruction and regular meeting.

Visiting Star members are welcome.

Mrs. John Reber is worthy matron and Harold Dehlinger, worthy patron.

Guest night at the Degree of Honor will be observed at the meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in the KC hall. There will also be a white elephant sale.

Annual Tea Is Saturday Event

Over 100 members and guests were present at the Sojourners annual spring tea held Saturday afternoon, March 16, in the Willard hotel. Bridge and pinocle were played until 4 o'clock when tea was served.

Decorations were in a St. Patrick's Day motif. On the table was a low bowl of anemone encircling a green and gold Irish lyre. Tall green tapers were placed at either end of the centerpiece. Mrs. F. A. Murphy, president of Sojourners, and Mrs. C. B. Larkin, vice president, presided at the tea table.

Mrs. W. M. Petty, tea chairman, and Mrs. Lloyd Young, her assistant, presented awards to Mrs. W. M. Creswell, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Clem Lundy, Mrs. D. E. Potter, Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. F. Sexton, and Mrs. H. F. Tolley. Daffodils were presented to Mrs. E. S. Casey and Mrs. D. E. Potter.

The next regular meeting of Sojourners will be Wednesday afternoon, March 27, at 1:45 o'clock in the Willard hotel banquet room. It will be preceded by a no-host luncheon at 12:30 in the hotel dining room.
