

Grand Council Fire Observed

The annual birthday Grand Council Fire of the Klamath Camp Fire Girls was held Friday evening at the Veterans Memorial Chiloquin, making a total of over 80 girls participating in the ceremony. Over 50 Blue Birds, junior members of the Camp organization, also attended the affair as special guests.

In keeping with the national birthday theme of the group, "At Home in the World," the ceremony was initiated by the lighting of candles for each of the continents, the tapers being arranged in a semi-circle around a symbolic home.

Recognition for 10 hours spent in assisting in various community projects was given in the form of service emblems to the following girls: Thelma Bell, Barbara Lee Mulligan, Palmer, Beverly Cal, Leona Lelthead, Amelia Adams, Shermalee Henry, Sally Greenleaf, Lynette Morrill and Barbara Swanson. Girls receiving one star for an additional twenty-five hours of service were Marilyn Hemingsen, Mary Hooker, Jane Tingley, Marilyn Johnson, Diane Binkley, Jean Selby, Mary Jane Howard and Dewey Lambert. Members receiving two stars representing fifty hours of work during the year, were Beverly Kohn, Rosemary Murray and Jean Henderson.

An emblem representing completion of assigned work on this year's birthday project was presented to twenty-five girls in order to be eligible for this award it was required that the individuals engage in such activities which would acquaint them with the customs and the peoples of foreign countries. This was accomplished through correspondence with girls of Europe and Asia, listening to talks by people from these lands, cooking of foods peculiar to various countries, and the collecting of clothing to be worn by the children of the war-torn countries. Girls receiving recognition were Leona Lelthead, Shermalee Henry, Amelia Adams, Shirley Glenn, Jean Lovell, Margaret Gerber, Bonnie Wesley, Alta Lovell, Anne Gallaspy, Carolyn Stoller, Mary Egan, Lola Darrell, Shirley Ware, Coralee Blickenstaff, Lynette Morrill, Nancy Kinchen, Sally Jean Greenleaf, Marilyn Altman, Mary Hooker, Jane Tingley, Marilyn Johnson, Diane Binkley, Jean Selby, Mary Jane Howard and Dewey Lambert.

During the ceremony 12 girls were promoted to the first rank of Trail Seeker. They were Jean Lovell, Betty Williams, Lynette Morrill, Carolyn Stoller, Anne Gallaspy, Mary Egan, Betty Anne Franklin, Charlene Loomis, Gail Peters, Shirley Ware, Coralee Blickenstaff and Shirley Slowey. The title of Wood Gatherer, the second rank, was bestowed upon Flo Anne Perkins, Sally Jean Greenleaf, Jane Tingley, Jean Selby, Dewey Lambert and Diane Binkley. The rank of Fire Maker was given to Rosemary Murray, Jean Henderson and Marilyn Moore. Alta Lovell and Darlene Wolff were awarded the highest rank of the Camp Fire organization, that of Torch Bearer.

For a full year's special work in healthcraft, Marilyn Moore was presented the national health honor. Those receiving honors from national headquarters for three years' membership were Marilyn Moore, Marilyn Hemingsen, Jean Henderson, Tottsie Liskey, Arlene Brallier, Geraldine Lewis, Catherine Blanas, Dorothy Kidder, Claudette Gleason, Sally Barnhisei, Barbara Swan-
