

CITY BRIEFS

To Bay District—Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Dennis and their three-year-old son, John Victor, recently made their home in the bay district. They have spent the last two weeks visiting with Dennis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Yaden, 101 Old Port road. Dennis was recently discharged from the army medical corps and has accepted a position as physiotherapist on the staff of the Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.

From Sacramento—Clarence Johnson, engineer with the location of cost and repayment section of the U. S. bureau of reclamation regional office at Sacramento, will be in the local office for a period of about six weeks to assist in operation and maintenance studies. Leon Hoxter and Leonard K. Hill, also of the regional office, have been here the past three days on business in connection with bureau studies. They left last night.

Returns—Mrs. Fred Cofer returned Sunday from a 10-day visit in Prineville with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster. While there she attended the golden anniversary of the Carnation lodge, Order of Eastern Star, of Prineville, and many of the grand officers and past grand officers of the chapter were present for this 50th anniversary.

Home Now—After four years in the U. S. army, Jay W. North received his honorable discharge certificate at Fort Lewis, Wash., on March 24. Part of his service was in the ETO and he had the rank of sergeant at the time of discharge. He is now home with his wife, Clover, at 330 Broad, and his present plans are indefinite.

Visitor—First Lt. Laurence Roberts, United States army infantry, visited here this week with his sister, Helen Roberts, 1852 Manzanita. He has returned recently from lengthy service in the South Pacific, and is on inactive duty. Roberts is en route to Vancouver, Wash., to visit at his former home.

Correction—Mrs. Katherine J. Olson, 2440 Reclamation, has had her song, "Melody of Song," accepted for publication. This is the first song Mrs. Olson has written, having composed the number in 1934. It was erroneously reported that Mrs. Osborne was the composer and that it was the second, and not the first, song to be published.

Meet Tonight—Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will meet this evening, Thursday, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mary Fish, Alpha apartments No. 318, with Lillian Redkey as hostess. Visiting sorority members are welcome.

Visits Family—Mrs. C. H. Neely, the former Norma Ustiek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ustiek, 2441 Orchard way, arrived this week from San Diego to visit her family. Her husband, who is in the navy, is stationed in San Diego.

Grange Meeting—Members of the Shasta View grange will have a regular meeting Thursday, tonight, at 8 o'clock in the Shasta school. There will be initiation of candidates at this session.

In Delaware—Mrs. Harry Orem, the former June Dickson, of Wilmington, Del., where her husband is stationed. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dickson, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem.

Claims Business—Aubrey Tusing, referee for unemployment compensation will be here today and tomorrow from Salem on business with the claims department of the U. S. employment service.

In Hospital—J. Harvey Brant entered Camp White hospital last week for major surgery, which was performed on Monday of this week. He will be in the hospital for 21 days.

From Medford—Howard Colburn of Medford, who has come to Klamath Falls for years on business, was here this week and announced that he is moving to Eugene with his family.

Home From School—Shirley Mason, daughter of Mrs. Carl Mason of Lawrence street, is among the students home from school from the University of Oregon for spring vacation.

Lady Eagles—Members of the Lady Eagles club will meet at the home of Helen Seather, 1948 Madison, across from the Shasta school, Friday at 7:30 p. m.

IOOF and Rebekahs—Members of the IOOF and Rebekahs are invited to attend a dance to be given in the IOOF hall Friday.

Business Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick W. Kilby were in Portland last weekend for consultation on veterans administration business.

Home With Flu—Dr. James M. Hilton, 435 Hillside, is confined to his home with an attack of influenza.
