Local USO Equipment Shipped Out

Every piece of equipment from the smallest ash tray to the pool tables in the USO has been tagged for shipment to the west coast clubs still in operation. Hal A. Yetman, club director, hopes to have all the shipments en route to their destinations early in April. A large part of the club equipment is being shipped to the local club building, located at 11th and Commercial, which is owned by Ben Trippett of Commercial Maintenance, and for the past month the Commercial Maintenance has occupied the second floor. The company's office, now on the second floor will soon be moved to the first floor. The smaller rooms on the first floor, formerly used as music room, library, and check room, will be converted into office space.

The members of the USO staff, while finishing the details of closing, have been making their own "post-USO" plans. Yetman and Bette Webber, club secretary, will remain until the closing is completed. Two members of the staff, Margaret Watts and Ann Dirksmeier, have left Klamath Falls for their new posts. Miss Watts is a staff assistant in a San Francisco service club, and Miss Dirksmeier is on the staff of the Oldtown club in San Diego.

Yetman plans to leave for northern California on his first vacation in four years in early April. Definite plans for his future assignment have not been made as yet. Bette Webber is uncertain of her future plans, but she expects her husband, Sgt. Sterling Webber who is now on Leyte to come home sometime in mid-April. Mrs. Henri Conrad, who headed the USO kitchen, is vacationing in Richardson Springs, Calif., and plans to take a refresher course in photography while she is in California.

Four-H News

At Henley high school assembly, Friday, March 22, Minta King, and Edgar Hoffman were presented a General Douglas MacArthur award of a handsome medal in the National Green Thumb Victory Garden contest of 1945. Minta King, Edgar Hoffman and Jimmy Bernardi were presented with a medal award in the Sears Garden contest of 1945. The awards were presented by the county club agent, Francis Skinner.

The National Green Thumb contest provided a practical plan for judging and awarding meritorious work in gardening. The record book made it possible to measure production and harvest in youth garden projects. The contestant planned and cared for a school, community or home victory garden. Gen. MacArthur was encouraging boys and girls to have gardens because it would help win the war sooner. H. C. Seymour, state club leader, says "these club members had very good reports and we are glad to recognize them."

The county club office has just received a letter from the state club office, announcing that the Victory garden contest, similar to that of last year, then sponsored by Sears Roebuck and company, will again be handled this year, 1946, on the same basis as formerly as to county, state, and national plans, and will be sponsored by the Allis-Chalmers company. This is in accord with the request by President Truman, Secretary Anderson, Director Wilson, and the national famine emergency committee, that 4-H club people unite with all other organizations in doing all they can in the production and saving of food for this year.

Mother Miraculously Regains Lost Sight

SEATTLE, March 29 (AP)—After 11 months of blindness, Mrs. Shirley Vetter, who lost her sight in 1944, regained it miraculously last year after the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Vetter became blind as a result of a fall shortly after her marriage. When her daughter was born, her vision returned in a matter of days. Physicians said the blindness was physiological.

The daughter, Tamara, now is eight months old. The story came to light when Mrs. Vetter revealed plans to fly east tomorrow for a visit with relatives.

Father-Son Executed For Murder

FORT MADISON, Ia., March 29 (AP)—Calm and stoical to the end, Phillip H. Heincy, 72, and his son William Henry, 45, plunged to their deaths on the Iowa state penitentiary gallows at 6:01 a. m. today.

Crossing themselves and shaking hands with the Catholic prison chaplain, Father H. V. Bongers, the men showed no visible emotion but only clamped their jaws hard before the traps were sprung in one of the few father-son executions in this country.

The men died for the confessed murder December 16, 1944, of Robert W. Raebel, 63, a Lake Okoboji resort operator, during a $28 robbery in which Mrs. Raebel also was brutally beaten.

Son Drops
Henry, the son, dropped an instant before his father as Sheriff Joe L. McQuirk pushed the two levers that controlled the gallows trap. The father was pronounced officially dead at 6:12 a. m. and the son at 6:13 a. m.

A statement, signed by both, in which they expressed confidence that God would "forgive us our sins" was released after their deaths.

Pallid after more than 13 months in "death row," the father and son marched sternly to the gallows where Father Bongers whispered briefly with each just before the black hoods were placed. The men were dressed in blue pin-stripe suits and white shirts. After the nooses were adjusted the black hoods filled out tightly, collapsed and filled again, as both men drew heavily their final breaths. At a nod from Warden Percy Larrison, the traps were sprung at 6:01 (CST).

Committee Will Plan C Of C Meet

There will be a meeting Monday noon in the Pelican cafe of the special committee appointed to plan the annual meeting of Klamath County chamber of commerce.

It has been tentatively decided that this year's affair will not be a dinner meeting due to lack of accommodation for large banquets. Rather, it will be a meeting with an important speaker. Nothing definite has been arranged so far and further discussion will be given the subject at Monday's meeting.

Serving on the special committee are E. H. Thompson, Ray Byrnes, Roy Premo, Ted Reeves and Sam Ritchey.
