April 17 has been set for the bazaar and carnival to be sponsored by the Helping Hand society. The affair, which will include entertainment, will be held in the evening in the Broadway hall. Plans for it were talked over at the last meeting of the society held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Wilson. The concessions will include a fish pond, country store, fancywork booth and a white elephant sale. A quilted quilt made by the members, a wool blanket and a lace tablecloth will be sold.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Melvin Fitzpatrick, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Hubert Morelock, Mrs. Frank Payor, Mrs. Ben Henzel and Mrs. George Fabianek.

Members included Mrs. Jess Smith, Mrs. Lou Drager, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. Jess Lindsay, Mrs. Joe Jacobs, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Bertil Shogren, Mrs. Clarence Hundley, Mrs. Harry Hundley, Mrs. Glen Morton, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Merle Loolesley, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. John McCulley, Mrs. W. B. Graham, Mrs. Halbert Wilson, Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. George Smalley, Mrs. Lester Schreiner, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. J. Perry Haley, Mrs. Earl McVey and Mrs. Jack Ratliff.

Mrs. Gerald West will be the next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick, accompanied by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marion Kirkpatrick and her baby daughter, are in Seattle where they will be joined by their son, home from Korea. Young Kirkpatrick, who survived some of the worst of the last Pacific battles in the army, is being discharged. The young Mrs. Kirkpatrick is the former Merle Watkins. They have remained here during the two years he has been overseas.

Orange and black, colors of the Malin high school, were used as the color note for the basketball squads Tuesday night. Place cards were small orange basketballs and gay crepe paper streamers added to the central theme. Girls of the freshman class served the dinner. All students of the high school and faculty members were invited.

The welcome was by Mary Jane Hornback, the response by George Spolek and the basketball review was by Principal Street. Dorothy Loolesley played a piano number, school cheers were given and Mary Ruth Bey and Barbara Nyhart sang.

On the A team this season were George Spolek, Clifford McKoen, Con McAuliffe, Lee Lieboit, Jack Lindsay, Andy Fields, Bobby Victorine, Bob Cantrel and Corky Ellis.

Boys playing on the B squad were Virgil Ratliff, Carl Rajnus, Teddy Gordon, Leonard Lahoda, Donald Coleman, Kenneth Green, Lloyd Fields, Larry Johnson, John Saunders, Ernie Arnold, Johnny Baker, Gilbert Kinkle and Bobby Coleman.

Mrs. Lahoda and Mrs. Laddie Rajnus will demonstrate care of woodwork and floors at the meeting of the Malin home economics unit Tuesday night, April 2. Officers will be elected for the coming year. Anyone interested in topics for discussion next year is asked to present them at this meeting which will be held in the home economics room of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Petrasek have moved into the Kallina court.

Final plans for luncheon arrangements will be made Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the grange ladies will meet to concoct salads, make sandwiches, etc., for the big East Side grange benefit dance to be held in the Davis Creek hall this Saturday night, March 30. Inasmuch as the Thomas Creek grange get-together, which was to have been held last Saturday night, was thwarted by a bad road situation, and this when everyone was primed for a big time, grangers, as well as the general public, can give vent to their desires for a big evening of fun at Davis Creek this Saturday evening. Music for the event will be furnished by the East Side grange orchestra.

Charlie Larkin returned home last Monday after serving a short term in the Alturas hospital. The hitch, caused by a dislocation of the vertebrae in the lower region of his spinal column, happened when he somehow disrupted the unity between two vertebrae, setting them unhappily one against the other. This caused grief and pain to the whole column and subsequently became unbearable to the body as a whole. We are glad that the maladjustment has been corrected and Charlie is again at ease with himself. He is going to visit for awhile with his daughter, Mrs. Alice Allen and her husband, Bill, down on the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. (Short) Snider arrived last weekend for a visit with Short's parents.

ing the winter at their old home in Ohio and are seeking living quarters. Thomas is secretary of the Enterprise Irrigation district.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fabianek left this week for Sawyer Springs near Roseburg where they are assuming management of a resort that Mr. and Mrs. Wilson purchased about a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tripett, new owners of the Wilson ranch, have moved in.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Whitlatch had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Van Thome, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Propst and children, Patricia and Michael, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. William Walker and young Jimmie, Merrill.

Phelps Lewis, Merrill, was a visitor at the John Craven home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Carr, Merrill, were business visitors in the Shasta View district Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Snider, Short has recently been discharged from the service and he and his wife are taking a little breather before launching upon an adventure which is to be their life's work. Short is planning on returning to Alaska where he worked prior to his enlistment into the army air cadet corps, and as soon as possible secure a homestead in the north. Both he and his wife like the country so much up there that they are going back to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Newcomb are visiting for a time with the Delbert Cloud family.

Natives of this village have had their fond hopes revitalized, of the day when they will see a well highway stream gracefully between here and Alturas, skirting Sugar hill at a lower-bench level, and shortening the time to that county seat. Substantiated rumors have it that work is to begin on this much needed improvement now soon. The sooner—the better—the quicker—to Alturas we will go!

Chief Steward Ralph D. Brickey is home visiting with his mother, Mrs. A. H. Daugherty, arriving last Sunday. He is home on a 30-day leave and will probably be in the merchant marine service for another five or six months. Brickey's rating is equivalent to a lieutenant in the navy, or a captain in the army. He has charge of all the ships' crew purchases, and is third ranking officer on a Victory ship. His next trip will probably be to New York from Frisco. His service during war time was in the Pacific, one of the most hazardous, as all shipping was number one target for air raiders. He and his mother were dinner guests at the Faris home last Tuesday evening.

Ralph Woolridge of Medford, has recently purchased the Frank Addington place at Fairport and plans to make this his home. He is married and has a small boy. He intends to get into the lumber mill work as soon as the spring season gets under way.

Mrs. Dorothy Blunt entertained at dinner last Monday evening honoring the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Alpha Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Faris and family were the only guests outside of members of Mrs. Blunt's immediate family. The evening was spent playing pinocle.

The Happy Hour club met March 19 at the home of Mrs. Lillian Reid with Mrs. Mildred Hallinan as hostess. There were 12 members, six children and one guest, Mrs. Myra Robnett, present. Mrs. Ethel Thompson received an anniversary gift from her secret pal.

In a song contest the team composed of Hazel Sanford, Cora Vincent, Fannie Fisher and Myra Robnett won the prize, and in a riddle contest Mrs. Cora Vincent and Mrs. Hazel Sanford won prizes.

The hostess served light and dark cakes with ice cream and coffee. The next meeting will be April 2, with Mrs. Cogburn as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith and son spent two days, Monday and Tuesday, visiting with
