Ribbentrop Says Stalin Condoned Nazi Invasion

NUERNBERG, April 1 (AP) — Joachim von Ribbentrop, former nazi foreign minister, testified before the international military tribunal today that Prime Minister Stalin agreed in Moscow in August, 1939, that he "would never accuse Germany of aggression because of her actions in Poland."

The agreement was that "if aggression were spoken of both parties would be guilty," Ribbentrop said.

The accord, Ribbentrop continued, was reached August 21, 1939—less than two weeks before the nazi march into Poland—in the course of negotiations for a Russian-German nonaggression pact and a secret protocol for partitioning Poland, Finland and the Baltic states.

The testimony was given after R. A. Rudenko, Soviet prosecutor, protested against admission of an affidavit by Freidrich Gaus, former nazi foreign office negotiator, relating to the alleged secret protocol.

Accusation

Rudenko accused the defense of "attempting to divert the attention of the tribunal from real issues" by dwelling on the reported Russian-German understanding prior to the outbreak of the war.

"I don't wish to speak about this affidavit because I attach no importance to it," he said, "but we are not here to investigate the policy of the allied nations. We are here to investigate charges against war criminals."

The tribunal decided, however, that the affidavit could be admitted as evidence and that Ribbentrop could testify on the matter.

Ribbentrop said that at the time the alleged secret agreement was negotiated "there was not the slightest doubt in the minds of Hitler or Stalin that if all negotiations with Poland came to naught, territory taken from our two countries by force of arms would be reunited to them by force of arms. In this manner, the eastern boundaries (of Poland) would be turned over to the Soviet Union and the western territories to Germany."

Price Too High

Nazi efforts to induce Russia to join an axis three-power pact failed, Ribbentrop said, because the Soviet's price for signing was too high.

He listed the Russian terms as:

1. A free hand in Finland, which "we supposed would lead to the occupation of Finland."
2. Close relations with Bulgaria, which the "Bulgarian government did not want."
3. Certain rights in the Dardanelles, which Mussolini opposed.
4. An outlet through the Baltic, which would have brought up the question of the Skagerrak.

Longshoremen Sign Contract

SEATTLE, April 1 (AP) — Washington Waterfront Employers and the AFL-International Longshoremen's association Saturday signed a new contract agreement covering 900 longshoremen in Tacoma, Anacortes and Los Angeles.

It provides for $1.38 an hour straight time and $2.07 an hour for overtime and eliminates a former 10 cent hourly differential between longshore dock and ship workers.

The contract must be approved by the wage stabilization board.

In announcing the agreement, M. G. Ringenberg, Employers' association president, said the contract is similar to one rejected by the CIO-Pacific Coast International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union.

It amounts to an hourly increase of 33 cents for dock workers and 23 cents for those working aboard ship, he said.

Wage Bill Not To Hit N'west

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—No provisions of the minimum wage bill will affect the Pacific northwest, so far as Senator Cordon (R-Ore.) can determine, he told the senate.

He reported wages in Oregon are higher "in every value than the wages which would be prescribed by the pending bill." Conditions in "some of the other 47 states," however, would be affected, Cordon said.

A steady stream of labor from farms to factories will result if the 65 cents an hour is prescribed the minimum, as the bill proposes, Cordon declared. This would force the farmer and his family either to do the work themselves or to pay higher wages without higher prices for products, he said.

Natural hot water from many of Iceland's volcanic springs is piped to provide heat for office buildings, homes and public swimming pools.

More than one-seventh of Mexico is forested.
