REALTORS

23,000 of the best real estate firms in the United States are REALTOR companies and are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. This association constitutes an action group—constantly and actively working for better social and economic conditions for the public. For instance, it has worked closely with the O.P.A. to correct injustices in Rent Control, Down Payments and Permits for Private Building. It served as an advisory committee to the War Production Board on Real Estate Matters. Eight government agencies, including the Army and Navy, use REALTORS for all appraisals. These are but a few of the indirect ways REALTORS serve you.

To be a REALTOR, a real estate man must have experience, ability, integrity and the desire to serve the good of his community. That is why you can rely on your local REALTOR, who is a member of the local, state and national REALTOR organizations, to give you expert real estate counsel.

Look for REALTOR in classified ads, in the phone book and on business stationery.
