

City Briefs

Leaving—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hosley and sons, Fred and Frederick, are moving this week to San Jose, Cal., where Ernest Hosley and Fred E. Hosley are opening a drive-in market. Hosley, former postmaster at Coquille, was recently discharged from the navy. Prior to postmaster, he was in charge and operated a grocery market in Chiloquin. Mr. Hosley is both active Masonic and Eastern Star.

Corcoran Ill.—Capt. George Corcoran, Marine Barracks quartermaster, was moved from his home at the Barracks to the naval hospital at Medford this week, after a sudden illness. Capt. Corcoran was slated to leave in a few days for new duty at Camp Pendleton, Calif., but it is now believed he will remain in the hospital for some time. Mrs. Corcoran still resides at the married officers' quarters at the Barracks.

Luncheon Meeting—The chamber of commerce annual meeting committee met for lunch at the Pelican cafe Monday to discuss further plans for the 1946 meeting. It was decided to check on the seating capacity of various auditoriums where the meeting might be held. Several prominent speakers were suggested for the affair but no final decision was made.

On Recruit Leave—Richard Wayne Crumpacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Crumpacker, 1831 Last street, is home on recruit leave from the naval training center, San Diego. Crumpacker attended KUISS. He is interested in radio and will take the qualification test for radioman school when he returns to duty April 5.

Docks—MOM 1/c Arnold Selby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Selby of 850 Eldorado street, arrived at San Francisco today on a ship from the Pacific. He has been 21 months at sea. Arnold is a former Klamath high school athlete. He expects discharge soon.

Court Operators—Auto court operators of the Klamath basin will hold a meeting Friday at 10 a. m., in the chamber of commerce to consider the advisability of forming an organization to work together to accomplish their aims. Anyone interested in auto court operating is welcome to attend.

Extension Meeting—Klamath county home extension committee will meet Thursday at 10:30 a. m., in the home demonstration office to complete final plans for the homemakers festival to be held May 1. The group will be guests of Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen at her home, 1859 LeRoy, for lunch, following the meeting.

Officers and members of the drill team of the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen are to attend practice Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., in the K.C. The first Wednesday evening of each month has been set for practice until further notice, and anyone interested in being a member of the drill team is invited to attend the meeting.

Surgery—Shirley Gay, 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. Kermit Sheets of White Pine apartments, was operated on at the Klamath Valley hospital Saturday morning and returned home immediately for convalescence. She is said to be nicely.

Phillip Schwab, returned yesterday from a trip in Minnesota, was reported to have accepted teaching position at Fremont. Schwab will be on the school teaching staff, but it had not been decided at which school he will teach.

Townsend Club—The Townsend club will meet Tuesday at 8 a. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Myers, 500 N. 9th, for regular business meeting. Friends are welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber of 1420 Lookout, spent the past weekend with another son, Charles, who is stationed at Camp Beale.

Townsend Auxiliary—Members of the Townsend club auxiliary will meet Wednesday at 1 p. m. at the home of Grace Jeremi, 1614 N. Summers lane, for duck luncheon and social afternoon.

Violet Vance entertained Ye Olde Pinochle at her home on Shasta way Sunday. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m., followed by dancing.

Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Burns and Mrs. Mae Mason of Hills City, here on an official to Bonanza Rebekah lodge, entertained guests at the hotel. They left on Tuesday morning for Burns.

Hospitalized—Mrs. Rose Foubert, saleswoman at Craig's store, is still in Hillside hospital for medical care. She became ill over a week ago and was taken to the hospital.

Pythian Sisters—The Pythian Sisters will sponsor a dish towel, apron and rummage sale Saturday at the Balsiger Motors sales room. Anyone having rummage is asked to call 4969 or 7153.

Receiving Treatment—Mrs. Carl Wilson, well-known resident of the Fort Klamath district, is receiving medical care at the Klamath Valley hospital.

In Hospital—Mrs. Albert Clawson, 2706 Dayton, is recovering from major surgery at Klamath Valley hospital. She is not yet able to have visitors.

Visiting—Cpl. S. A. Benedict, formerly of the Marine Barracks, is spending his leave in Klamath Falls visiting friends. He is stationed at Mare Island.

Meeting Place Changed—Ye Olde Pinochle club will meet this week with Kathryn Billings instead of Violet Vance, as previously announced.

Home—Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson and children are home from a vacation visit in California.

State Police Make 40 Traffic Arrests—Oregon state police were on hand last Saturday at the junction of highway 69 and 395 in Lakeview for a traffic check which resulted in 40 arrests made during the day. The greater portion of the arrests were for having no operator's license and no warning device.

PARK PROGRAM—SALEM, April 2 (AP)—The city council last night voted to place on the May 17 primary ballot a one-mill tax levy to be used to develop Salem's parks.

550 Persons At Sing-Fest

An estimated attendance of 550 people, representing Protestant churches throughout the basin enjoyed the first program of "Everybody Sings," Sunday night.

This program sponsored by the Klamath Falls Ministerial association presents an opportunity for everyone who likes to sing sacred selections, to get together once a month for a heart-warming sing-fest, according to the Rev. Howard F. Hutchins, pastor of the First Christian church. "Everybody Sings" will be held the last Sunday of each month in alternating churches. The first sing-session was held March 31 in the First Christian church. The hostess church is selected by drawing names from a box and the next church to be hostess to the group is the Church of the Nazarene where "Everybody Sings" will be held April 28, at 8:45 p. m.
