

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Womens' Club
WANGELL VALLEY — The Wangell Valley Womens' club met at the home of Mrs. Leland Wittgrewe on Thursday, March 20. Mrs. Bill Novotny assisted as hostess. The meeting was held to order by the president, Tille Davis. A letter was read from Edna Conley of Grants. She thanked the club members for the picture of Crater Lake, given to the Conleys as a farewell gift. A letter was also read from Mrs. Alice Petross, who celebrated her 81st birthday March 20, and thanked the club for a gift sent to her. A thank you note was also read from the Ggs family for a gift of flowers sent to them.

The club planned a dance for April 1. Bessie Frazier will be chairman of the supper committee, assisted by Tille Walker, the Babcock, Rhea House, Ned Davis, Thelma Pettigrew, and Vera Leavitt. A five piece boys' orchestra from Klamath Falls will furnish the music.

A gift was presented to Nettie Davis. The next meeting will be Thursday, April 25, at the club hall when Mrs. Clay Walker and Mrs. Ed Jones will entertain.

Following adjournment, a social time was held with refreshments served at 4 o'clock.

Present were Mrs. Joe Potug and Bobby, Mrs. Frank Babcock, Mrs. Ray Davis, Mrs. John Campbell, Sandra, and Dennis, Mrs. Buster Adams, Mrs. Cora Feruland and Edwin, Mrs. Louis Randall and Gary, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Marla, and Marie, Mrs. Wes Dearborn and Henry, Mrs. Reg Thomas and Margaret, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Lyman Shugh, Mrs. Effie Gilman, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Chris God, and Mrs. Charles Walker.

Chorus To College

Callie Morris, formerly of Rincon, Ga., and a former high school principal, looks up from a book while getting a snack between shows at the Rialto theatre, in Chicago, where she is in the chorus line. She plans to drop show business for study at Northwestern.

STATIC

The subject of "America's Town Meeting of the Air" for Thursday, April 4, will be "Should We Extend the Draft Beyond May 15th?" Speakers for the evening's verbal brawl will include Regan McCrary, former army lieutenant-colonel and now executive editor of American Mercury, and Howard C. Peterson, assistant secretary of war, speaking in the affirmative; for the negative side of the question there will be Millard Lampell, ex-army sergeant and author of "The Long Way Home," and Quincy How, radio commentator and author.

The Rabbi Norman Gerstenfeld of Washington, D. C., will be the featured speaker on the "Message of Israel" for the month of April. This program will be heard Sunday mornings at 7:00 over KFLW.

There's never a dull moment around a radio station, and the staff here is beginning to find that out. Last night was spent, by those off shift, in running a test broadcast from the Armory With Baldwin as producer, Cecil doing the announcing, and technicians Hulse and Walter keeping a wary eye on the mike placement and technical details. Baldy's band spent some three hours rehearsing for their jump-off Saturday night. The general consensus of opinion seems to be that they had a lot of fun doing it even if it was work.

First signs of spring are sure coming along. As this is written it is trying to snow outside, and it may be a foot deep when this hits the street, but things are still coming up through the thawed ground (crocuses they tell me), the snow is practically all gone from the Greensprings road, and the head ranger reports only 200 inches of snow at the rim up in Crater Lake park. That's only 164 feet to melt off yet before we take that first run up there.

Hostesses

Members of Girl Scout troop two of Fremont school, under the leadership of Mrs. James Pinniger, 1182 Crescent, is making plans to complete the necessary requirements for their cook and hostess badges.

Last week the girls held a progressive dinner, and their plans now call for a tea for the mothers who helped them work out the details of their dinner. The date will be announced later.

The troop is eagerly anticipating a visit to an ice cream plant where it will learn how ice cream is made, and then try its hand at making its favorite dessert.

The ultimate goal of the girls in working on their cook and hostess badges will be Dad's Dinner to honor their fathers in late spring.

Umbrellas were used in ancient Egypt.

Friendship Court

There was a good attendance at the meeting of Friendship court of the Order of Amaranth held in the Masonic temple March 20. Mrs. Charles Eaton, royal matron, and Jack Schulze, royal patron, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Duncan McGillivray was installed as musician and Mrs. Ernest Glenger as marshal of the west; Mrs. Don Finch was the installing officer and William Milne installing officer's aid. Mrs. Carl Henry was the installing musician and Mrs. Ted Reeves the installing prelate.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin was presented with a $25 war bond by the court for her outstanding work on the recent membership drive, and she returned it to the treasury, at the same time expressing her thanks. Mrs. Eaton, royal matron, presented gifts to the grand officers, members of Friendship court, who were elected or appointed at grand court in Portland, March 8 and 9. They are Mrs. Don Finch, elected grand conductress of grand court; Mrs. Jack Schulze, appointed representative for the state of Maryland for the grand court, and Mrs. Charlotte Martin, appointed grand truth of the grand court.

The grand court is raising funds for polio victims, and each court is to share in this work, including Friendship court. It was decided to hold a breakfast on Palm Sunday, the place to be announced later.

Mayor Riley of Portland welcomed the grand court and on Saturday evening an open installation was held in the temple, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. Jack Schulze, grand patron of Klamath Falls, gave a tribute to the flag at this time, composed by himself, to which high honor was paid by the court. Corsages were presented to outstanding officers, Mrs. Pearce reported.

The next meeting of Friendship court will be April 17, and there will be initiation.

Pinochle Club Holds Luncheon Meeting
 The Olde Pinochle club met Thursday, March 21, with Maggie Upton of 2348 Kane for luncheon and cards. Kathryn Billings held high score. Grace Bock second, Violet Vance low, and Esther Adkisson received the pinochle award. The meeting on April 4 will be with Violet Vance on Shasta way.
