

Two Klamath Churches To Air Services

"Showers of Blessing," a religious broadcast of the gospel in song and sermon, originating in Kansas City, Mo., headquarters of the Church of the Nazarene, now is broadcasted throughout the nation from strategic outlets, and by short wave throughout the world. Beginning Sunday morning from 8:00 to 8:30, the initial broadcast will be presented over KFLW (1450 kilocycles), sponsored by the local churches of the Nazarene at Dorris, Calif., and Klamath Falls of which J. W. Geller and Bertrand F. Peterson are the respective pastors.

The music, instrumental and vocal in various arrangements is chosen from the most talented artists in the denomination, and the speakers accepted leaders in their field in the church.

The program "Showers of Blessing" is now being conducted in the second year since it was launched by action of the general assembly of the church held in Minneapolis in June of 1942.

Broadcast List

The morning worship at Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent streets, will be broadcast directly from the church over station KFLW at 11 a. m. The Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor of the church, will speak on the subject, "The Course of True Faith." The senior choir, under the direction of Mr. O. K. Warcup, will sing, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," by Shelley. Mrs. A. H. Denison, church organist, will be at the organ console. There will be a nursery for little children in the church parlors during the worship hour.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages. The Luther league meets at 7:30 p. m. with the "Whites" team, Donna Wilkes and Judy Larson, co-captains, in charge of the program. Topic: "Lent," Ingrid Norland; Devotions, Goldie Olson.

Mid-week Lenten service on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Sermon subject: "Into Thy Hands." This will be the last sermon in the series on the general theme, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

Brotherhood meeting Thursday, 7:45 p. m. The Luther league will provide the program, featured by a play, "One Resolve." The members of the Luther league will be guests of the brotherhood. There will be games and refreshments. The men and young people of the church are invited to attend.

Search Fruitless For Body of Youth

OTTER ROCK, April 5 (AP)—Coastguardsmen said today they searched the beach near here in vain for the body of a Eugene youth who apparently drowned Wednesday with Dorothy May Church, 17, Otis.

Companions said 19-year-old Stanley Knight and Miss Church may have fallen into the surf from a rock ledge bordering the Devil's punchbowl. The girl's body was found late Wednesday on the shore.

Edwin Davis and Irene Mason, north Lincoln county, said the other pair had started on a sight-seeing trip with them but became separated.

MEET SLATED

EUGENE, April 5 (AP)—The spring meeting of the advertising managers' department of the Oregon Newspapers Publishers association will meet in Portland Saturday. Secretary-Manager Carl C. Webb announced today.

This Place Of Worship Is A Remodeled House

The Rev. David McCollum (inset) pastor of Apostolic Faith church, 228 N. 8th, (above), is conducting special services all next week, honoring the 40th birthday of the church.

40th Anniversary Of Apostolic Faith Will Be Commemorated By Church Here

The Rev. David McCollum, pastor, announces that the Apostolic Faith, 228 N. 8th, will observe the 40th anniversary of the founding of the church in Portland. Beginning Sunday, April 7, special meetings will be held the entire week, devoted to evangelistic efforts.

The Klamath Falls church is one of 17 Apostolic Faith congregations, with headquarters in Portland, Ore. The Rev. R. R. Crawford is general overseer, having succeeded his mother, Mrs. Florence L. Crawford, founder of the Apostolic Faith, who died in 1936.

Branch Started

In 1917 a band of workers crossed the Cascades from Medford and a new branch work was started in Klamath Falls. For 21 years, rented halls housed the services. In 1938 the present church site was purchased. A one-story house was raised and made into a two-story building. Veneered in local stone, built by volunteer church labor, a plain building was changed into a chapel.

Last year the adjoining property was purchased for a parsonage. Considerable work has been done on it, and it is almost ready for occupation. The present parsonage over the church will be used to house the rapidly growing Sunday school primary classes.

Starting with a station wagon to bring children to Sunday school, it now takes in addition two local buses and several private cars. From one end of town to the other, these cars range far and wide gathering in the youngsters for Sunday school. It is heart warming just to see these youngsters tramping from these buses and cars into the church building. There are classes for every age from primary to the adult Bible class.

Father Settler

About three years ago, the Rev. Cecil Lambert left this pastorate to assume duties in the San Francisco church. He was succeeded by the Rev. David McCollum, who did not come as a stranger to Klamath Falls. His father was an early settler in the basin. Twenty years ago, the Rev. McCollum was converted in an Apostolic Faith church on 4th street back of the Hall hotel. He understands the Klamath people and their needs. Mrs. McCollum assists her husband in the work. She too has a local background of years standing, making them a couple suited by sympathy and environment, equipped to counsel and give Christian fellowship to both children and adults.

Services will be held Sunday, April 7, through Sunday, April 14, at 8 p. m. each week day and 7:45 p. m. Sunday. No services will be held on Monday and Saturday nights.

A church service will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. with Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

Identity Of Dead Man Not Yet Known

SEATTLE, April 5 (AP)—Identity of an elderly man who leaped or fell from a south end bridge onto the street below has not yet been established, Coroner John P. Brill said last night.

The name "C. W. Duncanson, Portland, Ore.," was on a billfold found on the body, the coroner's report said. The federal bureau of investigation is attempting identification through fingerprints.
