

Spring In Valley Welcome Sight

appreciate Oregon you should drive through the Willamette valley just about this time of the year when we Klamathites...

spring and green meadows and on there on, if you love trees, to say nothing of legged lambs and pink piglets, it's a wonderful sight.

Foodies were profuse and yard seemed to be sprouting with hyacinths. Forsythia lovely and Eugene the hills were out with heavily bushes of pink, red, white and purple.

Most every Portlander wore a camellia, some small shell pink ones on the backs of their jackets, others fragrant red blossoms as big as saucers.

Klamath folks were anxious to hear news from home, and dinner with Ruby and Hastings at their attractive on Skyline boulevard and had dinner with Grace and Miller. Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Miller...

Two Klamath shoppers in and Velma Tillotson at and Frank, and Mrs. Paulus at Ungar's where our children responded to try on a pair of gas purchased earlier in the...

Anyone in the vicinity of and seemed to converge on and river banks to watch the part in the smelt runs. Hundreds of persons were dipping the Sandy and scooping hordes of wriggling smelt.

Fields of daffodils in all the fields on either side of the highway were a riot. Acres of daffodils and of stock on the fourth line of words—"I wandered as a cloud etc. etc."

a bundle from heaven for and Pat Shaw in Portland, Memorial hospital, on day, April 4. The little first child, has been Stephanie. Grandparents...

and Mrs. Wilford E. left Wednesday night for York City where they will the next two months. plan to return home in and their daughter Winnie...

and Mrs. Webb Kennett greeted by old friends week following their return San Jose, California, where have spent the past several...

April issue of Reader's Digest might be taken to heart as finding trouble getting over their heads. It is "How We Solved the Problem" and was by Marjorie and Frank...

young couple solved the by advertising themselves as domestic help. They a flood of answers. Now felt is secretary to a well-

Wednesday club Wednesday, April 3, in the parlour of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Lawrence Rolph reviewed "The Egg and I," by Betty MacDonald.

Refreshments were later in the evening. next meeting on Wednesday 1, will feature an hat party, with Mrs. Schneebek, chairman of fair.

Happy Hour club will Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the Mrs. George Blehn, 911 with Mrs. J. J. Keller as...

Wednesday club met Wednesday, April 3, in the parlour of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Refreshments were later in the evening. next meeting on Wednesday 1, will feature an hat party, with Mrs. Schneebek, chairman of fair.

Happy Hour club will Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the Mrs. George Blehn, 911 with Mrs. J. J. Keller as...

Elks' Ball

An event of Saturday evening, April 13, will be the traditional Elks Inaugural ball, honoring the newly installed elected ruler and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward, and the other new officers.

The affair will be formal for women, with music furnished by Gordon's orchestra. Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock, with the grand march presenting the new officers and their wives at 10:45. At 12:30 a buffet supper will be served.

In charge of the arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Chet Langlois, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pernigotti, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patty, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robustelli, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman.

Wed In Albany

A wedding of interest here was that of Mildred Schultz of Albany, to Cecil C. Chase of Medford, both formerly of this city. The ceremony was read Friday evening, March 22, at 7 o'clock in Albany by Dr. E. W. Warrington, professor of religion at Oregon State college.

The bride wore a gown of pastel shaded print and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Mrs. Alice Mercer, attired in a black street dress.

Edward A. Schultz, son of the bride, was best man. Nuptial music was provided by the bride's daughter, Ruth Schultz. Mrs. Chase is a former resident of the Klamath area and is now supervising teacher of handicapped child education and clinic in the Albany public schools.

Mr. Chase, before going to Medford, was principal of Henley and Keno high schools, and plans to further his studies at Oregon State college. His two children, Lt. Cecil Lee Chase of Roswell, N. M., and Carmen Chase of Medford, were unable to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase will make their home in Albany.

Pledges

Among Oregon State college students pledging sororities and fraternities this term are Barbara King, Patricia Benoit and Don Robin.

Barbara King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, will be initiated into Alpha Chi Omega spring term initiation. She is a first-year student.

Another Oregon State student is Patricia Benoit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benoit, who has pledged Sigma Kappa and moved into that sorority house this term. She was graduated last year from Klamath Union high school and is a freshman.

Don Robin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Robin, has pledged Beta Theta Pi. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1944.

Flower Show

The annual spring flower show, sponsored by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, is scheduled this year for Monday, May 13.

The show will not be competitive, but each member of the club is asked to contribute an arrangement of flowers in her favorite container. It is always one of the prettiest affairs of the year.

Mrs. Walter Beane is chairman of the tea which will be served at the show.

Concert Plans

Plans are underway for a concert to be given by the faculty of the music school of Willamette university, Monday, May 13, in the Klamath Union high school auditorium.

Sponsoring the concert are the American Association of University Women, the Business and Professional Women, the Woman's Library club, Soroptimists, and the League of Women Voters.

Honor Guests

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Adams, who have made their home in Klamath Falls since 1926, were honored Monday evening at their residence in the Marion apartments prior to their departure for Roseburg.

Mr. Adams has been with the Southern Pacific here for many years and his work will take him to Roseburg where he will run between that city and Ashland.

Twenty-five guests called during the evening and presented Mr. and Mrs. Adams with a gift. A potluck supper was served.

Sojourners will meet twice this month, the first session slated for Wednesday, April 10, at 1:45 p. m., the other April 24, also at 1:45 p. m. Both meetings will be held at the Willard hotel.

Church Rites

Mabel Weaver, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Weaver of Klamath Falls, and Clarence C. Greenstreet Jr., son of Clarence Greenstreet Sr., also of this city, exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony read in the Pilgrim Holiness church, Friday, March 29, by the bride's father.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white testament and wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Hazel Scribner, the bride's sister, who wore a light gray suit with pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Best man was the bridegroom's father, Clarence Greenstreet. Mrs. A. Williams sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Rosella Waits.

MRS. FREDERICK EHLERS AND LITTLE SON smile at the prospect of making their home in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Ehlers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Collier of Pacific Terrace. Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers and seven-month-old Frederick arrived from California late in March.

Church Rites

Mabel Weaver, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Weaver of Klamath Falls, and Clarence C. Greenstreet Jr., son of Clarence Greenstreet Sr., also of this city, exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony read in the Pilgrim Holiness church, Friday, March 29, by the bride's father.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white testament and wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Hazel Scribner, the bride's sister, who wore a light gray suit with pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Best man was the bridegroom's father, Clarence Greenstreet. Mrs. A. Williams sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Rosella Waits.

The couple received at the home of the bride's parents, 2133 Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Greenstreet left for a short wedding trip to Idaho, and will return in mid-April to make their home here.

Honor Guests

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Adams, who have made their home in Klamath Falls since 1926, were honored Monday evening at their residence in the Marion apartments prior to their departure for Roseburg.

Mr. Adams has been with the Southern Pacific here for many years and his work will take him to Roseburg where he will run between that city and Ashland.

Twenty-five guests called during the evening and presented Mr. and Mrs. Adams with a gift. A potluck supper was served.

Sojourners will meet twice this month, the first session slated for Wednesday, April 10, at 1:45 p. m., the other April 24, also at 1:45 p. m. Both meetings will be held at the Willard hotel.

Church Rites

Mabel Weaver, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Weaver of Klamath Falls, and Clarence C. Greenstreet Jr., son of Clarence Greenstreet Sr., also of this city, exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony read in the Pilgrim Holiness church, Friday, March 29, by the bride's father.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white testament and wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Hazel Scribner, the bride's sister, who wore a light gray suit with pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Best man was the bridegroom's father, Clarence Greenstreet. Mrs. A. Williams sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Rosella Waits.

The couple received at the home of the bride's parents, 2133 Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Greenstreet left for a short wedding trip to Idaho, and will return in mid-April to make their home here.

Sojourners will meet twice this month, the first session slated for Wednesday, April 10, at 1:45 p. m., the other April 24, also at 1:45 p. m. Both meetings will be held at the Willard hotel.

Musical Program Planned Monday

A special treat awaits members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club next Monday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when two music students from the University of Oregon school of music are presented by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, club music chairman.

The pair, Johnette King of North Bend and Rose Zena Latta, Coos Bay, will present the entire afternoon program in the main auditorium. Johnette is a pianist, Rose Zena, soprano soloist.

All women of the city are cordially invited to attend the program whether they are members of library club or not. Admission is by membership ticket or a small fee asked at the door.

Following is the program: "Prelude in G Minor," Chopin; "Prelude in D Flat," Chopin; "Waltz in D Flat," Chopin; "Ballade in G Minor," Chopin; "Johnette King Michael's Aria from 'Carmen,' Bizet; "Rose Zena Latta 'Magic Fire Scene,' Wagner-Brassins; "Sobre La Loma," Milhaud; "Danse Negre," Scott; "Johnette King 'Beyond the Skies,' Foster; "Thank God for a Garden," Del Riego; "Romany Life," Herbert; "Rose Zena Latta 'Hustlers for the Afternoon' will be Mrs. Ben Gibson and Mrs. W. D. Miller.

Members are asked to return with the issues to come before the state convention in Portland, the issues distributed at the last meeting of the club.

Lady Eagles

The Lady Eagles club met Friday evening at the home of Helen Seather. Pinochle was played with awards going to Clara Rimer, Clara Beland and Lorna Groves.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 8, for a noon potluck luncheon in the lower FOE hall. All are cordially invited.

Name Delegates

Ada Willits presided over the meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge held in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, April 4. Elected to serve as delegates to the Rebekah assembly in May were Frances Munsell, Stella Dryden, Marguerite Landis, and Mary Curtis, and it was voted that Alma Cofer be recommended as district deputy for Prosperity Rebekah lodge. Among the guests was William Putnam of Oriental Rebekah lodge of San Francisco.

There will be initiation of candidates at the next meeting, April 18, and Alice Lawrence is chairman of the banquet committee. The distribution of fancywork will also be held at this time.

Gary Is Four

Little Gary Crakes, four years old Sunday, April 7, celebrated his birthday a day early with a party this afternoon at his home, 7451 Rose. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Crakes.

The party followed an Easter theme, with games and refreshments in accordance with the motif. Present were Freddie Graham, Terry McAtee, Jerry and Carl Herman, Gordon Curtis, Johnny Miles, Leslie Fleet, Susan Derby, Twyla Green, Gary, Mrs. Frank Curtis, Mrs. Gilbert Fleet, Mrs. M. G. Leslie, Mrs. Al Grimm and Mrs. George Crakes.

Recent Portland visitors were Mrs. Marvin Nersteth and two children who enjoyed a brief stay with Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Rees and their two children, Denny and little Judy Lynn. The Rees family is now domiciled at Lake Oswego and have made plans to build soon on a lakefront lot which they purchased soon after going to Portland.

Birthday Party

Marcia Jean Wilson, who was 10 years old Wednesday, April 3, observed her birthday with a party attended by 12 little friends. Green and yellow birthday cakes decorated the party table. The group played outdoor games, after which refreshments were served.

Guests were Carlene Coleman, Dick and Don Terwilliger, Kenneth McKim, Betty Dugas, Shirley Davis, Clydene Schultz, Nancy Cook, Roberta Wade, Barbara Seares, Jimmie Wilson, Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger and Mrs. Marguerite Gray.

Herald and News

Reames Women Open Season

The spring season was officially opened by women of Reames Golf and Country club Friday when they gathered at the clubhouse for a morning of golf followed by luncheon at 1:30 o'clock, a business meeting and cards.

The luncheon was served by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webber, at tables decked with spring arrangements of forsythia, daffodils and pussywillows.

Mrs. Martin Swanson, president of Women of Reames, presided at the business meeting and appointed the following committees:

Entertainment, Mrs. John D. Merryman. House, Mrs. E. M. Raymond and Mrs. Paul Farrens. Publicity, Mrs. Marvin Nersteth and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon. Handicap, Mrs. Tom Jerrow and Mrs. Peter A. Albertson.

Prizes, Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. Richard B. Maxwell and Mrs. Matt Finnigan. Building, Mrs. Paul W. Sharp.

Tournament, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. J. J. Steiger and Mrs. Paul Farrens. Hostesses Friday were Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Robert Sproat and Mrs. Jack Webber.

The guest award of the day went to Mrs. William Sheldon. Programs for the year, in attractive booklet form, were distributed on the luncheon table. It was announced that next Friday there will be a "How Not To Play Golf" tournament with Mrs. Robert O. Sproat and Mrs. John Shaw as tournament chairmen. Hostesses next week will be Mrs. W. J. Grove, Mrs. William C. Dalton and Mrs. J. H. Martin.

The recipient of this award is chosen from women outside the club membership.

Award Dinner

An important dinner meeting of the Soroptimist club of Klamath Falls will be held Wednesday evening, April 10, at 7 o'clock, in the Pelican party room.

Invitations have been sent to the presidents and their wives or husbands of the other service clubs in Klamath Falls, and a very interesting program has been planned.

Music will be by members of the Soroptimist club, and Phil Hitchcock will give a talk that will be of particular interest to all service clubs.

The climax of the meeting will be the presentation of an award to an outstanding woman in this community who has been selected by the club members as deserving special consideration for her contributions to the various phases of civic development, and to the youth of Klamath Falls.

The recipient of this award is chosen from women outside the club membership.

New Officers

Members of Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, met at the home of Mrs. George D. Wardell, 1745 Menlo way, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Routine business was transacted, with Lois Rumer, president, presiding. The following officers were elected to serve the chapter during the ensuing year, president, Mrs. John Feeback; vice president, Mrs. George Wright; treasurer, Mrs. Stephen Sabo; recording secretary, Frances Balin, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Lois Rumer, Mrs. George Wardell, Mrs. John Feeback and Mrs. Stephen Sabo were appointed to work with a committee from Kappa chapter in making plans for the annual Founders Day celebration, to be held April 30. Committees from both chapters will meet at Mrs. Wardell's home, Monday, April 8 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Warren Poole introduced Frances Balin and Mrs. George Wright, who gave interesting and instructive talks on voice and vocabulary. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Warren Poole, 1129 Lincoln, on April 18 at 8 p. m.

Art Needlework

Mrs. J. J. Parker was hostess to the Art Needlework club Wednesday afternoon, April 3, at her home, 903 Lincoln.

Guests spent the afternoon working on various types of needlework, with refreshments served later in the afternoon. Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, who has been in California for the last six months, was welcomed back.

Special guests were Dr. Bertha Sawyer of Ashland and Mrs. C. W. Murdoch.

The group will meet next with Mrs. Z. J. Powell at her home, 5th and Walnut. Mrs. C. W. Murdoch will be co-hostess.

Wed 57 Years

Fifty-seven years of married life were quietly celebrated Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Emil Egert, 331 South Fourth, pioneer residents of this community.

Many cards of congratulation were received by the couple who celebrated the occasion quietly at home alone, having no relatives. Egert is 87 and his wife is 75 years of age. Their only daughter died soon after her marriage and the grandson they reared died three years ago.

The couple was married in Klamath Falls 57 years ago when Egert operated a harness shop on Main. They left here seven years after their marriage and homesteaded seven miles beyond Hildebrand, between Hildebrand and Sprague River where they remained until three years ago when they returned to Klamath Falls.

Bridal Shower

A bridal shower was given for Virginia Andrews, Friday evening, March 29, at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Nolen, 2151 Darrow.

The rooms were decorated with spring flowers. The evening was spent playing bingo after which Miss Andrews opened her gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Nolen and Mrs. Hugh Schultz.

Attending were Miss Andrews, Miss Daisy Misfelt, Mrs. Margie Wood, Mildred Rice, Mrs. Sheldon Russell, Mrs. Pauline Thomas, Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, Ella Jones, Mrs. Dan Cross, Mrs. Roy Andrews, Mrs. Marjorie Michaelson, Mrs. E. C. Bridger, Mrs. Myrtle Van Meter, Mrs. William Nolen, and Mrs. Hugh Schultz.

Those unable to be present but sending gifts were Mrs. K. H. Washburn, Mrs. L. Alva Lewis, Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. Jewel Crank, Mrs. Inger Schultz and Mrs. Vernon Michaelson.

Lioness Club To Meet Monday

Members of the Lioness club will meet Monday, April 8, at the library clubrooms at 8 p. m. for a regular meeting, program and cards. Hostesses will be Mrs. Clifford Wright, Mrs. W. L. Whytal, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw and Mrs. Estlin Kiger.

A BRIDE OF FRIDAY, March 22, was Marion Deering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Deering of Weyerhaeuser, who exchanged vows with Warren Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Caldwell of 2262 Reclamation.

Marion Deering Weds In Ceremony

The First Methodist church was the scene of the wedding of Marion Deering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Deering of Weyerhaeuser, to Warren Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Caldwell of 2262 Reclamation.

The candlelight ceremony was read by the Rev. Victor Phillips before an altar banked with cala lilies and palms. For her wedding gown the bride chose ivory brocaded satin with a long train and finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations tied with white satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Mary Trulove, who wore a pale blue floor-length gown and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bridesmaid, Audrey Hendricks, wore a gown of pink and carried a bouquet identical to that of the maid of honor.

Best man was Robert Caldwell, and the usher was Cecil Hendricks. The reception in the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. Lillian Hagman served, and Mrs. E. H. Balsiger and Mrs. J. E. Smith poured. Assisting about the room were Dorothy Gilchrist and Shirley Bach.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left after the reception for a wedding trip in southern California. They are now at home at 2262 Reclamation.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Klamath Union high school. The groom is a former first lieutenant in the army air corps.

MARY JANE HARDY of Klamath Falls became the bride of Rudy Payg of Malin in a simple ceremony read Saturday, March 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lohrey of 2144 Eberlein.

—Kennell-Ellis

—Evergreen