Today's Roundup By MALCOLM EPLEY

THIS is the season when Klamath's weather receives its annual panning. A few loyal souls may point out that the weather menu provides variety, at least, but such timid defense is soon drowned out by the loud yowls of complaint from newcomers, old-timers and visitors.

EPLEY

Some springs are worse than others, and it has been our custom here to recall the worse ones by way of improving the general tone of weather conversations hereabouts. There is danger in that, however, because it indicates how bad things might get again, even in the current year.

Music Lovers KLAMATH Union high school and Klamath Sacred Heart academy music students did themselves proud at the Southern Oregon music festival at Ashland last week.

Malin Comes Through MALIN community, which has a habit of doing things in a big way, came through Sunday with a rousing celebration of the homecoming of its scores of service men and women.

Interest DORRIS is having a council election Tuesday, and Editor Robert Gross of the Butte Valley Star is to be commended and congratulated on the fair manner in which his paper has handled the advance coverage of this local event.

STATIC Today's Raymond Gram Swing show will originate from New York rather than Washington, as was previously announced on the program.

Waldorf, Martha Scott has been heard on two recent Theatre Guild shows, "John Ferguson" and "Storm Over Patsy."

WASHINGTON, April 8 — Mr. Truman and his reconverter John Snyder have been bragging that the "production of civilian goods and services" has reached the peak of all time.

Taint so. There are tricks in it, to wit: A foremost weekly index of actual production from a nongovernmental source places our output for the week ending March 23 at 131 compared with 143 a year ago and about 127 for 1941.

Messrs. Truman and Snyder did not tabulate actual volume of production, but only dollar volumes and income, and they made no allowances for price increases.

Situation Bad PRODUCERS themselves tell me the situation is bad. Ford publicly closed his plant for a week the very day the president spoke, because he could not keep enough steel on hand to warrant continuous operations.

Production Not Restored THERE are no autos, coal, refrigerators, typewriters, and only a few radios. A considerable (say 10 to 15 per cent) improvement in sales-stocks can be noted in many lines, and a bare beginning toward restoration is noticeable.

But if you figure a 25 to 50 per cent increase in such items (I have noticed in my purchases price increases as high as 400 per cent) even the visible results of greater production in restricted lines do not loom formidably when compared with the job of sizing the production bottleneck up to demand.

But if civilian goods and services are at an all time peak and going higher in the next few months to satisfy demands, then, Mr. Truman will not need his OPA regulations much beyond June 30, the date at which they are scheduled to expire.

"Aunt Mary writes she accepts my apology for last year's rudeness, and will visit us again this summer to give you a chance to show how sweet you really are!"

BOYLE'S NOTEBOOK

By HAL BOYLE ATHENS, April 8 (AP) — A man knocked on my hotel door and for a half hour gave me back my faraway childhood.

ABOUT SHASTA WAY KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To The Editor)—Many people have asked me to write about the Shasta way road.

Snow Demolishes Lake Summer Home The Lake of the Woods summer home of Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams was completely destroyed when a heavy bank of snow on the roof crashed the porch and carried the remainder of the structure with it.

Woke up to find a young blizzard blowing up and down the river this morning, and found that the covey of quail who use our place as a summer sanctuary had chosen that moment to show up again.

It would seem that we aren't the only place on the coast that got a blizzard of one kind or another this morning. The network kept going on and off like a broken light bulb, and right in the middle of Breakfast Club, too.
