

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Forward Dinner

Klamath Falls woman, who contributed to the civic well-being of the city, will be honored tonight, Wednesday, at 8 o'clock when the Soroptimist club sponsors a dinner at the Pelican party room.

The name of the woman, who is outside the Soroptimist club, will not be made public until the official award is made at the close of the dinner program on Thursday night.

The well-known Klamath Falls resident, who is the speaker of the evening, The Soroptimist club, their husbands, heads of service clubs in the city and their husbands or wives.

Business Meeting

Catholic Daughters of America held a regular business meeting in the parish hall Monday night, April 8, at 8 o'clock. Several reports were presented, including a report by Mrs. Dunbeck and Cecelia on the pre-Lenten dance given by the Catholic Daughters of the Knights of Columbus, a report on legislative measures by Rose O'Leary, a report by Margaret Lavin on the Red Cross ditty bags, and a report by Ellen Fry.

Phyllis Mahoney announced that 1562 hours had been put in at the local USO by various Catholic Daughters and ladies of Sacred Heart parish, and the Dirksmeier, member of the national Catholic Community service, who served here at the USO was presented with a gift before her departure for the south.

Refreshments were then served by a committee headed by Phyllis Mahoney, assisted by Betty Albee and Mary McMan.

Joint Session

A joint meeting of St. Paul's and the Woman's auxiliary was held Thursday afternoon at the parish house of the Episcopal church. Corporate communion was followed by a gathering in the hall where potluck luncheon was served. The program included reading from the Bible by G. M. Upington, and Rev. C. Wissenbach continued his Lenten study talk on world conditions, and the need for integrity and faith in dealing with the world.

Refreshments for the afternoon were served by Mrs. Horace E. Getz and Mrs. Heber Radcliffe.

The auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon, tomorrow, at the parish house and tea will be served by the Guild. The meeting will open at 3:15 p. m. and close at 3:30 o'clock the group will continue the Lenten study.

Garden Club

The Bonanza-Langell Valley Garden club held its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Ruth Mullenax last Friday, attended by an enthusiastic group of women gardeners.

The living room was attractively decorated with beautiful spring flowers and delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The 1945 garden program was briefly outlined and completed forms will be presented to members at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Schmor, April 19. Hardy shrubs will be the topic of discussion for the afternoon and roll call will be answered with members giving the name, habits and description of a shrub successfully grown in this locality.

Mrs. Schmor will lead a discussion on the planting and care of strawberries.

New members are cordially invited to join the club and guests are always welcome.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Van Cleave of 3240 Laverne, announce the engagement of their daughter, Grace, to George M. Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Walters of 3945 Altamont. Miss Van Cleave will be graduated from Klamath Union high school in May.

Mr. Walters was discharged last fall from the army air forces.

The date of the wedding has been set for June 24.

Graduate Regents Met Friday

Graduate Regents of the Women of the Moose met with Maude Christensen of 304 Michigan, Friday evening, April 5, at 7:30 o'clock. Following the short business meeting cards were played, and Mildred Wilkinson held high score, with Ruby Bell second. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Janet Jocks, and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.
