

Tony Ross' head is bloody but unbowed and there is still fight in the Salem mauler as referee Wally Ross tries to prevent him from any more mixing with Bob Keneston. The latter, standing at the left, is both bloody and bowed, but not turning down any more fighting. The two boys will slug out their differences with eight-ounce gloves at the armory Thursday night.

Sevos Drop 2-Battle With Seals

By The Associated Press
Bill Swency's collection of former Chicago Cubs and other former baseball for Los Angeles who rivaled San Francisco in the early pace-making, viewed the Pacific Coast league proceedings today from the bottom of the first division.

The Hollywood Stars winning over Seattle, Tuesday over the Cub-backed Angels, lost to the San Diego Padres, 3 to 4. Pepper Martin's strike, a general pre-season race for the cellar, thereby placed to the top of the second division.

San Francisco's Seals went out their precocious pennant-racing in a 3-2 win over the Portland Beavers for the ninth place in 11 starts, and the Oakland club remained close behind. Charlie Gasaway's four-hit performance to subdue Sacramento, pitcher Gil Knowles of the Seals won his own game on a shinning double which tied Fred Lanfero for the victory margin. The Angels scored late in the opening frame and until San Diego tied the score in the eighth on singles by Al Angle and Deb Garms, and pitcher.

At San Francisco Cliff Melton, former New York Giant, won his best straight game with the profit of pinchhitter Bones Brainer's long fly to center in the eighth inning to score Ray Perini. The Seals' good fielding produced three double plays, and the Baseman Ferris Fain not to put on a fielding show but each of four times at bat.

Second No-Hitter Flung By Schoolboy

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 10 (AP)—Charlie Aubrandt, a 17-year-old William Penn high school student, today was hailed in Pennsylvania scholastic sports circles for hurling his second no-hit, no-run game.

The youthful sensation, in four games this season, has allowed no runs in 26 innings pitched. He has allowed a total of three hits, walked three, and struck out 57 of 86 men he has faced.

Pelicans Rock Dorris, 25-1

The KUHS Pelicans got their baseball season off to a flying start yesterday afternoon by walloping Dorris high in a practice tilt, 25-1, on Del Moro field.

It was a field day for Pelican batsmen and the mightiest blow of the game was Charles Heilbroner's triple with the bases loaded. Coach Ed Ryan used virtually every player on his roster, substituting at will, to determine his diamond strength.

The Pelican regular season opens Friday afternoon with the Grizzlies at Ashland. Ryan plans to start Joe Carroll, righthander, on the mound. Carroll pitched for Salem of the no-name league last year and was a sparkplug in winning the league title for Salem.

John West Low In Reames Meet

John West was medalist for the first round of the Reames Country club spring golf tourney, coming in two-up over Carl Woods. Harry Panning, finishing four-up over Bob Sprout, was second low and Jim Kerns and Woods tied for third.

Kerns ended five-up on Dick Miller. The scores are medal on 18 holes of play.

First prize in the bund bogey went to Jack Webber, a S. H. Snell and Jack Franklin, second prize to Clair Luce and third to Laurence Shaw and Dr. George Merryman Jr.

The HOOK team is three-up on the SLICE team but expect the final 18 holes next Sunday to be different.

Pasquel Says Rickey Turning Loose Dough

MEXICO CITY, April 10 (AP)—Mexican league president Jorge Pasquel, who claims he is freeing U. S. ball players from the bondage of "starvation salaries," says the Brooklyn Dodgers promised Catcher Mickey Owen plenty of pesos to lure him back into organized baseball.

Brooklyn president Branch Rickey "promised Owen a contract for three years at $20,000 annually plus all expenses and taxes," Pasquel declared in a statement late last night.

"It is curious to note that my brother Alfonso was present in the telephone conversation that Owen had with Senor Rickey Monday night," he said, adding, "Newton bore would it have occurred to this senior to pay his players what they justly are worth."

Last week, when Owen first announced that he was going to play in Pasquel's loop, he said that he had agreed to a five-year contract for an undisclosed salary plus a $12,500 cash bonus for signing the document. The Dodgers were believed to have paid the backstop between $12,500 and $15,000 a year before he entered the navy in 1945.

The dapper czar of the Mexican league reiterated that he will sue Owen, whom he said signed a contract in St. Louis to play here for five years, and Yonon Stephens, the hard-hitting St. Louis Browns shortstop who departed Mexico shortly after playing two games.

Pasquel said he was deeply hurt over Stephens' bolt. The infielder was a guest at the millionaire's palatial home and the Mexican said that Stephens "never before in his life had lived as he lived in Mexico during the days that he was here."

Ursal Snapp Decided In AAU Bout

BOSTON, April 10 (AP)—Denny Quinn, a 126 pound Multnomah Athletic club fighter, was the only Oregon lad in the AAU boxing nationals' semi-finals today after winning a split decision over a Philadelphia entry.

Quinn won 2 to 1 by taking the final round of a bout with Willard Gillard, negro boy. The two boys were bleeding as they stood toe to toe in their quarter-final and slugged through to the decision.

The other Oregonian to appear last night, Lawrence Parker of Lebanon, 175 pounds, was knocked out in the first round by a barrage of rights and lefts from Bob Foxworth, Chicago.

In the same weight class, Ursal Snapp, Indianapolis entry who formerly lived at Merrill, Ore., was outpointed by Ken Harris, Philadelphia.

Powell Kayoes Ogg In Fourth

SEATTLE, April 10 (AP)—With a belting right to the button, Eddie Powell of Seattle, 179, scored a clean knockout in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout last night with Frankie Ogg of Los Angeles. Ogg weighed 175.

Ogg had rallied strongly after losing the first two rounds, and was gaining when Powell dropped him.

Giants Aren't Buying Owen

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—Owner Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants says he isn't interested in the "for sale" sign that Brooklyn nung on Senor Mickey Owen but he is scouring the majors for more pitching, a right hand hitting outfielder and a utility infielder.

"We have the best catcher in baseball," said Stoneham, who bought Walker Cooper from the St. Louis Cardinals for $175,000 during the winter. "Despite all that talk about our trying to buy Owen at Columbus, we never were interested."

Pro Football Game Slated For Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Rockets pro gridiron clubs of the All-America league will open here at Multnomah stadium in an August 16 game, Dodgers Club Owner Bill Cox reported today.

Cox reported at San Francisco, where the game was arranged yesterday, that the previously scheduled Dodger vs. New York Yankees game set for August 23 here would be played instead at Gonzaga stadium at Spokane on that date.
