

Chamber Drive More Than Doubles Goal

Alice Vitus, chairman of the membership committee of the chamber of commerce, here points to the record made in the recent drive. The campaign took the shape of a contest between city slickers and farmers. The slickers won, making 214 per cent of their quota. But the farmers weren't far behind, with 204 per cent of goal.

After-Hours Nylons Sale Likened To V-J Day Melee

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12 (AP)—It takes a victory over Japan or a New Year's eve, somewhat battered policemen said, to cause more tumult than an after-hours nylons sale.

A Market street store offered 10,800 pairs of hosiery last night for working girls who couldn't afford the queues during business hours, but the police called it off and spent several hours breaking up a near riot.

The store had advertised the girls could show their social security cards to prove employment and get two pairs apiece.

Police estimated 15,000 showed up. Traffic was snarled for blocks by lines extending more

Hunger Edges Mac, Truman In Jap Vote

TOKYO, April 12 (AP)—Incomplete returns today from scattered Tokyo precincts in Japan's general election gave General MacArthur a 1200 per cent lead over President Truman for a seat in the diet.

MacArthur received 12 votes; Truman one.

Both were edged out by hunger. Thirteen ballots were marked "more food!"
