

Miss Laurenson Weds In Church

A bride of Sunday afternoon was Miss Dorothy Laurenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cramer of Monroe, who was married to Walter W. Ebbett Jr., stationed in Alaska.

Rev. Victor Phillips read the double ring service before a large gathering of relatives and friends at 4 p. m. in the First Methodist church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Ebbett of Tacoma, Wash.

The church was decorated with palms as a background for vases of white stock and white tapers. Mr. Cramer gave his daughter in marriage. She was gowned in white with a shoulder-tip veil and carried a white Bible with an orchid corsage. Matron of honor was the bride's sister Mrs. Gordon Froisness of San Leandro, Calif. She wore a gown of soft pink and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Mrs. John C. Bales of Eugene. She wore a gown of blue and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Niece of the bride, Valerie Jean Froisness, four-years-old was flower girl and carried a basket of white flowers. She was lighted by Billie Baxter. Stanley Bechtel was best man, ushers were Robert F. Laurenson, brother of the bride from Portland, and John Bales of Eugene.

Mrs. John O'Connor played the wedding music and Carl Hagel sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

At the reception which followed in the church parlor, Mrs. Christopher Barnstable and Mrs. John Yaden poured, while Mrs. Otto Smith cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Phillis Smith and Dorothy Glicerist served. Mr. and Mrs. Ebbett left on a trip to California. The couple plans to live in Alaska where Ebbett is stationed.
