

Many Honor Tillamook Guest

Aloha chapter of Eastern star met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Masonic hall when 200 members and guests honored the worthy grand matron of Oregon, Mrs. Hazel M. Graham of Tillamook.

Cascade Crest chapter of Chilquinn and Prosperity chapter of Malin took part in the exemplification of the ritual work for the inspection and approval of the grand matron. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Spring flowers and that with the pastel hues of formal gowns worn by the officers made an attractive setting. After the business of the evening an addenda was given by the Sunshine girls. They wore leis made in the colors of the order and sang Aloha Oe.

Mrs. Helen Listoe was escorted to the East by the Sunshine girls, where she presented Mrs. Graham with a charming little colonial bouquet, the greenery of which was United States currency. Many visitors from 10 other jurisdictions were introduced and welcomed. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bechtel from South Gate, Calif., Mrs. Rose Soule from Los Angeles and all former members of Aloha were greeted by the members.

Other visitors were Brother M. Graham of Tillamook, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hagerty of Tulelake, Calif., Beulah Reber and P. G. Wilson from Malin, Audrey Kellison and Crawford Lewis of Chilquinn, Grant Todd of Medford, member of the budget committee of the grand chapter and Alma Cofer, grand representative of the grand chapter of Tennessee. Artistic corsages were presented to each honored sister.

The refreshment committee served guests and members in the banquet room where the Sunshine girls sang a song dedicated to the grand matron.

The next regular meeting will be men's night at which time brothers will take entire charge of the program and refreshments. Sanford Selby will be chairman of the evening.

Extension Unit News

The Altamont home extension unit will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jack Moore, 4630 Boardman. The demonstration is on care of walls and woodwork with Mrs. Wishard, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Davis as project leaders. Election of officers will be held at the meeting.

Klamath Falls home extension unit will meet at the First Methodist church at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, will lead the project on keeping fit with vitamin C. Those attending are asked to bring a potato ready to bake and their own table service.

Fairhaven home extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. C. L. Harvey on the Keno highway at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Care of walls, floors and woodwork will be demonstrated by Mrs. Percy Cook and Mrs. Lee Holliday. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon and everyone interested is invited to come.

Fire Wagons Answer Calls

The fire ladders had gone for several days without a single alarm until Friday but it was the lull before the storm as the trucks were called out four times in a little over 12 hours.

First call came in at 2:48 p. m. Friday from 410 S. 5th, where hot ashes placed against a wall burned part of the outside wall and a porch on the structure owned by the Locke estate and occupied by Robert Vaughn. Firemen issued another warning concerning hot ashes.

At 6:18 p. m., an overheated oil stove at the Dan Caldwell residence, 517 N. 10th, brought the truck out again. There was some damage. The third call came from the Bend-Portland Auto Freight docks, Oak and Market, where a fire had started in the packing quilts. This was at 10:16 p. m. Small damage was also reported from that call.

The fourth alarm was sent in from 2450 Blehn at 3:36 a. m., when a heating stove in one of the small cabins at the tourist camp threatened a building. There was slight damage, firemen reported. The cabins are owned by Myrtle Joplin.

Four-H News

The 4-H Henley Beef club was called to order April 3 by Jimmie Bernardi, president, at the Zumwalt place. Marcella Bernardi called the roll and minutes were read and approved. All members were present and seven visitors. Weights of animals and feeds were discussed and training and taming them. It was agreed for Edgar Hoffman to get the Henley feed boxes from the Williams place and store them until the show. Mrs. Zumwalt served refreshments. The next meeting will be held at Edgar Hoffman's home on May 12 at 2 p. m.

Henley Dishwashers will meet after school next Tuesday to prepare luncheon and supper. Each member is to bring two tablespoons of sugar.

Delegates Attend Ashland Presbytery

TULELAKE, April 13—Delegates from Tulelake, Merrill and Malin attended two-day sessions of the Presbytery and Presbyterial of southwest Oregon, held April 9 and 10 at Ashland. Two Tulelake delegates took offices, Mrs. A. E. Ryckman being returned as chairman of social education and action and Mrs. Bronson returning as program chairman for the coming year.

Rev. Harry W. Hansen, Medford, was elected moderator and the Rev. Lawrence Mitchellmore, formerly of Merrill, now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Jacksonville, was elected commissioner to the general assembly at Atlantic City in May.

Both organizations accepted the invitation of the Malin church to act as host at the fall sessions next October.

A Westminster Fellowship Presbytery for young people was organized during the meeting and this group also will be represented at Malin at the fall meeting.

Attending from Tulelake were Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bronson, Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, Mrs. H. T. Street, Malin, Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Morton, Mrs. H. E. Wilson, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. J. Perry Haley and Mrs. E. W. Shover, Merrill, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. John W. Taylor, W. F. Jinnette and Dwight Eagle.

Reds Denied League Share

GENEVA, April 13 (AP)—France proposed today that Russia be allowed a share of the league of nation's assets, but failed to obtain support in the commission considering the liquidation.

When no member seconded the motion, made by French Delegate Emil Charveriat, the commission chairman, Sir Atul Chatterjee, rejected it.

Charveriat declared it would be "an equitable action" to give the Soviet Union a part of the league's assets, because the world owed her much for her war victories.

The commission's proposal for disposition of the 26-year-old league's assets promises that only the present members are entitled to portions. Charveriat drew a distinction in Russia's case, saying that she was expelled and had not walked out.

A resolution providing for final dissolution of the league upon the close of its last assembly next week awaited adoption.

Flashes Of Life

RIGHT LANE PLAINVIEW, Tex., April 13 (AP)—When Mrs. Ivan Adkins was stopped by a traffic officer she didn't get a ticket. She got a pair of nylon.

Followed for eight blocks, the officer told Mrs. Adkins that she had done "everything right," whereas five lady drivers before her over the same route had committed one or more traffic violations.

The nylon idea was part of a safety educational program.

NEW ROACH ROLE TULSA, Okla., April 13 (AP) Millard Bashaw credits a cockroach with saving his life. Just as he was ready to climb into bed, Bashaw sighted the insect near a gas outlet and stepped over to destroy it. There he discovered that the valve was open and rapidly filling the room with gas.

SLIGHT MISTAKE DENVER, April 13 (AP)—An advertisement in a national magazine (Time) invites vacationists to Colorado and suggests they inquire for information at room 207, State Capitol.

Room 207 is the men's wash-room, listed by mistake said publicity officials of the state public department in room 224.

OFF COLOR MOUNT VERNON, Ill., April 13 (AP)—Here's a new twist to the nylon hose situation.

A woman walked into a woman's shop here and said she wanted to return a pair of nylons she had purchased a few days earlier. An astonished clerk asked "why?"

"Not the right color," she complained.

SOCE Registration To Close April 15

The last day for registration for the spring term at the Southern Oregon college is Monday, April 15, according to M. E. Woodell, registrar.

There are now 197 students registered for the current term of which 99 are veterans. There are 118 men and only 79 women registered.

Housing is still available and regular or special students who are interested in beginning for the spring term are urged to contact the registrar's office as soon as possible.

MARTHA SHOPS

Melinda

Cosmetics for Teens . . . and Little Lady "her very own cosmetics" for the pigtail ages . . . both by Helena Pestl . . . are interesting new lines available at CURRIN'S.

Daintily scented powders, lotions and creams of Melinda cosmetics are made especially for school girl skins . . . and for alleviating skin problems of that age. The Pore Cream, a cleanser . . . and Aqua Vaseline, a skin tonic, are recommended especially for those troubled with excess oil.

Besides these, the selection includes four shades of powder . . . three of lipstick and rouge, appropriately named "Play," "School" and "Date" . . . perfume, cologne, dusting powder and other items . . . all housed in neat containers that won't look glaringly sophisticated on a young girl's dressing table.

For the Little Lady are hand lotion, cologne, hankie sachets and adorable gift sets . . . bearing a lovely light, clean fragrance.

So, if you want to make your "little" sweetharts feel important, come Easter, Martha recommends these good, moderately priced cosmetics . . . made for youth . . . which you'll find at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS, corner of Ninth and Main.

Joyce Shoes . . .

popular for casual and sports-wear . . . have reached LEONS . . . 525 Main . . . in large numbers. Combining comfort with smartness . . . they're excellent for campus wear . . . and for outdoor days coming up.

"The Alert" is a white oxford style . . . the "Heyday" in white, is patterned along loafer lines . . . and "Gray Fox" is a nifty open-toe-and-heel slipper type in gray with a buckled strap across the instep. All three have wedge heels.

LEONS has also had a shipment of those heel-less ballerina slippers . . . in red, beige, green and white . . . that are becoming the 1946 footwear rage.

White Swan

uniforms . . . a favorite of nurses, office attendants and waitresses . . . because of their fresh whiteness and well-tailored look . . . are once more available at MILLER'S, formerly Moe's.

Fabrics include Swanelle, which has a soft, silky finish . . . slub poplin and plain poplin . . . with either long or short sleeves.

This new shipment also has the Bob Evans' uniforms . . . fashioned with demure Peter Pan collars or the V-necked tailored . . . and the Wayne Maid white seersuckers of button-front style.

All are smartened up by lustrous buttons . . . and sizes range from 12 through 44. You'll find them in the downstairs store of MILLER'S . . . 512 Main.

Easter Lilies

are a-bloom at KLAMATH FLOWER SHOP'S greenhouses . . . where the potted plants have done extremely well under the watchful care of Sanford Rose . . . promising plenty of these regal flowers will be available for Sunday the 21st.

But, to avoid last-minute confusion and disappointment on your choice for Easter bouquets . . . be they lilies, sweet peas, "snaps," carnations or other cut blossoms . . . Charlie Mack of the KLAMATH FLOWER SHOP, 1211 Main . . . urges that you place orders as early as possible this coming week. Delivery service covers only the city.

Germaine Monteile . . . (pronounced mon-tay) . . . is LaPOINTE'S initial venture into cosmetics . . . and this line that the store chose ranks among the most desirable in beauty aids . . . wafting a bouquet fragrance that's delightfully different.

To introduce luxurious Germaine Monteile to LaPOINTE'S customers . . . complimentary facials are being demonstrated by Edna Peterstainer . . . which is, after all, the surest way to decide on makeup shades and cream textures best suited to your coloring and skin.

This line carries a complete selection of creams and fresheners . . . sun tan and tan-proof lotions . . . bath oil and powders . . . both complexion and bath soaps . . . day and night makeup . . . eye beautifiers . . . perfumes and sachets . . . as well as enchanting gift sets that should go down on your list for Mother or that graduation gift.

Next time you're shopping in LaPOINTE'S, 507 Main . . . remember to look for the new cosmetics department.

Short Or Long?

Talking with Fern Short at the Studio of Beauty the other day . . . we got around to the short or long hair controversy about which there's much ado.

Fern pointed out that style specialists are surveying the situation with doubts about the manly or wind-blown shingle . . . because, they claim, it isn't flattering to the average woman . . . and has no place in today's truly feminine fashion picture.

But whether it's long or short, up or down . . . the stylists say American women aren't going to be standardized. They'll go along with the trends, yes . . . but adapt them to their own needs. For instance, you can have a hairdo with close-to-the-head effect, avoiding actual shearing.

Patrons of the STUDIO OF BEAUTY . . . on the mezzanine of Whytal's . . . are reminded the show will be closed April 22 and 23 . . . while the personnel attends the state convention of owners and operators in Portland. Afterward, they'll have more first-hand knowledge of new coiffure creations from the style show.

Weekend Mecca

for dining, dancing . . . and other entertainment . . . is CALORE TAVERN on Highway 97, south . . . in case you're new here and haven't found this popular spot yet.

You can really forget your cares dancing to Sammy Herman's orchestra . . . specialists in soft, romantic tunes . . . with Paul Swigart as vocalist . . . and the dinners are superb, as always. CALORE is open every night, but Monday!

Cheely's Originals comprise that arresting display of little girl gowns to the left of the entrance at LEONS TOTS TO TEENS SHOP . . . and when Martha arrived yesterday, new pastel striped chambrays had been added to the selection . . . copies of the nightgown designed by Mary Cheely for Margaret O'Brien . . . worn in several scenes of "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes."

These Cheely gowns are quite the most adorable I've ever looked upon . . . with their quaint ruffled collars or eyelet trim . . . and, like many another TOTS TO TEENS' creations, are widely advertised by the better magazines.

Many are fashioned of Hope Skillman fabrics . . . such as the juvenile prints, the "tiny florals and the striped chambrays . . . but there's a fascinating figured kerinkle crepe, too, if you don't like ironing. Besides these, there are red checks and plain colors . . . including buttercup yellow and all-over white. But sizes run only from 2 to 6, I'm sorry to say . . . both in the gowns and in the soft-as-cambrie, lace-edged panties . . . also by Mary Cheely . . . which add that lingerie touch to her little wardrobe.

But, what's Easter without a soft cuddly bunny to hug? So TOTS TO TEENS SHOP . . . into any ensemble.

602 Main . . . obtained a gorgeous collection of these long-cared lovelies . . . in colored plush and washable types for younger tykes . . . that look as though they stepped right from a story book.

Judy Lynn shirtwaist frocks . . . trim and slimming . . . are in at LONG'S again . . . and the irresistible touch this time are exciting jeweled studs down the front in place of buttons . . . and they're removable.

These dresses have that undated tailored look which make them wardrobe favorites . . . stitched pleating over the hips . . . and the colors are heavenly . . . subtle rose beige, summery coral and aqua, and practical navy. Considering their quality and fabrics . . . I thought the price unusually moderate.

For the Easter gift buyers . . . LONG'S APPAREL, 719 Main . . . has a marvelous selection of newly received hankies.
