

KUHS Students Win Honors

Three Klamath Union high school students were awarded honors in the recent speech contest which was held in Eugene Friday and Saturday. Arlo Schultz, a KUHS junior, received first place in the after dinner speaking division. Arlo took as his subject, "The American Boy."

Scott Reed, senior, and Patrick Wilkins, junior, both placed in the contest. Scott was second place winner in the after dinner speaking with his "Parody on Females." Pat was third in radio speaking. His topic dealt with the "Legend of Wizard Island."

June Bosworth, panel discussion, and Irma McBride, radio speaking, were also among the finalists announced at a banquet held Friday evening after the preliminaries. Students from all over the state participated in this contest.

First place winners spoke over the Corvallis radio station, KOAC, later in the evening. Arlo Schultz will receive a cup for his work and certificates will be mailed to the other two winners.

Car Smash-Up Brings Arrest

Everett S. Ballard, 33, bookkeeper residing at 813 Lincoln, arrested Saturday night for reckless driving and failure to stop at the scene of an accident, posted $500 bail for an appearance in municipal court.

He was involved in a three-car mishap on S. 6th with autos driven by Ed Parkhurst, 740 California, and Royce Lee Weldon, 3237 Cannon. Ballard reported that he attempted to pass a car, misjudged his distance and couldn't get back into the line of traffic before sideswiping the other two cars.

James Young, 51, of 2215 Walnut, involved in an accident with a parked car owned by Robert E. Small, Silver Lake, Ore., Saturday night was cited to appear in court today for driving on the left hand side of the street.

That mishap occurred on E. Main near Wantland.

Bowers Faces Check Charge

TULELAKE, April 15.—B. F. Bowers, 51, is in the Siskiyou county jail at Yreka, Calif., held in lieu of $2000 bail on a charge of issuing checks without funds. Bowers is charged with cashing small checks at business houses here recently and then left for Oregon where he was apprehended on a farm near the Klamath naval air station.

Siskiyou county sheriff's officers, Tulelake police and Klamath county officers, cooperated in the apprehension of Bowers. Edgar West, who broke a plate glass window at the Homestead cafe here Saturday night, agreed to pay $75 for replacement of the glass when he appeared today before Police Judge Irving Capek on a charge of destroying property.

Bob Howell, 41-year-old WRA employee, paid a fine of $15 this morning in answer to a drunk and disorderly charge.

The first medical school in America was established at Philadelphia in 1751.
