

Breakfast

Plans were completed for the annual Eastern morning breakfast by Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, which met on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Drew on Austin street. Mothers of members of the sorority will be guests at this time.

Founders Day, celebrated everywhere by chapters of this sorority will be observed April 30, with a formal banquet to be given in the Pelican party room with both the Tau chapter and Kappa chapter participating.

The passing of the traditional box of candy to the group told of the recent marriage of one of its member, Katherine Kaler, to Eldon C. Phair.

Following an interesting program presented by Phyllis White and Claudia Moore, refreshments were served by the hostess.
