

City Briefs

Returns—PFC Herbert D. Perkins has returned from China. He is a veteran of the South Pacific including the Okinawa campaign. Perkins has served in the United States since this just recently when he was discharged at San Diego. Perkins, his wife and daughter, are making their home here. Mrs. Perkins lived in Klamath Falls while her husband was overseas. He has made his home in this city for 20 years.

Pledged—Two Klamath county students at Oregon State college were pledged to national fraternities on the OSC campus this past week. Jim Ottoman of Malin is a pledge to Lambda Chi Alpha, and Owen Moses, Klamath Falls, to Beta Theta Pi. All but four of the national fraternities are operating their houses this term, and those four were pledging men in preparation to reopening war-closed houses next fall.

In California—Jack L. Robinson, 1433 Derby, left Wednesday on a trip to San Francisco, Long Beach and San Diego where he will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends and relatives. Robinson, who served in the armed forces for 39 months and was a sergeant, has recently returned from Germany and plans to attend Stanford university this fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Robinson of this city.

Trail Men Meet—A. L. Greenwalt, president of the Pioneer Trail association, with his wife and Walter Meacham, executive secretary, will be in this city Friday. Charles R. Stark, manager of the Klamath County chamber of commerce and business manager of the Centennial association has called a meeting for 10 a. m. to discuss trail meeting with the visitors and the association.

Fishing—Chief of Police Orville Hamilton and Charles Whisnant are spending this week salmon fishing at Gold Beach, Curry county.

Senior Circle—As the regular meeting day of the Senior circle falls this year on Good Friday, the meeting has been postponed until April 26.

Malin

MALIN, April 18—A three-act rural comedy, Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek, will be presented Thursday evening, April 25 in the high school gymnasium by the senior class of the high school. A previous presentation will be given the afternoon of the 23rd for students of the elementary school.

The play, written by Beale Cormack, has been staged over 25,000 times and is one of the most popular of stage presentations for high schools. The plot involves the city slicker who is "bested" by an old farmer and the complications are numerous. Herbert Holmes of the high school faculty is coaching. Aaron Slick will be played by George Spolek; Mrs. Wilbur Merridan is played by Leo Libolt; Clarence Green, Jack Lindsay; Gladys May Merridan, Mary Jane Hornbeak; the girl in red, Bobby Victorine (female impersonator); little Sis Briggs, Anna Cacka. Bob Cantrall is stage manager and Barbara Hendrix prompter.

Others appearing on the program are Barbara Hendrix, Mary Ruth May, Margie Spolek, Joyce McDonald, Norma Hawkins and Corky Ellis.

Olene

The many friends of Louis Curtis Gebhardt gathered at Whitlock's chapel to pay their final respects on Friday, April 13, at 3 p. m.

"Curt," as he was affectionately known to all in this and other outlying communities, passed away Wednesday morning, April 10, following a lingering illness of several months in which he had submitted to major surgery four times. He was a man with a friendly and sociable nature and an especial fondness for children and young people which was most certainly reciprocated.

The chapel was filled to capacity with Mr. Gebhardt's many friends and the floral offerings were many and bore silent tribute to the man who will be genuinely missed. The heartfelt sympathy of all friends and neighbors is extended to Mrs. Gebhardt in this hour of bereavement.

Painters Sign Working Pact

A working agreement has been signed by members of the Master Painters association, organized in Klamath Falls last Monday, to enable contracting firms and employees to coordinate a better painting program in the area, it was announced today.

This action was taken at the request of the union which has selected a joint committee composed of contractors and journeymen, to meet problems and settle any differences which may arise.

Jack R. Roper has been elected president of the association with Wilber Gherkin as vice president and Ray Pierce, secretary-treasurer.

Contracting firms which are members of the contractors and journeymen committee include H. E. Brown, Davis Painting company, J. E. Patterson and Son, Ray Pierce, R. E. Simmons, A. E. Smith and Roper and Roper.

Girl Recovering From Body Burns

PIONEER COMMUNITY, April 18 — Carlene Luttrell, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Luttrell of this district, is recovering satisfactorily from serious body burns suffered a short time ago when her clothing caught fire while playing near a bonfire in a neighbor's yard.

The little girl was next door at the Alfred Burton home when her dress was ignited as she approached too close to the bonfire. She started to run home but Mrs. Burton quickly caught the child and smothered the flames by rolling Carlene on the ground. She was brought to a Klamath Falls doctor for treatment. She suffered body and arm burns. The father is an employe of Weyerhaeuser Timber company.
