Alexander; the Misses Alice Davis, Ramona Baker, Hazel Custer, Esther Robinson, Mildred Rice, Bervie Lewey, Wanda Homer, Ramona Homer, June Hershberger, Bonnie June Haney, Pat Hambrick, Betty Joyner, Miriam Webster, and the hostesses.

Refreshments followed the ceremony which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Acklin, Carl Lee McCleery, Mary Lou, Kathleen and Luanna Craig, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, the Rev. and Mrs. Phillips and the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Downey will be at home on the ranch which the groom and his brother-in-law operate.

Betrothal
Of interest here is the recent announcement by Mr. and Mrs. George Baughman of Ashland of the engagement of their daughter, Edith, to LeRoy Real, son of Mrs. Vera Real and the late Martin Real of 112 Wendling, Klamath Falls.

The wedding date has been set for September 15, in Ashland. Miss Baughman was discharged from the Waves in December, and served both in the United States and on Ford Island at Pearl Harbor. Mr. Real saw service with the 104th Timberwolf division and was discharged in November.

Leave Klamath
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tatlow of 401 Laguna, long-time residents of Klamath Falls, left this city today for Rogue River where they will make their home. They have resided in Klamath Falls since 1912. The Tatlows plan to construct a home in Rogue River. Their only daughter, Ella, a former student of Klamath Union high school and Whitman college, is employed in Medford.

Auxiliary
The Eagles auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday evening in the lower FOE hall, 9th and Walnut, with 54 members present. The hall was beautifully decorated for the Easter season.

After the meeting delicious refreshments were served with colored Easter eggs. The next meeting will be held Tuesday at 8 p. m., when there will be initiation of candidates. Officers and drill team will wear formal, also any of the members who wish may wear formal.

Exchange Vows

Beneath an arch of calla lilies, Delpha Herman Bruce and Jack Miller exchanged vows Sunday, April 14.

The informal ceremony was read at the home of the bride's brother, Orville Herman of 819 Rose. The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read the double ring service. Music was provided by Mrs. David Barnett.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of aqua with a white orchid corsage, and for jewelry chose an heirloom cameo necklace belonging to Mrs. Orville Herman, matron of honor.

Mrs. Herman wore a lime green frock with a gardenia corsage. Carol Herman, flower girl, was attired in pink, with a wreath of pink rosebuds in her hair. She carried a small colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Best man was Don Miller, brother of the bridegroom. Present for the ceremony were relatives of the couple and a few close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Herman, and came here from Lompoc, Calif., last January. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller and was recently discharged from the marine corps.

Honored
Mrs. J. D. Evans was honored with a shower Thursday evening, April 4, at the home of Merle Brown, 2007 Homedale road.

Yellow daffodils were arranged about the room. Taking honors in games were Lela Newton, Susie Yacon, Elsie Leaming and Helen Warren. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Peggy Roberts and Merle Brown.

Guests were Mrs. Evans, Ida Martin, Lela Newton, Susie Yacon, Lil Yuncik, Thelma Yuncik, Ethel Overton, Edith Goodwin, Ida Douglas, Mae Wilson, Elsie Leaming, Alberta Adkins, Lula Berry, Helen Warren and Agnes Smart.

Sending gifts but unable to be present were Nadine Robertson, Agnes Thompson and Lillian Derra of Malin, Mary Trulove, Helen Nelson, Shirley Hairrell, Florence DeLap and Priscilla Yacon.
