

Vows Exchanged In Easter Rites

In an afternoon ceremony read in Sacred Heart church, Easter Sunday, April 21, Ida Giovannini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Giovannini of Klamath Falls, exchanged vows with Nello Pieruccini, son of Aladino Pieruccini of McCloud, Calif.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Timothy Casey. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Oreste Giovannini. Her wedding gown was of traditional white satin with a long train, the shadow neckline of fine net trimmed with seed pearls. Her full-length illusion net veil was caught in her hair in a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of cala lilies.

Mrs. Charles Albertoni of McCloud, Calif., sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Her gown was of white net with a lace bodice. Bridesmaids were Beverly Giovannini, niece of the bride, Elinor Sukrow, and Edith Pieruccini, cousin of the groom. They wore identical gowns of white with hodies of satin and skirts of net caught in an applique of silk. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore white net shoulder-length veils with small net crowns. Each carried an old-fashioned bouquet of rosebuds, carnations, sweet peas, and forget-me-nots, and for jewelry wore single strand pearls, which were gifts from the bride to her attendants.

Joyce Pretari, in a gown of white net, was flower girl. She carried a basket of rose petals which she scattered in the aisle before the wedding party.

Best man was Albino Giovannini, brother of the bride, and David D'Olivo, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Wedding music was provided by Elaine Abbott at the organ, with Mary Mahoney singing "Ave Maria."

Mr. and Mrs. Pieruccini received in the parish hall after the ceremony. Over 100 guests attended a dinner in their honor.

They motored to Laguna Beach for their wedding trip, and upon their return, will make their home in Klamath Falls.

The social meeting of Catholic Daughters of America was held in the parish hall Monday evening, April 22. Madeline Mahoney, home on vacation from a singing tour at Las Vegas, Nev., sang three numbers, "Couldn't Say No," "My Blue Heaven" and "I Can't Begin to Tell You." Whist was played during the evening, with awards going to Rose O'Leary and Azita Kennedy, and refreshments were served by Phyllis Mahoney, Jeannette Albee, Clara Heup, Mary Palmer, and Katy Cartry.

Friendship Court

Friendship Court 11 of the Amaranth met in the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, April 17, with Mrs. Charles Eaton, royal matron, and Jack Schulze, royal patron, presiding, and about fifty attending.

Geneva E. Stone, grand lecturer of the grand court of Oregon, from Willamette court 2 at Eugene, was a guest. She was escorted to the throne by the marshal of the west, Ora Gieger, and the marshal of the east, Grace Berman, and seated by the royal matron, and was presented with a gift by the royal matron. Another guest was Lois Hunt, royal matron of Willamette court 2 of Eugene. Both guests spoke briefly to the session. Mrs. Stone congratulated the royal matron and the court for their excellent floor work and said that she would submit a laudatory report to the grand court. Mrs. Hunt spoke of the court at Eugene and also complimented Friendship court.

Four candidates were initiated at this time, Alice Peyton, Liddie Mae Wilson, Patricia Peyton Fairchild and Gertrude Cross. On Saturday evening, May 11, Emma L. Henderson, grand matron of Oregon, and Alton Cummings, grand royal patron of Oregon, will make their official visit to this court, and this will be preceded by a banquet at 6 p. m. Plans were also made for a dinner to be served to the Scottish Rite sometime in May, and Ann Pearce, Rose Jones, Mary Ellen Gaston, Jack Schulze, Ted Reeves and Clem Lundy will serve as members of the committee in charge.

The temple was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and ferns, and refreshments, served following the session by Freda Jackson, Lucille Wirtz, Patricia Henry and Elsie Hecht, were suited to the season of the year.

Rebekah Lodge

Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in regular session in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, April 18, with Ada Willis, noble grand, presiding. Degrees were conferred upon several candidates and 15 members of Merrill lodge attended in a body. Special guests introduced were Henry Anderson, grand patriarch of the grand encampment; Charlotte Martin, past president of LPM; Alma Cofer, conductress of the Rebekah assembly, and Nellie Wattenburg, past president of Rebekah assembly.

An interesting feature of the evening was the awarding of fancy work, and Mrs. Poe of Merrill received the white elephant award. At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by Alice Lawrence, chairman, and her committee.

Arrives from Portland Tuesday

Mrs. William Hopper, (Mary Lou Johnson), and her infant daughter, Roslyn Carol, arrived Tuesday from Portland by train to visit Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson. Roslyn Carol arrived St. Valentine's day and will visit for the first time with her only cousin, Genevieve Ann Nelson, daughter of Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Stuart Nelson (Barbara Johnson), who are at the family home on Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Johnson and her daughters will leave next week for Salem where Mrs. Nelson and daughters will visit briefly at the Carl Nelson home. They will fly from Portland to Corpus Christi, Texas, on May 5.

RECENTLY WED were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taber. She is the former Cora Young, daughter of Harry Young of Cottonwood, Calif., and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Taber of Merrill. They exchanged vows in the First Methodist church on March 27.

Returned

TULELAKE. — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scott whose wedding was an event of Saturday March 30 at Lake City, Calif., have returned here to make their home. The new Mrs. Scott was Lelia M. Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Daniels of Lake City before her marriage. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scott, Tulelake, and the young couple will make their home on the Elmer Scott ranch. He has been recently discharged from the navy.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church.

Going south for the ceremony from here were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scott and daughter Jean, the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Scott and son Lyle, all of Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Porterfield and daughter Doris of Dorris.

Pouring were Joyce Turnbaugh and Fannie Adams, home for the Easter holiday from Stanford and the University of Oregon. The lace-covered table was centered with an arrangement of jonquils.

The next meeting will be May 9.

Shower

A surprise shower was given Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Phil Krizo, 1631 Summers lane, in honor of Nadine Farris. Many lovely gifts were received by the honored guest and later refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Mildred Farris, Mrs. R. E. Downs, Mrs. Winston Stoaks, Mrs. Anita Campbell, Mrs. Harry Kinsey, Mrs. Wallace Turnige, Mrs. Hatie Brown, Mrs. Mary Lou Brewster, Mrs. Helen Taylor, Winnie Downs, Martha Krizo, Wanda Shulmire, Ione Bowman, and Genevieve Lynch.

Miss Farris became the bride of Raymond Edward Downs, Easter Sunday, at Reno, Nev.

The Lady Eagles club met Friday in the lower FOE hall with 20 present. An Easter party was enjoyed and tables were beautifully decorated for the affair. Lunch was served by the hostess, Lorna Groves.

A short business meeting was followed by pinochle with high scores held by Clara LaMoore, Clara Beland, Lucille Aderholt and the guest award by Mable Dale. The next meeting will be May 8.
