

Virginia Andrews Weds On Easter

Before an altar banked with spring flowers and Easter lilies, Virginia Lee Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews of 2430 Garden, became the bride of William C. Misfeldt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Misfeldt of 3332 Boardman, on Easter Sunday, April 21.

The Rev. Hugh Mitchelmore of Peace Memorial Presbyterian church read the double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian church of Klamath Falls.

Sheldon Russell sang "At Dawning" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Mitchelmore.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother-in-law, William C. Nolan. Her gown was of white marquisette and lace with a full train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of white carnations and satin ribbon. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and baby breath. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Hugh Schultz, who wore a gown of pastel pink with a bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Dorothy Gilchrist and Madge McLellan. Miss Gierist wore a floor length gown of blue and Miss McLellan wore yellow. Both carried bouquets of pink carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Misfeldt cut the wedding cake which was served by Mrs. William Nolan. Mrs. Hugh Schultz presided at the punch bowl. Assisting about the room were Dorothy Gilchrist and Madge Nolan.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. C. E. Misfeldt of Eugene, grandmother of the bridegroom, and his aunt, Mrs. John Brown, also of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Misfeldt left for a short wedding trip in the bay region Sunday evening. For traveling, Mrs. Misfeldt chose a green suit with black accessories and a corsage of carnations. They will make their home in Oakdale, Calif.
