

Vows Exchanged At St. Paul's

Easter lilies, palms and bouquets of white stock, formed the setting for the candlelight ceremony on Sunday, April 21, at 5 o'clock when Alice Elizabeth Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finch of Tulelake, became the bride of Charles Stanbro of Oskaloosa, Iowa.

The double ring ceremony was read in St. Paul's Episcopal church by the Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach before 75 guests. Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen played the traditional wedding marches at the organ and Connie Hunt sang "I Love You Truly" and Dorothy Collier sang "Because." Connie wore a green and white floor length frock and Dorothy wore light blue. Both wore small matching caps.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net with bodice and short sleeves trimmed in heavy white braid. She wore long, white gloves and her veil fell from a Juliet cap of net and seed pearls and fell into a long, full train. The bride wore a strand of pearls and carried a white prayer book to which a single orchid was caught by orchid ribbons.

Jean Hilton, the maid of honor, was in blue with a blue cap trimmed in net, and the bridesmaids, Ruth Landry, Jeannie Selby and Mary Ann Mills wore frocks of yellow, white and aqua, all with matching tiny caps. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Little Karen Keller, the flower girl, wore a long dress of blue net with a straw bonnet tied with pink ribbons, and she carried a basket of roses. Ty Keller, ring bearer, wore a white satin blouse and carried the two rings on a white satin pillow. Mrs. Finch, the bride's mother, was in a floor length dress of chartruese trimmed in gold, with a gold necklace and slippers and a matching hat. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Loeth Dunlap was best man, and the ushers were Billy and Dick Lowe.

The parish hall where a reception was held following the ceremony, was beautiful with many bouquets of spring flowers, and bright with candlelight. The three tiered bride's cake, surmounted with a miniature bride and groom, centered the table which was covered with a cloth of white linen. After the bride and groom had made the traditional first cut of the cake, it was served by Mrs. Harry Bathiany and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, and Mrs. Lloyd Leithead poured. Junior hostesses were Lola Whisenant, Marilyn McLellan, and Mrs. C. W. Henry was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanbro left by train Sunday evening for Seattle and other northern cities where they will spend a short honeymoon, returning to Tulelake where they will make their home. Mr. Stanbro, recently discharged from service, returned to this country by plane from India, and will be engaged in business at Tulelake.

Man Seen In Heaven
"I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God," Stephen, an early follower, is speaking, and it was soon after Christ had risen from the grave and ascended back to heaven and to glory.

From all eternity Christ our Lord was one with God the Father, but there came the day when He laid aside His glory to step down among us, taking human birth and living as the Son of Man. By many a kindly deed, He set forth the love and compassion of God, the Father, and at the end He climaxed it by dying under our sins. The third day He arose from the grave to ascend back to His place in glory at the right hand of God the Father. There Stephen saw Him and there He now is, shedding forth all compassion, love and power. He was a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief and it is to Him that we raise our cry when the going is rough.

Prove Him for yourself.—"Casting all your care upon Him for He careth for you." Bible—I Peter 5: 7. Feelings or no feelings, believe God, that Christ died for your sins and name yourself cleared. Now step ahead. Live to the glory of God and lean all your weight on Christ this hour to see you through.
