Winners in the local essay contest sponsored by the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars have been announced by the judges, the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, Joe Hicks, John Houston, Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Karl Urquhart.

They are Vivien Kiernes, 423 1/2 N. 10th, of the Sacred Heart academy, first place; Grayce Van Clave, 3240 Laverne avenue, from KUHS, and third, Mary O'Connor, route 1, box 631, of Sacred Heart academy.

The essay theme was "What Can I Do For My Country?" and was not to exceed 1000 words or be less than 500 words. All high schools in the county were eligible for entry, and the holder of first place in the local contest will have her essay sent to Portland to be entered in the state contest. Last year the first place in the state contest went to a girl from Sacred Heart academy of Klamath Falls, Phyllis Crawford.

Mrs. A. A. Myers, contest chairman, expressed gratitude to the judges for their interest and efforts in making the contest a success.
