

Cascade
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nagel were able to use their boat for the first time since January 12, in crossing from their home to the lodge last week. The lake has been frozen over and while the main body of water has been free from ice for nearly a month, the bays and near the shore line have been covered. Walter Larken is relieving in fields as telegrapher. He took the place of Harvey Dowdy, station agent here, while Dowdy was in Eugene. Larkin is a new telegrapher recently hired by the Southern Pacific company. He recently returned from the south Pacific where he served in the navy. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adkison

Hager
Ruth Golden is back at work for Mallory's market after being absent for a few days. Mrs. Resona and son Maurice are getting nicely settled in their new home on S. 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Maccaffee spent the weekend at Malin visiting relatives there. Mrs. Newell and children are living at the home of her sister and family since her home was burned inside and the furniture destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. Thomas Hess left home Sunday from Fort Lewis, Wash., where he received his discharge from the navy some time ago. He visited with friends near the fort for several days before returning home. Tom is the last usually as well as unseasonably warm day. A porcupine was run over by the train and killed here Sunday.

Fort Klamath
Mrs. Henry Orth reports excellent success in her work as chairman of the local American Red Cross drive in which she was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Zumbro. The quota set for Fort Klamath was $150, and the sum of $194.10 has been turned in by Mrs. Orth to the Klamath Falls office. Mr. and Mrs. Ord Pritchett have returned from a week's trip to Hollister, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hawkins and small son Jerry have also arrived in Fort Klamath from Hollister for the season, and are at their home at the Hawkins ranch. Pritchett is ranch foreman for the Hawkins Cattle company, and also lives on the Hawkins ranch. Mr. and Mrs. John Cauhapa have returned to Fort Klamath after spending the winter in California. Some of their cattle has already arrived here for seasonal pasture at the Hawkins ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vanderpool, employed locally by the Cauhapas, are also back in Fort Klamath at their home at the Hawkins ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Winford Donnelly spent last week visiting relatives in Prineville. During their absence, their daughter Gwendolyn Jane stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hollemann and daughter Ellen. Mrs. Rudolph McInturff was a Klamath Falls visitor on Thursday. George Denton returned home Friday from Klamath Falls where he had been a patient at the Hillside hospital for the past ten days recovering from a major operation. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Schroeder visited here Friday, accompanied by her father. Schroeder recently underwent major surgery in Portland at the Good Samaritan hospital, and they are staying at Mrs. Schroeder's father's home at Modoc Point for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parks of Bend, have purchased the Wood River Auto Court from Charles R. Williams, and are already in possession having moved here last week with their two children Barbara and Bobbie. Williams has operated the business for several years and has no immediate plans for the future except that he plans to remain in Fort Klamath on business for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Coy Puter and children of Klamath Falls spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Van Wormer and son Douglas. The group enjoyed Easter dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wimer and son Donald. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem have returned to their ranch here for the season and expect to receive their cattle soon for spring and summer pasture. Mrs. Fred Bishop was taken to the Hillside hospital on Sunday after suffering a stroke at her home here. She is reported to be improving at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hampton and family of Valsetz, Ore., moved here over the weekend to make their home, having leased the Kenneth Disrude property here. Hampton is employed as timber faller by the Big Lakes Box company, in their local operations. Earl Hall, Shell Oil company dealer of Chiloquin, was a business visitor here on Tuesday. Alfred B. Castel Sr., left by stage Tuesday morning for Portland, and expects to return in a week following a medical check-up. Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKeever have returned from Roseburg, where they spent the winter months. McKeever is employed locally by R. S. Dixon, cattleman.
