

March Rites

In a double ring ceremony held in the Delaware Avenue Baptist church in Erie, Pa., Friday, March 15, Virginia Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pierce of that city, became the bride of Thomas Stuart, son of Mrs. Bernice Storey of Klamath Falls.

Traditional wedding music was played.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of white marquisette with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, and a full-length train. Her finger-tip veil was caught in a crown of orange blossoms. She wore a gold locket, gift of the groom, and carried a white Bible in an arrangement of white carnations and satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Margery Pierce of Erie. She wore a gown of pink net with a fitted bodice and full net skirt, and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Her shoulder-length veil matched her gown.

Bridesmaids were Mary Pierce and Jean Pierce, who wore gowns of yellow. They carried contrasting bouquets of yellow and pink carnations, and each wore shoulder-length veils.

Following the candlelight ceremony the couple received in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart are at home at 1506 Ivory, Klamath Falls.

Wed In South

FORT KLAMATH—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley of Fort Klamath announce the marriage of their daughter Maxine to Hollis Kizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kizer of Brownfield, Tex.

The marriage ceremony was an event of Saturday, April 20, and was performed at the Methodist parsonage at Lubbock, Tex. Attendants of the couple were a brother and sister of the groom.

Mrs. Kizer is a graduate of the Oregon College of Education and it was while attending college at Monmouth that she met her husband, who was at that time stationed at Camp Adair. She taught school at North Bend, Ore., for a year and a half, attended the University of Oregon for a term, and was subsequently employed until her recent marriage in the office of the Fireman's Fund Insurance company in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Kizer went overseas in 1918 and went through both the Philippine and Okinawa campaigns, serving with the U. S. army engineers. He received his discharge from the service recently.

At present, the newly married couple are making their home at Denver City, Tex., where Kizer is employed.

Malin Rites

TULELAKE—In a candlelight ceremony in the Tullake Presbyterian church Saturday evening, April 20, Ruby Stern, Malin, became the bride of Nels Soderlund of Tullake. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Hugh L. Bronson in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple.

The altar was banked with Easter lilies, white stock and white carnations, complemented by many candles.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Dave Bridge with Mrs. Don Webster at the piano sang, Cadman's "At Dawning" and Bond's "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Webster also played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white net over silk and her fingertip illusion net veil was caught with a Juliet cap of the material. She carried an arrangement of lilies and bouvardia.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Irving Capek, wore floor length white crepe with a red rosebud corsage.

Albert Porter, Tullake, was best man.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Soderlund cut a tiered white wedding cake at an informal reception in the Duchess cafe following the ceremony with 50 guests present.

The bride, a resident of Malin, has made her home here for the last three years with Mr. and Mrs. Capek. The groom has lived here since 1935 and has recently been discharged from the service.

They will make their home here.
