

Franey Makes Appeal For Favorable Vote

Police Judge Harold Franey, interviewed on Malcolm Epaley's "Managing Editor's Report" broadcast over KFLW Wednesday afternoon, urged all city voters to fully understand the three municipal measures on the ballot May 17, and to vote for their passage.

Franey declared himself in favor of all three measures, saying that they were very much needed and were the only solution to three of the problems now facing the city.

The first and most important of the measures calls for a mill and one-quarter continuing levy to establish a retirement fund for benefits to city police, firemen and street employees.

That levy would raise approximately $11,472 a year on the city's present assessed valuation. Those employees are not covered by social security.

The second measure before the people calls for a quarter-mill levy for one year to set up a park pavement fund, so the city can defray its part of the costs of paving portions of streets adjacent to city-owned parks.

Another paving project is the basis for the third measure. This calls for a half-mill levy for one year to create a fund to allow the city to go along with private property owners in small paving projects on streets where there are city-owned lots.

The cost of the improvement of streets in front of municipally-owned land would be added to sale price of the lots, recovered on sale of the property and put back into the revolving fund.

Franey stressed that it is the duty of every voter to acquaint himself of the provisions and need for the various measures, then decide for himself whether to vote for passage or rejection.

Woman Posts Bail With City

Frances N. Hanson, 3104 Crosby, who was arrested Tuesday night by city police after she allegedly attacked her husband, Ralph Hanson, and a woman, Della Thomas, with a broken bottle, posted $100 bail with police and is to be in court on a drunk charge this afternoon.

Police Judge Harold Franey said that there was also a possible felony charge involved in the case but that his court could not prosecute the 32-year-old woman for that.

E. D. Driscoll has been retained to defend Mrs. Hanson. Her husband and Miss Thomas were painfully cut around the face and arms by the broken bottle which is held by the police for evidence.

Sam Arden Seybold, Holly hotel, posted $10 bail last night when he was arrested for a violation of the basic rule on S. 6th. He was cited for driving 35 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

William L. Mauldin, Klamath Falls, posted $5 bail for running a red light at 6th and Klamath; Minnie R. Andrien, Midland, posted $5 for a like offense at 9th and Main, and William E. Lewis, 4815 S. 6th, put up $5 for running a stop sign at 7th and Klamath.

Fred Savage, 916 Klamath, owner of a dog picked up running loose yesterday, posted $5 bail and city police say that a $5 assessment will be charged the owner of every dog picked up in the next two months.

Elks Schedule Special Events

Members of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge will be entertained to night, Thursday, during regular lodge session by Bernice Mahan who will do accordion, piano and tap specialties. Last week the lodge was entertained by Katherine Blannas, vocalist, and Beverly Kohn, piano. Mrs. Sherman Carter was Miss Blannas' accompanist.

Next week the Stephen Foster chorus from Altamont school will be presented to the Elks under the direction of Violet Moore.

Modoc Scouts Lead In Membership

The Modoc Area Boy Scout council leads region 11 in membership growth for January and February, 1946, according to a bulletin from the regional office.

Region 11 includes all of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and part of northern California.

The local council has increased its membership in two months by 58 Scouts and 57 Cubs. The Modoc Area council represents seven counties, Klamath, Jefferson, Cook, Deschutes, Lake, Modoc and part of Siskiyou.

Many Attend Homemaker May Fete

The second annual May Day Homemakers festival held yesterday at the First Methodist church drew a large attendance from Klamath and Jackson counties. Home economics students from KUHS and Olive Wilson's Fremont school class attended in a body.

Highlights of the program were talks by F. L. Ballard, associate director of Oregon State college extension service, and Buena Maris, dean of women, OSC; Bob McCarl's roving mike from KFLW and special music from KUHS.

Ten of the 14 county home extension units received standard unit awards, presented by Mrs. Dave Campbell and Mrs. Azalea Sager. Highest award went to Bonanza with Henley unit giving stiff competition. The other eight units receiving awards were Klamath Falls, Shasta - Homedale, Altamont, Fairhaven, Elsie Poe Valley, Olene, Merrill, Malin.

The luncheon program included the invocation by the Rev. Victor Phillips, singing led by Mrs. Earl Mack, welcome by Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, summary of accomplishments, Mrs. Harry Mitchell, talk, Mrs. Azalea Sager, style review; piano interludes by Mrs. Ruby Taber.

Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, Klamath county home demonstration agent gave demonstrations throughout the county during the winter when which exhibits on display at the festival were worked up.

National Home Demonstration week starts Sunday, May 5. The HDA office will display exhibits from county units during the week in downtown store windows.

OPA Blushes At Price-Ups

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—OPA, embarrassed and surprised at industry reports that prices for men's suits are rising, set out today to learn whether it's true.

The agency launched an investigation of prices after removing a restriction which clothing producers claim was blocking delivery to retail stores of from 75 to 80 per cent of suits being made.

"We are astounded, OPA said in a statement last night, 'by trade reports that the new pricing order is causing increases of from 5 to 25 per cent in prices of men's suits.'

This was a reference to a price adjustment made in March. At that time OPA said there would be no general increase in men's suit prices. The agency expected higher prices for some manufacturers, but it said these would be offset by reductions for others.

Thus far there have been few if any reductions, but plenty of increases, according to OPA's industry reports.

Chained to Job

Peter Baker, punch press operator at SKF Industries, Philadelphia, Pa., is literally manacled to his job—and likes it. It's a safety measure which has reduced plant accidents 22 per cent. Shackling device synchronizes movement of the hands with motion of the press. When press descends, cords attached to leather wristbands pull hands out of harm's way if operator doesn't do it quickly enough.

Turkey Output Decline Seen

SALEM, May 2 (AP)—Oregon's turkey production this year, in line with that of other coast states, will be down 40 per cent, largely because of the feed shortage, Noel Bennion, extension poultryman at Oregon State college, said today.

The average reduction nationally will be 25 per cent. The government had suggested that the federal reduction be 15 per cent and the state reduction 17 per cent.

What the drastic reduction means for Oregon turkey growers was explained when Bennion said:

"It will be difficult to regain lost markets and maintain high quality of Oregon breeding flocks with this much reduction."

Bennion said the poultry feed shortage is more acute in Oregon than other areas.

Violence Flares At Picket Line

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 2 (AP)—Outnumbered AFL Cannery Workers sought unsuccessfully today to break a CIO picket line before the Libby, McNeill and Libby cannery, but were beaten off in a brief outbreak of violence.

For a few minutes the street in front of the plant was the scene of a lusty free-for-all before the AFL forces retired to the opposite side of the street and then dispersed. There were black eyes and bruises but no serious injuries.

The picket line remained intact and the plant idle, although the management announced it had produce on hand available for operations.

Nazi Claims Bluff Won

NUERNBERG, May 2 (AP)—Hjalmar Schacht told the international military tribunal today that Britain and France at the Munich conference in 1938 "handed Hitler on a silver platter more concessions than he ever expected to get" and thereby dealt a blow to anti-nazis in Germany.

"At Munich," said Schacht, on the witness stand in his own defense for the third day, "Hitler tried only to get autonomy for Germans in Czechoslovakia. But the allies handed him the Sudeten territories, more than he ever expected to get, on a silver platter."

"This success strengthened Hitler's popularity and weakened the chances of removing him."

He said an emissary from Gen. Franz Halder, chief of the German general staff, told him shortly in advance of the plans to violate Belgium. He said he protested in vain.

He testified that he refused repeatedly to cooperate in any of these Nazi conquests.

Chinese Communists reportedly have seized Lungkiang (1), capital of Heilongjiang province, third major city now held by Communist forces. The Communists occupied Harbin (2) last Thursday and have held Changchun (3), capital of Manchuria, for about 10 days.

British Loan Delay Looms

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—The administration came reluctantly to the conclusion today that it probably cannot force a senate showdown this week on the $3,750,000,000 British loan.

Moreover it faced the possibility of a long delay—while the senate considers draft and OPA extension legislation—if it fails to wrangle a decision early next week.

Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) didn't want to talk about it. But Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the republican whip, told a reporter it is his opinion that "if we don't vote by Monday or Tuesday, it will be a long time before we do."

An administration lieutenant who asked not to be named said there appeared little chance of a decision on any of several postponed amendments this week.

Stassen Declines Bid To Talk Here

An invitation issued to former Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota, to attend a republican rally here this spring, was declined by the well known mid-westerner who advised republicans today that he would not be on the west coast until later in the year when he hoped he would be able to accept the bid.

Wyatt Padgett, publicity chairman for the republican central committee, said today that Stassen advised him of his plans to be in this section later. Padgett said the date of the republican rally would be announced in the future.

Dock Workers Idle As Talks Continue

PORTLAND, Ore., May 2 (AP)—U. S. Labor Conciliator Oliver Goodwin reconvened representatives of CIO Cargo Checkers and Waterfront employers again today as the Columbia river harbor tie-up became four days old.

Loading and unloading has virtually halted in all Oregon and southwest Washington ports since the Monday cancellation of the CIO Supercargo and Checkers union contract with the Waterfront Employers association here.

Many County Lakes Open To Anglers

PORTLAND, May 2 (AP)—Many lakes and streams exempted from the general April trout season opening will be opened to anglers May 11.

Among the favorite fishing waters to open then are Square, Long, Round, Booth, Wasco and Cabot lakes in Jefferson county; most Klamath and Deschutes county lakes; some lakes in Lane, Linn and Marion counties.

Forgers Wanted Here Caught In Omaha

Two sisters, Nora and Gladys Jones, wanted here for forging and passing bogus checks, have been apprehended in Omaha, Neb., and are held in custody there for the local sheriff's office.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Franey said today that he is preparing extradition papers and that the two girls will be returned here to stand trial.

They are said to have forged checks amounting to about $300, signing the name of a local firm, and passed the checks at various stores. One of the girls worked in Klamath Falls for a time.

Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN, 3 — The first class play to be given in four years was staged here last Friday by the junior class of Chiloquin high school.

"Here Comes Charlie" is a three-act farce dealing with the trials of a young bachelor who inherits a pretty young hill-billy, as well as her deceased father's elderly partner. The play directed by Joe H. Stewart, principal of the Chiloquin schools, was exceptionally well cast.

Members of the cast were Mary Monks, Ray Severson, Jayne Flury, Remo Minato, Duane Matt, Bonnie Gienger, Dean Barker, Elvera Erickson, Dean Greear, and Marie Joyce DuBois, who had the title role.
