

Fort Klamath

FORT KLAMATH — Mrs. Edith Moon has returned to Fort Klamath and is again employed by Win and Marcus Brewer as their housekeeper. Mrs. Moon has been in Bly for some time with her daughter, Mrs. R. O. Varnum, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hughes are the parents of twin daughters, born April 22 at Lakeview, where Hughes is employed in the forest service. The twin girls weighed 5 pounds 10 ounces and 5 pounds 11 ounces and have been named Rose Marie and Rosa Lee. Mrs. Hughes is well known here, and before her marriage was Marie Loosley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, pioneer Wood River valley residents.

The community was shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of Mrs. Amelia ("Molly") A. Ballou on Thursday afternoon, April 25, at 3 p. m. at her home here. Although Mrs. Ballou had been in ill health for several years, her death was unexpected, and followed a stroke of apoplexy at 1 o'clock, while conversing with Mrs. Earl Jackson, employed by Mrs. Ballou in her general store here which she has owned and operated for years. She had been a resident of Fort Klamath for the past 22 years, and is survived by her husband, Raymond S. Ballou.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m. at Whitlock's chapel in Klamath Falls, following which the remains were shipped to Grants Pass for interment in the family plot. Many old friends and neighbors were in attendance at the final rites in Klamath Falls on Sunday.

Fred Hollemon and Eldon Kookan started last week on the log haul for Joe Ortis from the site of his logging operations on Sun mountain to the dumping place at Agency lake. The logs have been contracted by McCollum's mill.

The Big Lakes Box company logging operations got in full swing this week when a full day crew started to work and the hauling of logs to the Williamson river landing was begun on Monday. The fallers have been busy cutting timber for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zumbun, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumbun and son Billie attended the Red Bluff rodeo over the weekend, returning here Monday.

Marvin "Cap" Noah returned Monday to Brownsville, Ore., after visiting here for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Noah. He was accompanied on the trip by his two nieces, Gladys and Vera Noah, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Noah of Brownsville, who enjoyed a visit here with their grandparents.

Charles R. Williams left Friday for Prineville to visit with his daughter, Mrs. John Dahler and family. He plans to return here soon before leaving for Prineville to make his home permanently.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clyde Horsley whose grandfather Mr. Dave of Medford passed away on Sunday morning. Mrs. Horsley and Chandelie are in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dave, where they will remain until after funeral services.

Harry Brown is now home after receiving a discharge from the seaboard where he spent the past several years.

A survey of health conditions among the Zuni Indians showed that the tribe was in extremely poor health.

Langell Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Malone and family, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Noble, Hazel and Edith Gift and Martin Gift went to the rodeo at Red Bluff over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn of Klamath Falls spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick Noel and daughter of Klamath Falls visited on Sunday with the Frank Bramwells and the Leavitts.

Mrs. Ray Marchant and three children spent last week in Klamath Falls at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones.

Neil Grohs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grohs has been given his discharge from the navy after many months overseas. He arrived home Thursday. Lawrence Revell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Revell is also home after receiving his discharge from the coast guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Smith enjoyed a wiener roast on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Ross and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Randall and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Campbell and Deanne and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Oberheide and Linda all were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potuck and Bobby Joe.

Mrs. Frank Babcock spent several days in Klamath Falls last week.

Joe Roads made a business trip to Boise last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family spent Easter Sunday at Midland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pinelli.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Pearl Botens whose husband passed away last week. Bonnie Fernland will entertain the guild of St. Barnabas church at the parish hall on May 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple received a cablegram from their son Dick that he arrived in Manila on April 19.
