Chilcote Sons Join Company

New blood has been added to the 36-year-old Chilcote real estate firm, 111 N. 9th, with the return from service of William E. Chilcote, former navy ensign, and the addition of Robert B. Chilcote six months ago.

Both young men have been recently married. William to the former Madge Conaway and Robert to the former Peggy Rakestraw. The William Chilcotes live at 2520 Darrow and the Robert Chilcotes at 4636 Boardman.

Ed Chilcote, father of the boys, started the firm 36 years ago in the old American hotel building where Klamath Billiards now stands. In 1911 George H. Rice joined him and the real estate and insurance firm was known for several years as Chilcote and Rice.

In 1918 David M. Smith came over from the Willamette valley and bought a half interest. This partnership continued for 22 years until Smith retired about five years ago and moved to Amity.

The firm still operates under the name of Chilcote and Smith.

Mercury Skyrockets To 91 At Medford

PORTLAND, May 3 (AP)—The mercury soared to a sticky 91 degrees at Medford for the state's high yesterday, and all western Oregon was sun-bathed, the weather bureau said today.
