

Card's Musial Puts Redbirds Back Into Tie

By The Associated Press
Judging from the way Stan Musial has been renewing acquaintances with his pitching "cousins," the St. Louis Cardinals slugging outfielder may become the first big leaguer to attain a .400 batting mark since 1941 and the first National leaguer to reach those heights in 16 years.

The 25-year-old ex-gob, who interrupted a brilliant career to join the navy at the end of the 1944 season, quietly has been mauling enemy hurlers for 27 hits in 65 appearances at the plate to compile a batting mark of .415.

Musial got six hits yesterday as the Cards gained an even split with Boston's Braves and moved into a first place tie with Brooklyn in the National race. His trio of safeties in the opener helped give the Cards a 7-2 decision and Lefty Max Lanier his fourth victory without defeat. The Braves, with big Mort Cooper holding his former mates to 10 well scattered blows, turned the tables in the nightcap 10-4.

Another former Redbird with Boston, outfielder Johnny Hopp, got six hits for the day, two of them home runs in the nightcap as Boston Manager Billy Southworth got an even break in his first series in St. Louis.

Bucs Down Dodgers
Pittsburgh knocked the Dodgers out of undisputed first place by sweeping a doubleheader before an overflow crowd of 37,953. A pinch single by Jimmy Brown scored Jack Barrett for an 11th inning triumph in the opener. Another timely hit, by Frankie Gustine in the sixth, brought a 4-3 victory in the nightcap, halted by Pennsylvania's curfew law.

Rip Sewell, who hurled the first nine innings of the opener for Pittsburgh, was taken to a hospital suffering from a gastro intestinal upset. Pittsburgh's double victory put the heretofore disappointing Bucs in a fourth place tie with the Chicago Cubs.

Huge Ernie Bonham made his 1946 Yankee pitching debut a success by whipping the Chicago White Sox 4-2 before 33,938. It was the Yankees' fifth straight victory.

Hank Hits One
Detroit's losing streak soared to seven until Hank Greenberg snapped the string by belting a homer and then setting off a two-run rally with a single to give the Tigers a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia. The Athletics copped the opener 10-2 as Bojo Newsum notched his third victory.

Hal Schumacher of the New York Giants proved he still can beat the Reds when he out-pitched Johnny Vander Meer 3-2.

Retriever Club

With the organization of the Klamath Retriever club last week and the possibility that field trials will be held here next fall, interest in real sport hunting takes another swing upward in this area.

A good trained retriever is a valuable companion on a hunting trip, a thing of beauty to watch work also with a good dog the master is sure of locating the birds he knocks down.

From a humanitarian standpoint it lessens the chance that a crippled or winged bird will get away in the brush to suffer and die, doing neither the hunter, the bird or the sport any good.

Members of the Portland Retriever club have offered to come down this fall and help put on getting the field trials started. Approximately 30 dog owners and sportsmen got together to organize the local club, so with that many hunters interested there will probably be some outstanding dogs developed here.

Klamath county and southern Oregon is one of the best bird hunting areas in the country and the interest in retrievers should be a great help to sportsmen who want to get the most enjoyment out of hunting.

L. P. Montgomery was chosen president of the club; Dick Morgan, vice president; Jack Hale, Harold Van Hoosen and Wallace Uerlings, directors, and Dr. F. Cecil Adams, secretary-treasurer.

Anyone wishing to join the club, get any information about the organization or the proposed field trials here, or about hunting dogs generally, can contact any of those men.

The next meeting of the Retriever club will be announced in The Herald and News.

HR 6062, or the Rivers and Harbors Anti-Pollution bill, has been passed by the house of representatives and is now before the senate in Washington. That's a measure considered most important by Isaac Walton leagues here and elsewhere and the sportsmen are bucking for swift passage by the senators.

Seals Emerge From Series Still Leading PCL Pack

By The Associated Press
With the luck of an Irish manager, San Francisco's Seals emerged today from their worst setback of the season leading the pack by two and one-half games in the Pacific Coast baseball league.

The league's northern teams split a doubleheader, with Portland taking the opener, 5 to 0, and Seattle scoring a 5-2 victory with three runs in an extra eighth inning of the second game. Seattle's win was Joe Demoran's first in eight games after he got into the line-up earlier this season by hurling a no-hit game.

Once-potent Portland, 1945 pennant winner, remained in the cellar, with Seattle the club to overtake to climb out. The series went to Seattle, four games to three.

This week San Francisco plays at Sacramento, Seattle at Oakland, Portland at Los Angeles and Hollywood at San Diego. The series opens Tuesday, except at Los Angeles, where a twin-bill begins the proceedings Wednesday.

Bend Skier Cops Senior Slalom
PORTLAND, Ore., May 6 (AP)—Gene Gillis of Bend, University of Oregon football player, whipped down Mount Hood's slopes yesterday to win the senior men's division of the giant slalom race.

He turned in the fast time of 2:30.8 for the approximately two and a quarter mile 40-gate course.

Following him in 2:38 was Burt Jensen, little Kandahar Ski club of Salt Lake City, and in a tie for third were Bill Bowes, Cascade Ski club and Dick Cochran, Timberline Lodge Ski school, at 2:40.

The women's division went to Gretchen Fraser, Vancouver, Wash., in 2:39.6. She was followed by a trio of Portlanders: Alama Hansen, Ann Volkman and Maryann Hill.

Four skiers were injured with Ida Darr, suffering a fractured leg, the most serious.

Crater Lefty Sets Down Klamath, 8 To 3

Left-hander Ted Bergold of the Medford Craters handcuffed the Klamath Sons with five hits at Medford yesterday afternoon and the local boys lost their first serious start of the season 8 to 3.

The Craters garnered 11 hits off Jim Olsen, including four doubles. Bergold started off bad but got better as he went along. In the first inning Klamath scored twice when Brooks doubled to center, scoring them both.

Then in the second frame the Craters tied the score on two walks, a sacrifice, a single into center, an error and a passed ball. Three more runs came across for the Craters in the third on five hits and a walk.

Klamath didn't score again until the fifth when Durocha walked, Georges popped a fly to Bergold who dropped the ball, Brooks walked, filling the bases, and Pisan hit a bouncer over the box, scoring Durocha. Pisan was thrown out at first, Miller fanned and Golbar filed out, ending the short-lived rally.

Scoring Chance Muffed
Another scoring chance was muffed in the final frame when the Sons were five tallies behind. Olsen walked, Pastega singled to center, Durocha filed to left and Darrow, running for Olsen, was doubled off second. Georges walked and was forced at second by Brooks' grounder.

Olsen was wild all afternoon but was effective in stretches. He got the third strike past seven Medfords and walked six. Bergold fanned four and walked three.

Batting honors of the day went to Virgil Swanson, Crater outfielder, who hit two doubles and a single in three official trips. Steve Crippen of the Craters got a double and a single, as did Alex McDonald, third baseman.

For the Sons Brooks and Miller hit doubles. Score by Innings R. H. E. Klamath 200 010 000—3 5 1 Medford 023 100 02x—8 11 2

Mat Favorites Set For Bouts

This week's raffle card is notable for the return of two very great favorites to the local mat. Jumping Joe Lynam is coming back to meet Tony Ross in a main event, six-round bout, and Bucko Davidson returns to fight Bob Keneston in another full-length tiff.

Mad Mike Nazarian, colorful and popular Hungarian grappler, is slated to scuffle with Angelo Martini in the four-round opener.

Buck Davidson is an example of a guy taken with wanderlust, but he always shows up in Klamath Falls when the fishing or hunting gets good. He was last here during the 1945 duck season. Davidson has been in Arizona and points south for the past few months.

Richardson said he has advised Rufus Klawans, Pacific coast pro league president, that the Portland franchise is open to any person or group willing to finance the team.
