

CIO Has Mixed Luck In Vote

By The Associated Press
 Nearly complete returns today gave Senator James W. Huffman victory over three opponents for the democratic senatorial nomination in Tuesday's Ohio primaries, including a CIO-PAC endorsed candidate who finished third.

In the Alabama democratic primary, second leading ground of the union group's political influence, two CIO-PAC choices led their fields and a third trailed.

With a few exceptions, incumbent congressmen were renominated in the four states voting—Ohio, Alabama, Indiana and Florida.

Huffman had a margin of more than 25,000 votes over his nearest opponent, former Rep. Stephen M. Young, with about 90 per cent of Ohio's precincts counted. Another 16,000 back came Marvin O. Harrison, attorney supported by the CIO-PAC. Edward A. Hutch was a distant fourth.

Huffman Versus Bricker
 Huffman's rival in the November election will be former Governor John W. Bricker, republican vice presidential nominee in 1944, who was unopposed for his party's senate nomination.

In the other senatorial primary—Florida—former Governor Spessard L. Holland polled a majority over the combined vote of three opponents and won the democratic nomination, assuring him of election in the fall. He will succeed Senator Charles O. Andrews, retiring because of ill health.

In one of the two gubernatorial primaries, James E. (Big Jim) Folsom, war veteran supported by the CIO-PAC, led Alabama's Lt. Gov. Handy Ellis, but neither was close to a majority in the five-man field. They will engage in a run-off June 4.

Ohio's democratic governor, Frank L. Lauche, piled up a landslide renomination victory over Joseph Torek Jr., politically unknown grocery worker of Youngstown. Former Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert won the republican nomination easily from Albert E. Payne, Springfield manufacturer.

CIO Man Leads in Alabama
 Rep. Luther Patrick of the Birmingham, Ala., district, endorsed by the CIO-PAC, trailed Laurie Battle, war veteran and political newcomer. Rep. Albert Rains of the fifth Alabama district, also supported by the union group, led former Rep. Joe Starnes. Alabama's seven other representatives were renominated.

Rep. Pat Cannon of Miami was snowed under by George A. Smathers, 32-year-old ex-marine, as Florida nominated four other congressional incumbents.

Six republican congressmen from Indiana who had opposition were renominated, including Rep. Charles Halleck, chairman of the house republican campaign committee.

In Ohio incumbent George Bender of Cleveland defeated Norman A. Imrie, former newsman of Columbus, for the republican nomination for congressman at large.

The other 22 Ohio congressmen, 17 republicans and five democrats, either had been renominated or were running ahead.
