

Party Honors Mrs. Kafer

Mrs. Fred Kafer Jr., national Girl Scout field advisor, was honor guest at a party Thursday evening, May 2, in the Episcopal church parish.

Attending the affair were leaders, assistant leaders, troop committee members, council members, and adults interested in Scouting.

Mrs. Kafer spoke to the group on the association plan. She returned to her home in Medford Saturday following a two-day visit here. She came to Klamath Falls from her headquarters in Seattle.

Party tables were decorated in pink and green with sprays of spring blossoms about the room. Refreshments were served and games were played.

On the committees were Mrs. Dean Osborn, decorations; Florence McConahey and Mrs. Roy Carter, entertainment; and Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, Mrs. Paul Tanner, and Mrs. James Pinniger.

Attending were Mrs. Kafer, Mrs. Rollin Thomas, Mrs. James Pinniger, Mrs. Francis Watkins, Mrs. Lottie M. Miller, Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mrs. Kit Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch, Mrs. William Bond, Mrs. Gertrude Pruitt, Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. Paul Horn.

Mrs. Stanley Ellsmore, Mrs. Jack Elliott, Mrs. H. R. Burritt, Mrs. Hans Frei, Mrs. Frank Lambo, Mrs. William Bryan, Mrs. G. E. Mathews, Mrs. R. Feoco, Mrs. Fred Hayford, Mrs. V. R. Toombs, Mrs. Elsie Hayden, Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, Mrs. Dean Osborn, Mrs. Maye Wells, Mrs. Lowell Kaup, Mrs. Helen Hardin, Mrs. Paul Tanner, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Florence McConahey, and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

May Day Tea

Members of Brownie troop 28 of Altamont elementary school honored their mothers and teachers with a pink tea on Wednesday, May 1.

Decorations followed a May Day theme. Assisting the girls were their leaders, Mrs. Gertrude Pruitt, Mrs. Paul Horne, and Mrs. Francis Davis.

On the program were Sheryl Metler and Joan Thorn, piano solos, Jewell Rodgers and Shirley Roberts, violin duet, and Nancy Pruitt, who danced, accompanied by Mrs. B. V. Yaden. Sharon Davis presented an acrobatic routine.

Hand painted plaques made by the girls were given to the mothers present.

Troop committee members who assisted in serving were Mrs. Stanley Ellsmore and Mrs. Wilford Shulmire.

Twenty-one members of the troop will fly up in a special ceremony and receive their wings on Friday, May 10.

Ceremony

In a ceremony read Sunday, May 5, in the First Methodist church of Klamath Falls, Cora Mae Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coke of Bly, became the bride of Norman Conner of Shoshone, Idaho.

The Rev. Victor Phillips read the ceremony. Attending the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nickleson.

The bride wore a white suit, with white accessories, and a shoulder corsage of carnations and gardenias.

Present for the ceremony in addition to the wedding party were Mr. and Mrs. John Toner of Wier, Idaho; Ernest Coke, Wanda Brewer, Wadene Jenkins and L. Seymour.

A dinner was held at Lucca's cafe in honor of the couple. Following a wedding trip in Idaho, they will make their home in Los Angeles.

Recital

Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore will present her piano pupils in recital Friday evening, May 17, at Altamont Junior high school.

A program of solos and duo piano numbers will be given, with violin numbers played by a pupil of Harry Borel. The program will be announced later. Friends are cordially invited.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

LITTLE BOBBY is the 14-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard of 2331 Radcliffe.
