

Reds' Conference Stand Termed 'Veto' Against Expression Of Opinion

PARIS, May 10 (AP)—Russian insistence on full agreement among the big four before calling of a European peace conference was described in today's session of the foreign ministers as a "veto on permitting the nations which took part in the war to express their views" on the treaties, a British source said.

Eastern Star To Entertain At Tulelake

TULELAKE, May 10—Mrs. Isabella Harrison Hillditch, worthy grand matron of the OES in California with other grand officers will visit the Tulelake chapter Saturday night. Mrs. Hillditch is from Long Beach and this is the first time in the history of the local chapter that a worthy grand matron has visited here.

In her honor a pageant depicting the history of the Tulelake basin from the time of the Modoc Indians to the founding of the Tulelake OES chapter the meeting to be open to the public. The epic poem upon which the pageant is based was written by Mrs. George Fischer, Tulelake, who will read for the participants. Mrs. Fischer, one time member of the Tulelake high school faculty has been a resident of Tulelake for six years and is well known in the history of this region.

Mrs. Esser will be organist. Doris Schindler will play the violin obligato. Mr. and Mrs. E. Webb Staunton will assist and the vocalist will be Mrs. Edgar Osborne.

Modocs will be played by Mrs. Ival Wolfe and Mrs. W. B. Moore; old pioneers by Mrs. Creighton Rudesill and Mrs. Floyd Boyd; new homestead pioneers, Mrs. C. J. Main and Mrs. L. W. Hartley; founders of the Tulelake OES, Mrs. Pete Fisher and Mrs. Otis Roper and present day OES, Mrs. George Reiben and Mrs. W. C. Golden.

A banquet at 8:30 o'clock, served by the Guild of the Tulelake Presbyterian church, will precede the meeting and pageant, all events to be held in the church annex. It is expected that the pageant will be presented at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hagerly, worth patron and worthy matron of the Tulelake chapter will preside.

Matron Passes

Mrs. Frances Mackey, 74, beloved Klamath Falls matron and mother of Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns, 745 Pacific Terrace, died at Hillsdale hospital at 12:35 a. m. Friday following a one-week's illness.

Mrs. Mackey was born Frances Cornelia Gildart on June 1, 1871, in Austin, Texas, member of a pioneer Texas family. She taught in the Texas schools for a number of years following her graduation from San Marcos State college and Miss Black's Conservatory of Music, both in Austin.

Her husband, George Mackey, died a number of years ago in Colorado Springs, Colo., and 13 years ago Mrs. Mackey came here to make her home with Dr. and Mrs. Stearns. The greater portion of her life was spent in Texas and Colorado. With the exception of a number of winters which she spent in Los Angeles and Texas with her family, Mrs. Mackey has resided here where she has made a host of friends.

Mrs. Mackey devoted much of her later years to her two grandchildren, Ralph and Frances Stearns. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Stearns, and the grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. Edna Dietel of San Antonio, Tex., Mrs. Eva Pressler of Austin, Tex., Mrs. A. R. Wallace of Calexico, Calif., and three brothers, Lee, Thomas and Woodrow Gildart of Austin, Tex.

Mrs. Mackey was a member of the Methodist church. Final rites will be conducted at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow, Saturday, from the Earl Whitlock Funeral home chapel with the Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church officiating. Interment will take place in the family plot in Austin, Texas. Friends are invited to attend the service in the morning.

This is a color and sound film made up of two 30-minute reels. Anyone interested in navy service is cordially invited to attend. There is no charge. Recruiting officers will be present to answer any questions.

Marooned Eskimos Taken Off Island
ANCHORAGE, Alaska, May 10 (AP)—The seven Eskimos marooned on the ice off Stewart island near Nome, have all been rescued safely, an army rescue plane reported yesterday.

The Eskimos, seven hunters, were adrift without a boat, but apparently made their way to the island. The plane reported it dropped two cases of emergency rations to the men.

Scouts Leave For Lava Beds

Local Boy Scouts were busy taking care of last-minute details at noon today, when most local troops were leaving for the council-wide camporee to be held this weekend at the Lava Beds national monument.

Some 300 Scouts from the seven counties in the Modoc area council are expected to take part.

After setting up camp, the festivities will officially begin with dinner tonight, Friday, and the campfire at 8 p. m. While there the boys will explore the territory around their camp, with patrol leaders appointed to assist the leaders. A camp fire will also be held Saturday night.

Sunday observances will be held at 8:30 a. m. with the Rev. Hugh Bronson of the Community Presbyterian church of Tulelake conducting the Protestant service, and the Rev. Father John Phelan of Sacred Heart church, chaplain of troop 16, saying the Catholic mass.

The camporee will close with a special closing ceremony at Capt. Jack's stronghold. There Scoutmasters' certificates will be presented to more than 25 leaders, and young Hugh Wilson of Tulelake will receive his Eagle award, the highest award in Scouting. He is one of five Eagle Scouts in the Modoc council.

County Precincts Get Ballot Supply

Ballot boxes, ballots and tally sheets for the May 17 primary, have been delivered to most of the precincts in the county, Sheriff Lloyd L. Low said today, and this afternoon the sealed boxes are being taken to the precincts in the Altamont and Shasta way areas.

Tomorrow Deputy Sheriff Marion J. Barnes will make the deliveries in Langell valley and that will wind up the county precincts.

Boxes for city precincts will be delivered the day before the election.
