

A LOVELY BRIDE of Sunday, May 5, was Christina Demetrakos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Demetrakos of Klamath Falls. She exchanged vows in a ceremony read in St. Paul's Episcopal church with Charles Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Metz of Ashland, formerly of this city.

Church Rites

At a ceremony Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, Iris Fae Bradbury became the bride of John Henry Slezak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Slezak of Malin. The Rev. Hugh Bronson of Tulelake performed the double ring ceremony. Before the ceremony, "At Dawning" was sung.

Marie Obenchain played the wedding music. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clayton Bradbury of this city and was given in marriage by her father. She wore a pink afternoon dress with navy lace straw hat and carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and white carnations.

Mrs. Louis Spence was her sister's only attendant. She wore a pale blue with white hat, veil and accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Gregg Brooks was best man and ushers were Louis Spence, and George Crowthers.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. C. W. Smith in charge of the punch table and Mrs. A. Z. Brown of Dallas serving the cakes, assisted by Mrs. H. T. Landrum, Mrs. B. W. Smith, Mrs. William Kroepflin of Dallas and Janice McCollum. Mrs. Frank Hamilton was in charge of the many gifts.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton and Sally, Mr. and Mrs. William Kroepflin, all of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Theo Taylor and Mrs. S. C. Cleveland of Medford, all relatives of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Slezak spent their honeymoon in Medford and are later making an extended visit in California.

IRIS FAE BRADBURY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clayton Bradbury of this city, became the bride of John Henry Slezak in a ceremony read last Sunday in the First Presbyterian church.

Vows Exchanged At St. Paul's

Exchanging vows in a candlelight ceremony read in St. Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday evening, May 5, were Christina Demetrakos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Demetrakos of 1531 Main, and Charles Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Metz of Ashland, formerly of this city.

The Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach read the ceremony. The bride wore a fitted gown of white satin fashioned with long sleeves, her net veil was fingertip length, caught in a princess crown. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a single purple orchid.

Maid of honor was Josephine Thorton, who wore a floor-length gown of white with full net skirt and lace bodice. She wore a close-fitting crown with a white carnation on either side and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

Maid of honor were Anita Carnini, Mrs. Cornelius Olivera and Mrs. A. F. Petersteiner. They wore identical gowns of pink or blue with lace bodices and net skirts. Their tiny caps were trimmed with carnations matching their gowns, and each carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

Best man was Lee Metz, brother of the bridegroom. Dick Tomlin, Bob Burke and Dick Low were ushers.

A reception in the church parish followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Metz cut their decorated wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Jack Linman. Pouring were Mrs. A. C. Stockstill and Mrs. A. Petersteiner. Carnations decorated the room.

Following a two-week wedding trip in southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Metz will reside in Ashland.

Langell Valley
LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Bonnie Fernland entertained the guild of St. Barnabas church at the parish hall on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was conducted by Virginia Thomas, president. Sewing and a social time was enjoyed with delicious refreshments served at 4:30 to Bobbette Gift, Madge Monroe, Joan Marchant, Virginia Thomas, Eva Roberts, Maxine Brown, Alma Embrey and the hostess.

The next meeting of the guild will be held June 6 at the home of Joan Marchant.

LANGELL VALLEY — The bridge club enjoyed a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Dearborn of Klamath Falls on May 7, when Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. Charles Revell, Mrs. Malcolm Teare and Hazel Morrison entertained the group.

Following the delicious luncheon which included tamales, the ladies enjoyed bridge with Mrs. Lloyd Gift winning first prize, Mrs. Lloyd Pepple, second high and Mrs. Owen Pepple the traveling score.

Those enjoying the affair were Mrs. Frank Babcock, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Frank Pepple, Mrs. Mary Leidy, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Lloyd Pepple, Mrs. Paul Monroe, the hostesses, Mrs. Teare, Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. Revell and Miss Morrison.

Playfully Pretty

are the new two and three-piece play suits that have come in at WHYTAL'S, where the sportswear department is simply jammed with vacation togs of all types.

Best liked by Martha were the splashy figured silk jersey outfits . . . resembling the classic shirtwaisters in appearance . . . so that when you don the over-skirt it looks like a casual frock . . . that can be worn on the street or in the office. These would be excellent for cool, comfortable traveling, too . . . when you're vacation-bound.

Another jersey play suit WHYTAL'S is showing is a three-piece . . . with mid-riff top and short box-pleated skirts to wear under the skirt . . . in gay summer colors.

If it's white you prefer . . . there are the dainty two-piece twill suits . . . smartly designed and trimmed in gay embroidered bands.

WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Central building . . . Main at Ninth . . . has plenty of the easily laundered cotton play-suits, too . . . such as neat prints with sun-back tops . . . ruffled chambrays and sections . . . sizes 10 through 20 . . . that double nicely for house dresses on warm days.

is the name of the new metal perfume atomizers . . . which have arrived at CURRIN'S . . . and which are made especially for carrying in your handbag . . . as they absolutely won't leak. With graduation coming up . . . Martha recommends one of these as a mighty acceptable, inexpensive gift for a sweet girl graduate . . . because it's indispensable as her lipstick.

By depressing a button in the top, either a single drop of perfume or a light spray is released . . . whichever you prefer. These atomizers come in three striking colors . . . topped in gold . . . and sell for only $2.95, plus tax . . . at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS . . . corner of Ninth and Main.

The Frigidaire

display . . . which has recently been completed at the CASCADE HOME FURNISHINGS CO. . . headquarters for Frigidaire appliances at 124 No. Fourth . . . is certainly well worth seeing, despite the difficulty in filling orders . . . because then we'll know what we're going to get eventually!

Besides, Manager Vern Owens will be glad to tell you of the new improvements which General Motors is putting on Frigidaire's streamlined ranges, electric refrigerators and other furnishings for kitchen or laundry.

Another shipment of water heaters . . . both in the large and smaller tanks . . . has arrived at CASCADE FURNISHINGS . . . ready for installation.

Travel sets of man-tailored, smartly striped pajamas in a wonderfully washable material and with matching, belted robe are a requisite for the miss with a wanderlust.

Summer Cottons were that are alluringly lovely were just being unpacked when Martha was shopping at LONG'S this week . . . and the Hope Skillman gingham included in this selection were mighty perky.

Among these are three outstanding styles . . . colorful two-piece checks with square neckline and a double peplum effect . . . animated plaids, also in two-piece style, set off by a white deiey front . . . and intriguing sun-back frocks in pastel checks with short jackets.

Other new arrivals are gay Oriental print jerseys . . . striped cottony silks that have bras and shorts for play . . . classic Shantung in vivid shades, dressed up with striped linen jackets. In addition, LONG'S APAREL . . . 719 Main . . . has many other play suits . . . from shorts and bras to sunback frocks . . . in stock.

"Spring-Up"

is the eye-catching, introductory package of a new, superior nail polish . . . being introduced by "Sunrose House" . . . and now being featured at the cosmetics bar at MILLER'S . . . in shades to match this line's creamy-moist, jeweled-toned lipsticks.

The nail polish . . . with its air-light consistency, wide coverage and riot of sparkling colors . . . goes on like a charm . . . as Miss Dolys Varden, "Sunrose House" demonstrator, showed Martha during her visit to the store this week. It dries almost instantly . . . leaving your nails satin-smooth and gleamy. And it stays well . . . and lasts long!

The Spring-up package of lipstick and polish is a $1.75 value for only $1.00 . . . at MILLER'S, 512 Main . . . while the individual polish is 75 cents . . . and comes in Rio Red, Rosa Petal, Madador, Mar Rosegino, Pink Magnolia and Red Regno.

Fact is, THE TOWN SHOP has practically everything for play-time . . . and 'twould take too long to mention all . . . but I did find a dandy choice of pedal-pushers . . . those comfortably short trousers the teeners have taken to . . . in sturdy denim, checked, wool and part wools, white twill and other cottons . . . in sizes from 9 to 18.

As for swim suits at THE TOWN SHOP, Main and Fifth . . . well, there's a perfectly gorgeous array of the figure-molding, bare midriff types . . . with floating bra . . . and I thought the printed jersey suits and water swimms more glamorous than ever . . .

is that divine looking dress . . . with the new waist that molds to your figure . . . you've been seeing in current issues of several outstanding women's magazines . . . and which Martha found is available here at LAPOINTE'S.

The price alone is tempting . . . but added to that is the apron-style wrap-around that have been shown in many magazines lately . . . and Gantner's Wickles, an all-wool bra-and-trunk suit that's available in numerous colors . . . at LEONS, 525 Main.

Sheaffer Pens

are back again . . . at UNDERWOOD'S CAMERA SHOP . . . 727 Main . . . Martha was pleased to find this week . . . and there's really a good selection . . . from individual pens for both men and women . . . to sets . . . with the new streamlined points a mong improvements in design. All single pens are priced at $10 . . . the Sheaffer pen and pencil sets from $14 to $23.50 . . . and the desk sets from $16 to $17.50.

Summer Cottons

Among these are three outstanding styles . . . colorful two-piece checks with square neckline and a double peplum effect . . . animated plaids, also in two-piece style, set off by a white deiey front . . . and intriguing sun-back frocks in pastel checks with short jackets.

Other new arrivals are gay Oriental print jerseys . . . striped cottony silks that have bras and shorts for play . . . classic Shantung in vivid shades, dressed up with striped linen jackets. In addition, LONG'S APAREL . . . 719 Main . . . has many other play suits . . . from shorts and bras to sunback frocks . . . in stock.

Summer seems to be more thoroughly here if you have some of the late collections of pretty prints. Rows of tucks, a brief ruffle or a cinched waist top form the sleeves in brand-new models.

Among other new items kipped on the shelves were Nipper (Herring) Snacks . . . and Barbecued Oysters . . . which are similar to the Smoked Oysters . . . except these are in tins.

PINE STREET MARKET . . . at Seventh and Pine . . . is noted for its fine foods, you know . . . gladly fills telephoned orders . . . and has a free delivery service twice daily.
