

Little Furor In Prospect For Primary

A quiet, uninspired election and very light voting is in prospect for Klamath county at the primary balloting next Friday, although party candidates for the state's highest offices are to be chosen then.

In the state-wide picture the fact that the republican party has two candidates for the gubernatorial post—Earl Snell, the present governor, and Henry Black of Portland—has failed to arouse much interest. Carl

C. Donough, also of Portland, has a clear field for the democratic nomination.

Locally the top post to be filled is the circuit judgeship, with two non-partisan candidates, Judge David R. Vandenberg and District Attorney Clarence A. Humble, in the running. Interest in that race, which has in weeks past occasionally flared into public activity, is of primary interest to the county's 16,175 registered voters.

Judgeship at Issue
The judgeship will be decided Friday. Only other local race to be finished at the primary will be the one for the post of county surveyor between Frank Z. Howard and Wally Hector, both republicans. There is no democratic candidate for surveyor.

For all other local elective jobs being voted upon this year, there are no other conflicting party candidates.

Strictly for city voters are three money-raising proposals up for approval, the two paving measures and the third city employees retirement proposal. The polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. and radio station KFLW will have the results from various precincts and compiled totals as soon as they begin to come in. Precincts having double boards may start to count at 1 p. m. and results will probably be in shortly after 8 o'clock.

Mother's Day Calls Heavy

A crew of extra operators was put on at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office here Sunday to handle the 957 out-go calls, most of which were Mother's Day greetings. Double the regular traffic was handled over the local lines, with more than double the amount of long distance calls.

Calls were put through to Canada and states on the east coast, the furthest one being to Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire, Louisiana, Florida received their share of Mother's Day greetings from sons and daughters in Klamath Falls. Texas received most of the calls, the telephone company reported.

In the late afternoon, calls began to pile up and in some cases there was a delay of between two and three hours before they could be completed.

This is the first Mother's Day since Pearl Harbor that persons have not been requested to restrict long distance calls.

Mrs. Lucille Ruge, 1605 Siskiyou, was named Mother-of-the-Day at the Eagles annual Mother's Day celebration held Sunday. She was presented by the drill team of the ladies' auxiliary and received a huge basket of flowers honoring her. Her son Max Ruge was home for the first time in four years on Mother's Day.

The Rev. Howard F. Hutchins gave the address of the program, which was attended by about 300 Eagles and families. The Rev. Father T. P. Casey gave the benediction, and H. E. Burkholder, president of the Eagles lodge, gave the welcoming speech.

Camp White Turned Down

Recommendation that the Camp White, Medford, hospital not be used by the veterans administration has been made by the survey team of VA which visited southern Oregon last week, according to word from Washington, D. C.

The dispatch quoted Senator Guy Cordon as stating the team had recommended the hospital not be used on the ground that VA never had been able to utilize the 500 beds set aside for veterans when the navy was in control of the facility.

The VA survey team visited recently in Klamath Falls to inspect seven suggested sites for the veterans hospital here.

Local Cafes Save Foods

Klamath Falls restaurants have inaugurated a program of saving waste fats and bread in accordance with the recommendations of the county famine relief committee, according to Mrs. Avis McConnell, president of the local Restaurant Operator's association.

Customers at Klamath Falls restaurants will be asked to tell the waitress if they wish bread and butter, or if they wish only one of these items, so that no unwanted food will be served, only to be thrown away.

Mrs. McConnell pointed out to restaurant owners this week that waste fats will be picked up twice a week by the Klamath Tallow company, phone 4685. This company will pay four cents per pound for household white fats, and three cents per pound for grease that comes off the range. The payments will be made in cash, or in monthly checks.

"The restaurant industry has been asked to play a vital role in the food conservation program," stated Mrs. McConnell, "and it goes without saying that all of us will do our utmost to comply with this plan." The program has been set up to allow the American public to aid the unfortunate peoples of lands whose food supply was cut off by warfare.

More Charges Against Spain

NEW YORK, May 13 (AP)—The Spanish government in exile said flatly today that the Franco regime is threatening world peace by working on atomic energy with the aid of German scientists.

This statement is contained in one of the documents which Dr. Jose Giral, premier of the government-in-exile, brought from Paris yesterday for presentation to the United Nations sub-committee investigating the Spanish question.

Although the 350-page report still had not been presented to the United Nations this afternoon, it was learned from a reliable source that it contained a statement that atomic research was being carried out in two Spanish cities—Granada and Murcia.

The report, which Giral said would be submitted "within the next 24 hours," also said that:

1. Generalissimo Franco was maintaining a huge military force, a large part of which was massed on the French frontier.

2. The Franco regime was not only sheltering many notorious nazis, but actually was employing many former gestapo agents in its secret police. The report listed the names of some of these.

3. Franco was violating human rights by "tortures, terrorism and cruelties" in Spanish jails and concentration camps.

Giral said he would present the report directly to Trygve L.Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, which meant that it probably would not be in the hands of the five-man sub-committee when it meets this afternoon.

Giral indicated he would not appear before the committee personally before he leaves Wednesday for Mexico but that he might appear when he returns to New York in about 10 days.
