City Briefs

Return — Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and son Jon, with G. W. Houston and Fred Houston, returned late Sunday night from Corvallis where they spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Jabe Houston, Klamath pioneer. John Houston leaves tonight for San Francisco and from there to Chicago where he will attend an insurance session.

Card Party—The ladies auxiliary No. 112, CIO, will meet Friday at 8:30 p. m. at the CIO hall, 234 Main, for a card party. There will be awards and refreshments. All members and friends are invited to attend. The later hour is set due to election.

Improving — Little Marilyn Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mack of Spring Lake, is reported gradually recovering from bruises and shock suffered last week when she fell from a car.

Returning—Mrs. C. H. Underwood of N. 7th street is expected to return Tuesday from Berkeley, Calif., where she spent Mother's Day with her daughter, Jean, student at the University of California. Mrs. Underwood also talked with her son, George, who is being shipped out on a destroyer for the South Pacific, destination unknown, according to the young man's father this morning. George has the rating of seaman second class, USNR.

Party Slated—There will be a mother-daughter party sponsored by the Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid at the church, Cross and Crescent, at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Hostesses will be Mrs. B. E. Eels, Mrs. F. W. Delyea, Mrs. Ken Samson, Mrs. Elmer Rindal, and Mrs. W. M. Sharples.

Visiting—Paul Payne of Tucson, Ariz., is a visitor at the Devere Helfrich home, 110 Georgia, this week.

Summer Round-Up — Members of Fremont PTA urge all mothers with pre-school children, those who will enter school in the fall of this year, to bring the youngsters to the summer round-up program on Tuesday from 10 to 12 noon.

Returns — Florence McConahey, local Girl Scout executive director, returned last night from Medford, where she has been assisting in the Outdoor institute.

Bad Cold—Tommy Powell, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellotti of this city, is receiving treatment for a severe cold at Hillside hospital.

Tonsils Out—Kathleen, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rush Long, 3027 Bisbee, had her tonsils removed Monday morning at Hillside hospital.

Mt. Hebron

The former Mrs. Charles Chastain, who lived in Klamath Falls for several years was married recently to Harold Athey, manager of the Kentucky stables at Secramento where they will make their home for the present.

Butte creek, between Jerome siding on the Southern Pacific and Bray, has been very poor since the opening date May 1. The stream is a little high and there is lots of food for the little Rainbows.

No rain for over six weeks makes it look bad for the grain farmers unless rain comes soon. The potato boys are putting their seed in the ground and hoping.

Many soft-shelled eggs of reptiles increase in size after being laid, because of the streaching of the membranous shell by the growing embryo.

Will Appear At Democratic Rally

The four Mahoney sisters, daughters of Judge J. A. Mahoney of justice court, are scheduled to entertain at the pre-primary democrats rally to be held in the Veterans Memorial building at 8 p. m., Thursday, May 16. Seated at the piano is Madeline, and standing are Margaret, Mary and Frances, from left to right. Joe Carson, former Portland mayor, is to be principal speaker at the rally, and other bits of entertainment plus a lunch are planned for the evening.

Olene

Mrs. Nona Corpening accompanied by Mrs. Rose Russel, Mrs Helen Sturman and Mrs. Mary Gebhardt motored to Paisley on May 8, returning in the evening. They reported a very pleasant trip and the Chewaucan valley as really beautiful this time of year.

The Marion Barnes were hosts at a family dinner Sunday, May 6, honoring their son, Jim, on his birthday. Those invited for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Garriott and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes and little son, and W. B. Barnes. Those calling in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hartin and daughter, Mrs. Carmel Hartin, Warren Green, and Mr. and Mrs. Zed Harris of Klamath Falls.

O. L. Brown returned from California Monday night after a 10-day absence.

Mrs. H. E. Calkins, Mrs. Stevenson's mother, is now visiting at the Sievenson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Eggers of the Olene store are planning on closing every Sunday throughout the summer months. They have decided there is a lot of truth in the old adage that goes, "All work and no play, etc."

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marshall are now in Condon, Ore.

Local Girl Chosen Sorority Officer

Billie Lee McAdams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moran of 2205 Darrow, has been elected secretary of Beta Sigma Delta sorority at Armstrong Business college in Oakland.

She was one of the students in charge of the sorority's rushing activities recently.

Miss McAdams, a graduate of Klamath Union high school, is taking a private secretarial course.
