From MIDFIELD

By HALE SCARBROUGH

1939 Assortment

The newsroom of this paper got it's new horseshoe-type working desk over the weekend—that's what we acquired in the general rebuilding, remodeling and expansion of the Herald and News building—and moving to the new desk necessitated delving into drawers and cubbyholes that had been virtually untouched for years.

In one of these cubbyholes was found a list of recommended fishing tackle for various Klamath county streams and lakes which was compiled by Jack Franey for Mac Epley in April, 1939.

Here's what Jack, a fisherman of the old school, believed the successful angler should have in his kit back then:

For bait fishing with either salmon eggs or worms:

Two packages of No. 4 snelled hooks; one package No. 6 snelled hooks; two tubes No. 7 sinkers; one roll 15-pound test leader; one roll 10-pound test leader; natural cluster salmon eggs; dry pack salmon eggs; natural single eggs; a 12-pound canadium steel leader.

For trolling in Paulina and East lakes:

One midwest two-blade spinner; one Jack Lloyd two-blade spinner; tie about 16 inches of 15-pound test gut in back of spinner, using No. 4 snelled hook baited with worms.

Either of these spinners is also good in Diamond lake or Fish lake or Elk lake.

A white Trouterino (without any weights) or a green Trouterino (without any weights) is also excellent in Diamond or Fish lake.

For Williamson river and Rocky Point trolling:

Use a No. 4 Andy Reeker or Wilson Wobbler, although catches have been made on Colorado Copper Spinners, Trouterinos and plugs of various types.

Salmon eggs or worms (sometimes liver) are best baits at Fish lake, Diamond, Elk, Paulina and East lake when bait fishing with a fine leader is the biggest factor in success.

Cluster eggs are best bait in Williamson and Sprague for bait fishing.

Fly fishing—It is always a good policy to try and imitate the fly that is around the water at the time you fish. These flies vary, the season and location of the water are factors.

Early flies in April generally are different than flies that hatch in August and September. The following is recommended for a good general assortment:

Black gnats, mosquito, blue upright, gray hackle, brown hackle, McGinty or western bee, bucktail and royal coachman, sizes from 10 to 14.

Do not buy flies already tied up. Put your own six or seven inch tapered leader on the fly.

That angling advice was put out in 1939. Has fishing or have fishermen changed in the past seven years?

Seals' Thin Lead Being Cut Further

By The Associated Press

That thin margin which last Monday separated San Francisco and Los Angeles in the tight race for Pacific Coast baseball league dominance was even thinner today. And the circuit leading Seals this week face the Angels in a return engagement which could easily reduce the game and a half difference to nothing.

Two weeks ago the southern squad bested San Francisco four games to three.

Leaders Win

San Francisco did manage to sweep a doubleheader with Sacramento yesterday, 8-5 and 4-3, but Los Angeles duplicated the feat against Portland, 7-6 and 1-0.

Hollywood also swept its twin bill with San Diego, 8-6 and 4-3, but Seattle and Oakland split, the Oaks winning the opener, 6-5, with a five-run eighth inning outburst, and Seattle the nightcap, 8-4.

Circuit clouts figured in both games at Sacramento, giving one game to the Seals and threatening them in the other.

A four-run homer by Neil Sheridan in the eighth inning of the opener gave San Francisco the needed lift. Big Cliff Melton was credited with his eighth pitching win of the season, against one loss.

In the nightcap, Joe Marty homered with one man aboard in the fifth inning to knot the score at 3-3 and forced the game into an extra inning. Sheridan again stood out in this game, getting a single in the eighth and scoring the winning run on safe bingles by Kermit Lewis and Joe Hoover.

Los Angeles nosed out Portland, 7-6, in the opener when Red Lynn, ace Angel hurler, stopped a Beaver ninth inning threat that had netted one run. The second game was featured by one of the season's tightest pitching duels — between Yank Terry and Ad Liska. Terry limited Portland to two hits while Liska was holding the Angels to three. The lone run of the game was scored by Los Angeles in the fourth on two singles.

Cards' Mound Corps Breaks Under Strain

By The Associated Press

It is a moot question today whether collapse of the St. Louis Cardinal pitching staff is due chiefly to the absence of Walker Cooper, star catcher sold to the New York Giants, or to return of prewar stars to the big leagues.

Whatever the reason, it is no secret now that (1) the Redbird pitching staff is not all it's cracked up to be; (2) the Cards will not walk into the National league championship as predicted originally.

With one month of the 1946 campaign gone, St. Louis' two top hurlers last year—Harry (The Cat) Brecheen (13-4) and Charlie (Red) Barret (23-12)—have won but one game between them.

Both had almost two full weeks of rest when they took the hill against Cincinnati yesterday. Each failed to last and the Reds swept a double bill 4-2 and 5-1 to move into a third place tie with the Boston Brave and Chicago Cubs. The double defeat tumbled the Cards from first to second place in the National league, one and one-half games behind the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Reds, meantime, were the recipients of some masterful hurling by Veteran Bucky Walters and Freshman Ewell Blackwell. Each gained his first triumph, Walters holding the Cards to six scattered hits in the 10-inning opener and Blackwell permitting only three safeties while striking out 10 in the nightcap.

Tigers Into Chase

Somewhat overshadowed by the Boston Red Sox winning streak which ended at 15 Saturday, the Detroit Tigers have gone quietly about putting together a streak of their own to boost themselves back into the American league flag chase.

Dizzy Trout pitched the Bengals to their seventh straight yesterday with a 4-1, seven-hit performance over the Chicago White Sox before 43,726 paying customers.

The league leading Red Sox resumed their winning ways by defeating the New York Yankees 3-1 in the rubber game of their three-game series before a tremendous turnout of 68,193, second highest single game crowd in baseball history.

Yesterday's game was a pitching duel between Boston's Mickey Harris and New York's Spud Chandler, with Chandler going down to defeat mainly because of his own wildness and faulty fielding by his mates.

Brooks Top Phils

Brooklyn ran its unbeaten victory string at home to eight by pummeling the Philadelphia Phils, 13-4. Southpaw Vic Lombardi notched his fourth victory, aided by homers by Ed Stevens and Augie Galan.

The Boston Braves slapped down the New York Giants twice, 6-5 and 7-2, to drop the Ottomen into the second division.

The Cubs whipped the seventh place Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1 behind Claude Passeau's seven-hit pitching and moved within three games of the top.

With Stan Spence taking over the siege role, Washington's Senators gained an even break with the Philadelphia Athletics, winning the nightcap 3-1 after dropping the opener 6-4.

The St. Louis Browns extended Bobby Feller to 10 innings before succumbing to Cleveland, 4-3, in the opener, and then came back to scalp the Indians, 9-3. Feller fanned 12 to raise his season's strikeout total to 71 and give the Tribe their first home triumph of the season.

Louis Celebrates 32nd Birthday

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., May 13 (AP)—Joe Louis celebrated his 32nd birthday today after boxing four fast rounds before a large Sunday training camp crowd.

Lanky Al Hoosman caught the champion's heaviest punches and was hanging on at the end of three minutes. Jimmy Bell, Perk Daniels and George Fitch also stepped one round with the Brown Bomber who is preparing to defend his title against Billy Conn June 19 at the Yankee Stadium.

KUHS Puts 7 Men In Prep Meet

By The Associated Press

An estimated 225 high school track and field district champs and runners-up will meet at Corvallis Friday and Saturday for the 20th annual Oregon prep event.

Performances at district meets Saturday gave promise of close finishes and hinted at some record shattering.

George Rasmussen of Bend vaulted 13 feet 1 inch in the district 2 meet at Bend to establish himself as a favorite, but the 12 feet 6 inches cleared by Con Pickens of Springfield in the district 4 meet indicated that it won't be a clear field for the Bend star.

Another Bend performer, Don McCauley, set a district shotput mark at 48 feet 9¼ inches. The two records helped the Bend school pile up 60 points and win the meet. Prineville copped second with 47, Redmond third with 41 and Hood River fourth with 38 points. Bend qualified eight entries for the state meet; Prineville seven, Hood River three and Redmond two.

Two new district 3 prep track records were set at Medford by George Fullerton, Ashland runner, who established new times for the mile and the 880 events in Saturday's meet.

Meet honors went to Medford with 76 points. Fullerton ran the mile in 4:28 and the 880 in 2:01.1 to help put his school in third place.

Medford qualified 10 entries for the state meet, Klamath Falls seven on a 63¼ score, Ashland five on 27, Grants Pass two and a relay team on 26, Henley one on 4½, and Bonanza one on 4. Merrill scored 6, but did not qualify an entry for the Corvallis meet.

Lesnevich Liked By Britishers

LONDON, May 13 (AP)—British boxing critics almost unanimously favor America's Gus Lesnevich to defeat Freddie Mills, only recently discharged from the RAF, in their fight for the world light heavyweight championship tomorrow night.

Since in their own countries they are recognized as champion at their weight, the bout will settle a trans-Atlantic argument. A sell-out crowd is expected at Harringay arena in North London.

Mills, the younger of the two by five years, is known as an aggressive boxer who is easy to hit. Acknowledging his weakness in an article for a London paper Mills wrote: "I'll try not to leave myself wide open."

Six Upper Shelf Mat Men Signed

Six of the most luminous of local mat luminaries have been signed for the armory rassle card for Thursday night, Promoter Mack Lillard has announced, and a double main event plus a four-round opener is planned for the evening.

On top will be our old friend Tony Ross, battling the muscular French-Canadian, Georges Dusette, strong man from the provinces. Dusette's most recent achievements in the world of grapple were two straight victories over the arch demon, Marino Angelo.

Angelo, you will recall, quit the country after losing twice to Georges.

In the second half of the headliner, Able Joe Lynam gets together with bushy-haired Mad Mike Nazarian, one of the rougher and more evil of all evil geniuses of the fight world.

That fight is also six rounds or two falls out of three.

The opener puts Bob Keneston of Gold Hill fame, against Paavo Katonen, the fighting Finn, for four 10-minute rounds.

Pels Clash With Black Tornado

The Klamath Falls Pelicans wind up their present home stand on the diamond by clashing with the Medford Black Tornado for consolation honors in the Southern Oregon conference baseball loop Tuesday afternoon.

The game is to be played on Del Moro field, starting at 3 p. m.

Klamath holds one decision over the Tornado this season, have defeated Ashland consistently but lost two games to the Grants Pass Cavemen, leaders of the loop. Grants Pass has also swept their series with the Tornado.

Coach Ed Ryan's lineup for this game is a problem, particularly in the hill department, what with Irvin Whitt's injuries received in the last game and Joe Carroll's scholastic difficulties, so Pat Williams, righthander, may again get the call to pitch.

By Nelson Wins Houston Open

HOUSTON, Texas, May 13 (AP) Lord Byron Nelson, golf's tall tactician from Toledo, is back in the groove, adding Houston's tournament of champions to his string to give him leadership for the year along the PGA trail.

Nelson yesterday shot a three-under-par 68 over River Oaks 6558 weary yards to finish with 274 and $2000 first money as Ben Hogan, the Hershey, Pa., bantam, failed to overtake him in the stretch.

Lord Byron now has four tournament victories for 1946—Los Angeles, San Francisco, New Orleans and Houston—while Hogan has three individuals and victory in Miami's four-ball in which he teamed with Jimmie Demaret.

Thus the two top men of golf will be playing the "sugar" game when they head the field Thursday through Sunday at Fort Worth's $15,000 Colonial National Invitation.

In the human family, quadruplets can be expected about once in every 658,500 births, according to estimates.

Klamath Tops McCloud, 8-0

By HALE SCARBROUGH

Twirling three-hit ball for the seven innings he worked, Clyde Carlstrom also collected three hits at the plate to lead the Klamath Sons to an 8-0 triumph over the McCloud Loggers in the opening game of the Northern California league at McCloud yesterday.

Elsewhere around the league Dunsmuir visited Weed and lost 11 to 5, and Redding journeyed to Mount Shasta only to come away on the short end of a 13-3 score.

The Loggers were never within scoring distance, their three singles coming one at a time in the second, third and fourth frames. Jim Olsen took over for Carlstrom and hurled hitless ball the last two innings.

The Sons got only eight hits off Warren Berg, Logger elbower, and Casey Smith who relieved him in the eighth, but had the benefit of three hit batsmen, four errors and general wildness of the McCloud pitchers to help along the scoring effort.

Klamath scored their first run in the second inning, again in the third and exploded for six tallies in the eighth. In that frame the entire lineup got into the hitting.

Berg Chased

Fran Miller was called out on strikes, Hatfield was hit on the wrist by a pitched ball and took second on a passed ball, Bart Golbar walked and Berg was sent to the showers. Casey Smith, relieving him, fared no better.

Johnny Pastega was safe on a fielder's choice, forcing Hatfield. Carlstrom singled to right, scoring Golbar from third and putting Pastega on second. Jim Bocci doubled to right, scoring Pastega. Larry Georges singled into center, putting Carlstrom and Bocci across.

Al Bellotti ran for Georges, took second on a passed ball and scored when Al Zalunardo, McCloud centerfielder, dropped Earl Brooks' Texas leaguer in center after a long run. Brooks took second on the play-in, stole third and came home on an overthrow, Mario Pisan fanned, ending the rally.
